

FREE COOKING SCHOOL PRONOUNCED SUCCESS; EXHIBITORS PLEASSED

Nine hundred women attended the closing session of the Palladium's free cooking school Friday afternoon. The school was held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons between 2:00 and 4:30 o'clock. A number of Richmond's best known merchants had displays of their merchandise, and dainty, delicious foods were prepared by the expert demonstrators from the special brands of products carried by local business houses.

Since the success of the school was beyond expectations, it is probable that the Palladium will conduct a free cooking school each spring and fall.

W. E. Peck, representative of the Corn Products Refining company, said the Palladium school was the biggest he had ever been connected with, and he has been identified with the work for several years. "I want to return in the fall to conduct another school," said Mr. Peck.

The Misses Brown, Boyd and Denebie, demonstrators representing the Corn Products Refining company, said the school was a pronounced success in every way.

So well pleased was P. Jones, local representative of the Joseph A. Goddard company of Muncie, which had sliced pineapples and rolled oats entered in the school, that he has put in a bid for his products in all future schools to be conducted by the Palladium.

The Calumet Baking Powder company, of Chicago, did not have a representative present, but wrote the Palladium authorizing full participation in the free school.

Conspicuous banners advertising local goods and merchants were hung about the interior of the Coliseum. Among the wares seen or sampled by local people were the following:

Jenkins jewelry store, Yourex silverware; Tracy's Tea and Coffee house, peanut butter, Milo oleomargarine, and Tracy's coffee; Helan's E-Z Bake flour; Kandy Shop, ice cream and candy; Richmond Baking company, Golden Cream bread, butternut wafers, soda wafers and cakes; Weisbrod's, Gulbransen player piano and Columbia gramophones; Reed's Seller's kitchen cabinet, Red Star Vapor oil stoves, and Challenge refrigerators; Hines Brothers, pasteurized milk and cream, and Lee B. Nusbbaum company, kitchen aprons. Recipes of food prepared by the demonstrators Friday afternoon follow:

Add oil by the teaspoonful, beating in each carefully until one-third of the oil has been used. Add the rest of the Mazola alternately with the lemon juice. Put salt in last.

Add water and cook in double boiler until thick (20 minutes). Pour cooked mixture into slightly beaten yolks and cook about one minute. Add lemon, cool, fill shells.

Meringue—Whites of eggs, three or less if desired, one teaspoon of Calumet baking powder, three tablespoons of sugar; bake slowly.

Pastry flour is made of four cups of E-Z Bake flour, sifted, and one cup of Argo cornstarch; four tablespoons of water. Cut in with knife, roll and bake.

HOOSIER MOTORISTS INVITED TO VISIT GLEN MILLER PARK

Camping grounds and facilities in Glen Miller park are offered to tourists who will pass through Richmond during the coming summer months by E. M. Campfield, chairman of the automobile committee of the Rotary club.

The letter written by the Rotary club committee and printed in the March issue of the Hoosier Motorist is as follows:

"Gentlemen: We have arranged for a camping space for tourists, and the superintendent of the park and his assistants will not only guide the tourists to the camping grounds, but will provide for them all that will be necessary for a pleasant vacation in our beautiful park.

"Later on we will send you booklets showing Glen Miller park, which we claim to be the best of its kind in the state.

Pure Drinking Water.—Glen Miller park contains the finest and purest drinking water of a great abundance flowing from many different springs. It has a natural beauty of hills and dales, and an artificial lake, together with streams and brooklets flowing through its valleys.

The park covers approximately 250 acres and is provided with playgrounds and amusements, and has quite a good sized zoo. I mention these facts so that tourist will know that when he drives into Glen Miller park he will not only be welcome, but will have one of the best, healthiest and finest places to stop during his whole route.

"This is probably saying a lot but we mean every word of it.

"The Rotary club of this city will place signs on all main roads leading to Richmond, calling the attention of the tourist to the welcome they will have at Glen Miller park.

To Erect Sign.—A sign will be erected at the entrance of Glen Miller park calling the tourist's attention to the camping facilities and also the fine drinking water. It is located only a short distance from our main street which is a part of the National road.

The Rotary club committee will hold a meeting next Tuesday to consider further plans for caring for motorists.

A folder, showing the grounds at Glen Miller, the camping grounds, a road map of Richmond and surrounding country, and a list of banks, hotels, railroad depots, restaurants, motion picture and vaudeville houses has been prepared by Dell Davis, city engineer.

