

BARLEYCORN AT REST; TEA AND SODA WATER NOW TAMMANY DIET

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 16.—Since John Barleycorn was technically laid to rest and women began to vote, the Tammany Hall tiger—that picturesque animal proverbial in New York politics for more than a century—is cultivating a thirst for soda water and tea, studying books of etiquette and venturing out to the dancings and card parties.

Whether he will take naturally to these changed conditions or not only time will tell. His sponsors today admit he is still awkward with the tea cup and that unconsciously he sometimes reminiscences blows the foam from ice cream sodas, but they bank on the mythical feline's reputation at adaptability.

Saloon is Gone.
In the olden days, of course, the tiger's element was the saloon. Here he met his companions in a free and easy manner, entered into their conviviality and managed to scatter political seeds on fallow ground. He knew them as "Joe" or "Tim" or other appellations of intimacy. If one of the number needed a job, the tiger or his emissaries found him one. If his wild, flower were sent, if any one was in distress of whatever nature, relief was always forthcoming. For many years Tammany claimed the reputation of being the greatest charitable institution in the world.

But now things have changed. The tiger's friends find no interest in the old haunts, now that only Volstead prescriptions are served. Bereft of his vote-getting elixir, and mindful that the electorate contains an element that requires more delicate courtship the tiger must become companionable as well as generous.

Equipped as Social Center.
For the past few months, Charles F. Murphy, the tiger's chief trainer, in the new social political organization, has equipped his charge with all the social accoutrements, including equipment for athletic clubs, refreshments for afternoon teas and other necessary paraphernalia designed to keep the old organization in functioning order.

The bulletin boards in the main headquarters in Fourteenth street are generally covered with placards announcing amateur athletic events, dances and other functions. Club rooms are being fitted up in the hope of attracting women's organizations to hold sessions there. Believers in the tiger's versatility are confident that he may yet become an attractive Beau Brummel, and that the Tammany organization will continue to be a force in things political.

NEGROES ARRAIGNED ON ROBBERY CHARGE

William Prad and Charles Franklin, colored, were arraigned in Wayne circuit court Wednesday morning charged with holding up and robbing Troceno Lavaroff, an employee of Toney Conrapski, owner of a restaurant at 313 North D street.

Prad pleaded guilty to being an accessory to the crime and his case was taken under advisement by Judge Bond.

Franklin, who is a resident of Richmond, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for next Monday.

The two negroes are charged with having entered the restaurant and rifled the cash register, holding the employee at the point of a revolver. Lavaroff identified the two men as the ones who robbed him when they were captured Tuesday morning while endeavoring to board a train for Cincinnati.

Circuit Court

Complaint on account demanding $52.05 and foreclosure of a mechanics lien was demanded by Mather Bros. company against J. L. Stackleather and Hugh L. Spink in Wayne circuit court Wednesday morning.

William Stevens, laborer, was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to 60 days in jail at labor by Judge Bond in Wayne circuit court Wednesday morning for failure to support his wife and child. The court instructed the county to pay $1 a day during Stevens' confinement for the support of the dependants.

John Kelsey, of Cambridge City, pleaded not guilty to a charge of non-support of wife and child in Wayne circuit court Wednesday morning.
