

GREENVILLE EXCHANGE SUED BY MILWAUKEE COMPANY FOR HOMINY

GREENVILLE, March 10.—Suit to recover the sum of $651 with interest from October last, was filed by the Charles Krause milling company, of Milwaukee, against the Greenville Farmers' exchange. The Krause company alleges that the exchange ordered 30 tons of hominy through their agent, Noah Wenrich last May, but shipment of same was delayed until July. When the hominy arrived in Greenville it was refused by the Farmers' exchange, and the product was sold to Lon Fogle at a loss of $21.50 per ton. The plaintiffs seek to recover demurrage on cars and loss caused by shrinkage.

Fined for Burglary.
Upon being arraigned, Squire Donovan's court yesterday afternoon, Roy Mills, who was arrested on a charge of burglary, pleaded guilty, and was fined $30 and costs. In default of payment, the young man was committed to the county jail.

Missing Boy Returns.
John McEwen, local high school youth, whose disappearance a week ago, caused much apprehension among his friends, has returned to his home, east of this city. The lad was visiting in Dayton.

The centennial celebration is being held this week by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church in commemoration of their one-hundredth anniversary.

The Rev. C. E. Tedford, of New Carlisle, Ohio, delivered an address, and special music was furnished by the quartet under direction of M. W. Westerfield. Rev. Tedford was pastor of the church from 1890 to 1894.

Organize S. of V.
About one hundred and twenty-five sons and grandsons of veterans of the civil war met at the Moose hall, here and a camp of Sons of Veterans was officially mustered in, with C. E. Lony of Dayton, acting as the installing officer for the officers which were elected as follows: Camp commander, H. S. Altick; Senior vice-commander, Harry Brown; Junior vice-commander, Ray Gilbert; Camp secretary, L. B. Coon; Camp treasurer, W. B. Marshall.

Re-Hire Superintendent.
Minor McCool, superintendent of the local schools, was re-hired for a term of one year at the meeting of the Greenville board of education, held Monday night. Mr. McCool's term extends from September, 1921, to June, 1922.

Non-Support Cases.
Two non-support cases were disposed of by Judge Teegarden in common pleas court here. Roscoe Miller, of Arcanum, pleaded guilty to the charge, and was sentenced to six months in jail. The sentence was suspended on condition that he support his family, and he is also required to report to Probation Officer John Garver, of this city, each week during the ensuing two years. The jail sentence becomes effective at once, should any violation of these orders occur.

Paul Jarret, a railroad, of Bellefontaine, who was arrested Saturday by Sheriff Wagner, pleaded guilty to a charge of non-support of his children and of failure to pay alimony to his wife. He was also sentenced to six months in jail, which was suspended upon condition that he pay his wife $20 a month and supports his child.

Summer Park.
Mercedina park, in the village of Celina, north of here, is to be opened into a summer resort this season. The park was leased from the Harpola Manufacturing company, by Joe King, a man of many years experience in the resort business. The park is ideally located, on the banks of lake Mercer, where boating, fishing and bathing facilities abound.