SPRINGFIELD

those held was Asa Smith, white, who police say was found just outside the quarter where the shooting occurred with dynamite on his person.

Business Places Closed.—Places of business closed last night when large crowd gathered down town and trouble seemed imminent, were opened for business again today. Mayor Westcott, however, was expected to issue an order during the day providing for the closing of all places of business at 8 o'clock. Citizens also will be asked to remain at their homes to prevent congestion on the streets it was said.

Last night's disturbances were not in the nature of mob disorders. There was no concerted attack either by whites or negroes the shootings being isolated and entirely between blacks and authorities, who were attempting them to return to their homes. Large crowds were on the streets until an hour after midnight but so far as is known none participated in the shootings.

Last night's racial disorders were the third in the history of Springfield. First in 1904.

The first took place in 1904 following the killing of Patrolman Charles Collins by Richard Dickson, a negro who was taken from the jail and shot to death, after which his body was suspended from a telephone pole in the center of the city. Before the rioting ceased the notorious levee in East Washington street was burned.

Two years later the city was the scene of another riot, which followed the shooting of a railroad brakeman named Davis, by a negro named Dean. The negro was captured, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary. The rioters turned their attention to burning negro houses.

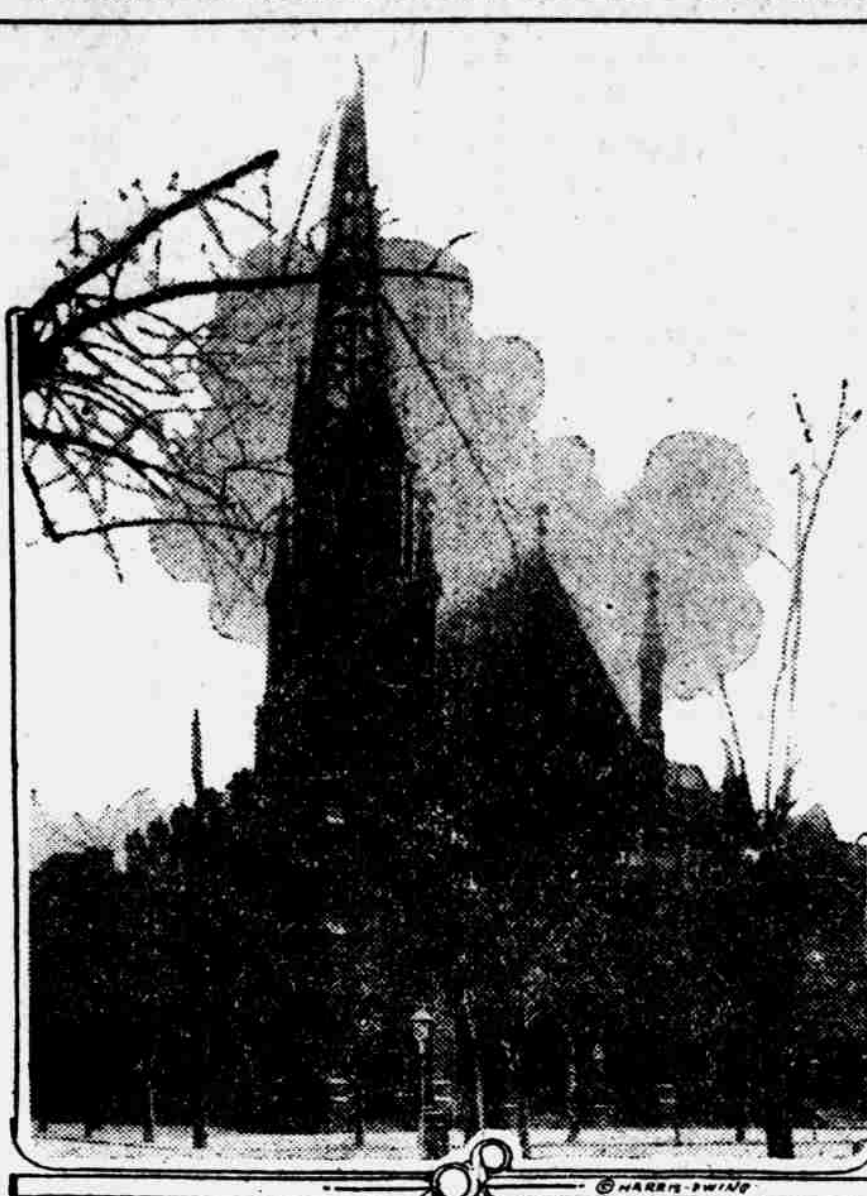

COLUMBUS, O., March 12.—The entire Fourth regiment, Ohio National Guard, with the exception of two companies, was mobilized today awaiting orders to go to Springfield if the disorders there became serious. London and Marysville infantry companies have been ordered to Springfield, in addition to two Springfield machine gun companies, called out early today.

