

ADDITIONAL FUNDS FOR LIGHT PLANT BLOCKED IN COUNCIL

Council refused to suspend the rules to pass an ordinance providing for an additional appropriation of $31,025 for the municipal electric light and power plant at its regular meeting Monday night.

The ordinance was recommended by the board of works and provided for $11,025 for the payment of the first interest on $315,000 bond issue which is to be made Tuesday; $10,000 for repairs; $5,000 for sundry equipment; and $5,000 for miscellaneous expenses. The ordinance passed two readings but hit a snag when it was brought up for suspension of rules. Councilman Ford objected to the incorporation of the repair and expense items with the item of payment of interest. He stated that he would vote for the provision for interest but would question the others. He was supported in his stand by Mr. Welterman and Mr. Thatcher. A unanimous vote being necessary on the suspension of rules the ordinance was carried over to the next meeting.

Consider Dance Pavilion.

Activities of Glen Miller park occupied most of the attention of council. Council requested the board of works to refuse a permit for the building of a dance hall in the park. Members of council stated that they were still in favor of introducing some forms of amusements in the park.

Proposed plans for a camping site for tourists on Roosevelt field also came under the censure of certain members of the city body. Councilman Ford stated that the proposed plan "should be nipped in the bud." He further urged that the old be taken care of and "sometimes when the city is better fixed financially we should erect a monument on this field, which will become nationally historic."

Opposes Filling.

Esther Griffin White appeared before the board stating that she represented the Republican woman's city organization which was opposed to the closing of the old National road. She stated that if necessary protests would be filed. Richard Lieber, member of the state board of education, will appear in protest against the closing of the road if it is necessary, according to Miss White. She stated that this was a historic monument in one of the most famous national highways.

Third reading of the ordinance banning Fairview Heights and the Rathfaff addition was passed by the board.

The monthly report of the financial condition of the city light plant was received and placed on file. It showed that there was a balance of $13,477.20 on the first of March, that the operating income during the month was $41,704.01 and the non-operating income was $513.13, making a total of $55,723.24. The operating expense was $23,670.66, building and equipment, $11,326.01 and that $1,250 was paid into the Sinking Fund, leaving a balance of $19,465.67 on the first of April.

The Theatres

RICHARDS AT WASHINGTON

For over two hours "Richards", the magician, playing this week at the Washington Theatre, held the wondering attention of his audience, Monday night.

From the opening until the close, every minute during the performance was filled with some new exhibition of wizardry. All of the old tricks and many never seen here before are performed.

One of his demonstrations is the "Levitation." Here he tells the audience he mesmerizes a lady assistant, and causes her body to float, apparently unsuspended, in mid air.

Richards' most interesting feature is in what he calls thought transference. This is accomplished with the aid of an assistant upon the stage, while Richards is in the theatre auditorium.

MURRETTE

A perfectly balanced cast, artistic direction, an enthralling story, unsurpassed scenic effects and settings combine to make "Gilded Lies," Eugene O'Brien's latest Selznick picture, now showing at the Murrette theatre, a thoroughly satisfactory entertainment.

In the role of Hester Thorpe, Martha Mansfield, who plays opposite Eugene O'Brien, deserves particular mention for the excellent portrayal which she gives of a young girl enmeshed in the net of her mercenary aunt's ambitions. Later, as the disillusioned and disgusted wife, fighting her moral battle when the man she loves tries to persuade her to run away with him, she rises to splendid heights of repressed emotion more

DO YOU CATCH COLD EASILY?

HOW TO AVOID IT

Colds are due to germs. No one can prevent the germs from getting into your nose and throat. But you can help keep plenty of strong, vigorous, "antibodies" in your blood to fight and kill off the nasty "cold germs." These are made by your body. To develop these germ-destroying "antibodies" properly, you must have plenty of pure rich red blood and a strong, vigorous constitution. The best preventative against almost any disease is exercise.

If you are weak, never sit or run down, or submit to cold temperatures. If you have a devicer serious throat, bronchial or lung trouble or perhaps pneumonia and you may go off like a shot. Therefore commence to enrich your blood with a good diet and exercise every day. To build more and better blood and make stronger nerves, there is nothing superior to NUXATED IRON as it contains organic iron like iron from the blood corpus. It is a product representing the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force for feeding the body. It is a blood builder and restorer to both a blood and a nerve food. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor, strength and endurance.

