DECISION AGAINST BERGER NEWSPAPER

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Refusal of lower courts to issue amendments requiring Postmaster-General Burleson to restore the second-class mailing privilege of the Milwaukee Leader, Victor Berger's newspaper, was sustained today by the supreme court.

The second-class mailing privileges of the Leader were withdrawn by Mr. Burleson in 1917 on the ground that articles published by it regarding the purposes of the United States in entering the war were calculated to interfere with the military operations and were in violation of the espionage act.

The District of Columbia supreme court dismissed the suit brought by the Leader.

stay in Indianapolis over Thursday, as he will attend a banquet of Dodge dealers.

Elaborate Show.

Elaborate preparations have been made by Indianapolis dealers to make the show, which is the 22nd semi-annual exhibit, a greater success than any held previously. It is said that the 1921 spring show surpasses in color and lighting effects all former achievements of the Indianapolis shows.

Every effort has been made to provide for the comfort of visitors, according to local reports. In addition to large seat room at the west end of the fair grounds building, individual exhibitors in many cases have arranged miniature reception rooms with their displays.