The other companies, comprising approximately 800 officers and men, are mobilized in their local armories awaiting developments.

The Fourth regiment is composed mostly of World war veterans who fought overseas in the 166th infantry, the Ohio regiment of the famous Rainbow division. This is the first time a contingent of the Ohio militia has been called out for active duty since the reorganization of the Ohio National Guard.

Fearing trouble last night, Springfield city officials early last evening ordered the aid of state troops and several companies were ordered mobilized. When the situation was very tense about midnight Adjutant General Florence ordered the entire Fourth regiment mobilized and four companies to Springfield for duty. It was first announced that the entire Fourth regiment would be sent to Springfield, but later this was deemed unnecessary. The entire regiment, however, will be held in readiness pending eventualities.

WHERE HARDING WILL ATTEND CHURCH

The Calvary Baptist church in Washington.

It is expected that Harding, as president, will continue to attend Calvary Baptist church in Washington, D. C., the church he attended during the years he spent at the capital as senator. Rev. Dr. A. Freeman is the acting pastor at present.

WADE TO MAKE THREE ADDRESSES SUNDAY; EXPECT LARGE CROWD

Rev. R. J. Wade, formerly pastor of the First M. E. church of this city, will address congregations Sunday in the Grace M. E. church, Third M. E. church, and the First M. E. church.

He will be present at the Sunday-school services of the Grace church; preach at 10:30 at the First M. E. church, and appear at the Third M. E. Sunday afternoon. At night he will give a stereopticon lecture in the First church.

Grace M. E. church expects to establish a new record for attendance Sunday. About five months ago the membership secretary, Karl C. Wolfe, started a campaign to double the membership. Great success was attained. The goal of 500 by Easter was realized by Feb. 1, and an effort to double that number is now under way. The average attendance for February was announced as 513. It is expected that that figure will be materially increased during March.

Re-Arrange Work.—With the new conference year close at hand the church organization is being rearranged preparatory for a big year's work. The most important committee, that of finance, has been enlarged so that there is a representative from each of twelve sections into which the city has been divided. That representative is to be personally responsible for the finances of that section, seeing to it that each member pays his just share according to his ability and to look after other matters that will be of interest to the lay member. The board met Friday night and organized by electing Ernest O. Ewan, chairman; Earl Braudenburg, secretary; Frank Page, treasurer, and Horace Kramer and Karl C. Wolfe to constitute the other members of the executive committee with the officers—they to have closer touch with the details of the church finances. It is expected that the new plan will meet with the most hearty approval of the membership and prove of great benefit to the church as it is the aim

of New Things

Is Less than Three Weeks Away

The day of religious joy—the festival of universal happiness—the celebration of the Spring awakening to new life—the typification of the earth clothing itself anew in bursting buds of green and color. The time when all living things leave old things behind and put on everything new.

The earth casts off its drab habiliments of Winter and dons the verdant green; birds molt their old feathers and take on the new growth of Spring; animals shed the old fur and all mankind puts aside the apparel of Winter and dons the lighter things of Spring.

And so Easter Day has for ages demanded that EVERYTHING THAT IS WORN ON THAT DAY SHALL BE SPIC-SPAN-NEW. Nothing old, however fine and good, can be permitted to taint the immaculate NEWNESS of the personal apparel worn on Easter Day. The frock and underthings may be simplicity themselves, but they MUST BE IMMACULATELY NEW.

And so we are ready to serve our people for Easter. The whole store, from top to bottom, is an exposition of the new things of Spring.

The MILLINERY that is so important—
The new Dresses and Suits—
The latest Spring Wraps—
The new Blouses—
The new Neckwear and Veils—
The new Gloves and Handkerchiefs—
The new Shoes and Stockings—
The new Lingerie and Corsets—

EVERYTHING is ready—
And AT ITS BEST RIGHT NOW!
COME!
