

LEGION TO DECORATE GRAVES OF VETERANS BURIED IN FRANCE

(By Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, March 31.—The grave of every American soldier who died abroad during the World war will be decorated on Memorial Day by the American Legion.

In a bulletin, sent today by Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant, to all posts of the Legion a call was made for contributions to bear the expense. The burden of the cost, the bulletin said, rests with the members of the Legion, but public contributions also will be accepted.

Relatives of men, who fell abroad, may have a special floral offering or decorations placed on the graves, the plan for such service being detailed in the Legion's announcement.

"Another Memorial Day is approaching," said the bulletin. "Thousands of our comrades still sleep on foreign soil, in compliance with the desires of relatives that they rest forever on the battle fields where they fell. But few of the relatives of the fallen can go to Europe to lay a Memorial wreath on the grave of the dear departed. As last year, the American Legion will perform this holy service.

"Committees have been formed in France and Great Britain, composed largely of Legion men. Posts in England, France, Belgium and Germany, co-operating with these committees, will see that every overseas grave of an American soldier is as fittingly decorated as if all our comrades slept in the soil of the homeland.

Comply With Wishes.
"There will be instances in which relatives of our fallen comrades will wish a particular scheme of decorations carried out, or they may wish to contribute a certain amount of money to be used for decorating a grave in a manner conforming to their ideas. In this event, the American Legion can render a distinct service by accepting the request and transmitting it with the amount of money contributed with an individual communication. All available data concerning the location of the particular grave to be decorated should likewise be transmitted.

"Contributions from the public will be accepted and the Legion will be glad to have any and all patriotic citizens make use of our organization in this annual tribute to our fallen. The Legion will receive, disburse and account for all moneys tendered for the purpose, but Commander Galbraith does not feel that the contribution from the American Legion should be less than the amount called for and that contributions from the public should not be allowed to reduce the amount contributed by members of the Legion. He wishes to emphasize our individual obligation to our own departed."

HILLARD IS GIVEN MINIMUM SENTENCE

Jess S. Hillard was fined $100 and sentenced to the Indiana State Reformatory at Jeffersonville for an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years after pleading guilty before Judge Bond in Wayne circuit court Thursday morning, to issuing fraudulent checks.

Hillard has been held in the local jail for the past 60 days after having been taken into custody in Louisville, Ky., having gone there from Hamilton, O. He was accompanied to the court room by his wife, two infant children, and his father and mother. William H. Kelley, Jr., appeared in court to plead for the young man and appealed to the court to suspend the sentence contingent with the crime. The number of offenses committed by Hillard was deemed sufficient to cause the court to pronounce the minimum sentence.

POLICE SEIZE STILL AND WHISKY IN RAID

Arthur Fitzgerald was arrested by police officers at 10 p. m. at his home, 107 North Fourth street, Wednesday night charged with manufacturing corn whiskey in violation of the state liquor law. A small still, several gallons of corn mash, and nine quarts of corn whiskey were brought to police headquarters by the officers conducting the raid.

The still was complete in every detail although rather small. The boiler was copper and was heated by a small gas torch. A cooler was attached to the paraphernalia.

Fitzgerald was lodged in the county jail and will be arraigned before Judge Bond on a charge of manufacturing corn whiskey.

Police have had the information of the alleged illegal manufacture of liquor for several days, it is said, and have delayed their raid until sure that sufficient evidence for a conviction could be secured.

Fitzgerald is married and about 40 years old. He is a painter by trade.

FIVE FIRMS BID FOR SEWER CONSTRUCTION

Five firms made bids for the laying of the sewer on South Seventh street, from Main to South C, then west to the sewer in Sixth street, at the board of works meeting Thursday morning. Three of the bidders were local concerns, while the other two are from Columbus, O.

Each bidder gave prices on 48-inch and 60-inch pipe. It will take 1,074 feet of 60-inch pipe and 1,142 feet of 48-inch pipe to accomplish the job. The board was to meet Thursday afternoon with the city engineer to learn the best estimates. Action by the board will be announced next Monday.

Hearing on the North Third street proposal to widen the street where the C. & O. railroad crosses North D street was continued until Thursday, April 7. To make this change, it will be necessary to cut through property owned by Emily A. Gregory, Linnie C. Moore, J. Steel, Henry Holzappel and Bernard A. Kennepohl.

Failure to receive a report from appraisers who are to allow property owners damages, caused the postponement. When the cut is made, it will cause the removal of the home owned by Mrs. Gregory, and split in half a grocery owned by her. It is evident that the widening will be contested by property holders. The board, however, according to one of its members, has long considered the widening of the street at this point because of the present dangerous proximity to the railroad. Vehicles, it is claimed, are too close to the tracks when driving on North Third street near North D, for safety.

The resolution for changing the grade of the National road was adopted.