Over 4,000,000 people are using it annually. It has been highly endorsed by former United States Senator, U.S. Army Generals, many physicians and scientists. The New York Times has mentioned it favorably in a communication to the Proprietor of the Pharmacy Normale of Paris. It will refund your money if you are not satisfied. Look for the word "NUXATED" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold all drugstores.

NUXATED IRON

Helps make rich, red blood and give new strength and energy.

IS IT EASY TO GET INTO THE MOVIES? MARYON, STAR AT EIGHTEEN, SAYS "YES"

Maryon Aye.

Miss Maryon Aye, who says that she's only eighteen, "honest and truly" is now a leading lady for Larry Semon in his comedies. She was discovered by Roscoe Arbuckle in Los Angeles while she was on a vacation from school. "It's easy to get into the movies," says Maryon. She doesn't tell you, though, that her beauty, grace, pretty figure and ability to take to the different situations had something to do with her rapid impressive than the wild ranting and gesticulations sometimes indulged in.

MURRAY VAUDEVILLE

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

year. It returns to Richmond for its annual visit at the Murray theatre, matinee and evening, Friday, April 8.

The chief theme of the play is that of the folly of marriage between the white and the brown race and the tragedy that grows out of it. Its atmosphere, that of Hawaii in the days before the annexation to the United States, pictures the life of the Hawaiian people, the simple, childlike Hawaiians, with their singing, their dancing, their eating and their sloth, with their generous hospitality, and their deep-seated superstition beneath the veneer of Christianity. As to the configuration of the country, near and remote from the cities and settlements, the scenery employed is the most atmospheric of its kind.

In building a new production for the present tour of the play, Mr. Tully has re-inforced the picturesque features to which the subject of the play lends itself, by elaborating on the big moments of the play, notable the spectacular finale in which the unhappy Luana casts herself headlong into the fiery crater of Kilaua, which is said to be the most realistic and effective scene ever attempted on any stage.

GRACE PICTURE TUESDAY
"The Prophet's Vision" is to be shown at the community service program to be given at Grace M. E. church, Tuesday night. It is said to be a story of love and service, dramatizing community life and inspiring community patriotism.

HARDING ASKED TO SEND INDIANA MAN TO URUGUAY.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative Will R. Wood, of Indiana, in an interview with President Harding today, recommended Abraham Ottenheimer, of East Chicago, Ind., for appointment as envoy extraordinary to Uruguay. Mr. Ottenheimer formerly was president of the Lake County Bar association. The president could make no promise at this time and indicated that the subject of appointment to be made to that country will not be considered until after he had prepared his message to congress, convening next Monday.

CHICAGO DEMOCRATIC CHIEF DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION.

CHICAGO, April 5.—John F. O'Malley, 59 years old, ex-state senator and successor of Roger Sullivan as Democratic chief of Chicago, died Monday after an emergency operation for a tumor had proved unsuccessful.

English is taught in the normal schools and colleges of the Argentine. There are said to be 3,424 spoken languages or dialects in the world.

PRAY THEM TO HIS FRIENDS

Backache is a symptom of weak or disordered kidneys. Stiff and painful joints, rheumatic aches, soreness, etc., are all the signs are others. These symptoms indicate that the kidneys and bladder need help to do the work of filtering and ridding out from the system all waste products that cause trouble. Ben Richardson, Wingrove, W. Va., writes: "I will pray for you, money this time may have helped me." A. G. Lukens & Co., 626-628 Main St.—Advertisement.

Plays may come and plays may go, but it seems as if "The Bird of Paradise," Richard Walton Tully's charming story of the Hawaiian Islands will go on forever. It is now in its tenth film feature.

MURRAY

Plays may come and plays may go, but it seems as if "The Bird of Paradise," Richard Walton Tully's charming story of the Hawaiian Islands will go on forever. It is now in its tenth film feature.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.

Terpsichorean art in its many forms is featured by Nora Jane and company.

Three singing comedians, Joe Jenny's trio, are the gloom-chasers at the Murray theatre in the bill now playing. Two of the trio are tall, husky men, while the third reaches hardly to their shoulders. In all of their singing numbers they win applause.

Helen Staples is pretty. With that start she finds no difficulty in making a hit with her hearers when she demonstrates her vocal powers. Her singing song and "Avalon" were exceptionally well presented.