PAD-LOWA and MORTAR-CAN
Danseurs De Lux

(Not the Washing Compound) (Assisted by Miss Elizabeth Kolp)

The poultry of motion expressed as Adams or the American never expressed it.
Youth, beauty and graceful lines in a complete artistic assimilation of terpsichorean steps never before conceived or executed.

(a) A Dance Creation (The Breath of Spring) . Miss Elizabeth Kolp
(b) "The Awakening of the Butterfly" . Padlowa (Mrs. Chas. Kolp)
(c) "The Pipes of Tin Pan" . Mortar-Can (Frank Holland)
(d) "Temptation ("The Vamp") . "The Flight of the Buzzards"
(e) "A'Mour de A'Pache" . (Wild-Rough Stuff)

NOTE—Owing to the temperamental spirit of the artists, flowers will not be permitted over the footlights.
