

ENGLISH LORD SAYS REFERENCE TO U. S. HAS BEEN MISQUOTED

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 17.—Lord Lee of Farnham, first lord of the admiralty, declared today that his reference to the United States in his discussion of naval matters at a meeting of naval architects here yesterday had not been quoted correctly. What he really said, he asserted, was:
"We see the naval committee of the United States senate laying down the principle that America shall maintain a navy at least equal to that of any other power."
"That is a claim to equality which this country never has accepted in the past and never would accept save in connection with the great English-speaking nation which sprang from our loins and ever holding a great place in our regard and confidence."
"The difference between our formula and America's is too slight to be made the subject of controversy, still less the subject of friction or hostility."

In the London dispatch of Wednesday night, telling of the first lord's address, he was quoted as referring to the claim that America should maintain a navy equal to that of any other power, as follows:
"That is a claim that we should never have expected save in connection with the great English-speaking nation which sprang from our loins, and ever holding a great place in our regard and confidence."
The difference between our formula and America's is too slight to be made the subject of controversy, still less friction or hostility."

Every week, within the borders of London, approximately 4,000 children are born, 2,400 persons die and 2,600 begin wedded life.

PALMER EXPLAINS HIS BEER RULING

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—The ruling that physicians may prescribe beer "may mean beer at the soda fountain, but never again beer in the saloon bar or hotel dining room," said former attorney General Palmer here.
"The law has fixed one channel through which beer may be obtained for medicinal purposes," said Mr. Palmer in speaking on his ruling on beer recently made public after he left office. "It says plainly brewers may manufacture wholesale, druggists may sell only at wholesale and it may be retailed only by registered pharmacists on physicians prescriptions. That cuts out the beer party and the growler."
"There was never any legal knot to be untied here. Why it took the people interested in it so long to ferret out its advantage I don't understand."
"The prohibition law," said Mr. Palmer "will never be fully effective until the public becomes possessed of a consciousness of wrong doing in violating it. I think the majority of the physicians will treat this beer matter as one involving professional ethics."
