

WIGGINS IS CHOSEN TO SHOW PICTURES IN ONE-MAN EXHIBIT

Guy Wiggins, celebrated New York artist, has been designated by the Richmond Art association for the season's one-man exhibit in the Public Art gallery, which is expected to open next Sunday afternoon. Mr. Wiggins has been represented here in past exhibits but never before in a one-man exhibit. The pictures, 17 in all, which he is sending for the exhibit, were forwarded his week from Des Moines, Ia., where they have been on exhibition. Wiggins is the son of a painter, Wiggins, prominent as a painter of animals. One of his pictures was bought by Daniel G. Reid and presented to Warner school in memory of his little boy, who was going to school there when he died.

Born in 1883, Guy Wiggins, at 38 has gained an enviable reputation despite the fact that he is as yet a comparatively young artist. A one-man exhibit by him recently held at the Michigan galleries in New York City, was regarded one of the most successful held by any artist there this season. 11 pictures of the 20 exhibited, having been sold.

Made Rapid Progress
The artist attracted considerable attention and made his first reputation in his pictures of New York street scenes. Since then he has rapidly scaled the ladder to a conspicuous place among modern painters. Especially is he noted for the subtlety he has achieved in his pictorialization of snow scenes. Modulations of grays and whites composed in exquisite harmonies constitute a striking feature in his paintings but more striking is the great depth which he puts in these pictures, and the balance which he gives his spontaneous impressions.

The paintings to be exhibited here range in price from $600 to $1500. Unless the pictures fail to arrive in time the exhibit will open next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Further announcement will be made later of the opening.

Pictures which will be exhibited are "A Day in March," "Wildwood," "Springtime," "On Wintered Heights," "Early Autumn," "Valley Snow and Distant Hills," "Sunlight and Hills," "Violet Hill," "Broadway Brizard," "Fullness of Summer," "Indian Summer," "The Silver Trail," "Midwinter," "In the Connecticut Valley," "Hills in Early March," "Morning Light," and "The Little Village Under the Hill."

Lives in Connecticut
A resident of a prominent artists' colony, Lyme, Conn., Mr. Wiggins is acquainted with artists throughout the country and is a member of the Connecticut Academy of Fine Arts at Hartford Conn., National Academy of Design, Lotus club, National Artists club, Allied Artists of America, Lyme Art association, and the Salmagundi club.

He has received the following awards for pictures shown in American galleries: Dunham prize, Connecticut Academy of Fine Arts, 1918; Turnbull prize, Salmagundi club, 1916; Harris bronze medal and prize, Art Institute of Chicago; honorable mention Philadelphia Art club; Flagg prize, Connecticut academy; and the Isidor prize of the Salmagundi club.

His pictures are owned by exclusive clubs in New York City and in galleries of that place, as well as other places in the country. Among the paintings by which he is represented in other than private collections are: "Metropolitan Tower," Metropolitan museum, New York City; "Gloucester" and "Columbus Circle in Winter," National gallery, Washington, D. C.; "June in the Berkshires," Brooklyn institute; "Lightly Falling Snow," Art Institute, Chicago; "Fifth Avenue Storm," Dallas, Tex.; "Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street," Los Angeles museum; "Opalescent Days," Lincoln, Nebr.; Art association; "Winter Morning," Newark, N. J. museum; "Gloucester," Reading, Pa. Art gallery; "Sunny St. Ives," Syracuse, N. Y. museum; "Old North Docks," Hackley art gallery, Balcongon, Mich.; "Through the Storm," Lotus club, New York; "Madison Square," National Art club, New York.

JUNIOR BOYS PLAN LONG HIKE FRIDAY

An all day hike will be taken by the junior boys of the city Friday, under the supervision of Perry T. Wilson, the new boys' work secretary of the Y. The boys will leave the Y at about 8:30. Every boy will take his dinner with him. They will return about 3:30 and will take a plunge in the Y pool to wind up the day.

Mr. Wilson announces that this hike is not only for boys who are members of the Y but to any boy in the city who cares to go. A large number of boys is expected to make the journey. Several boys went on the older boys hike Wednesday and a good time was enjoyed, according to reports. It is planned to take several more hikes later on. The boys hiked about nine miles on the last trip.

Boy Scout Troop number 5 took an all day hike under the supervision of Scout Master P. A. Wilson. The boys started about 8:30 o'clock and returned about 3:30, ending the day by taking in the pool.

LABOR BODY BACKS EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Richmond is to have a free employment agency here in the near future. This matter was thrashed out at the meeting of the Central Labor Council at its meeting Wednesday night. Verne Pentecost, L. C. Harrison and Cornell Hewson were appointed a committee to co-operate with the other organizations in the city for the establishment of the bureau.

It was stated that Richmond was badly in need of a free employment bureau for some time and it was time something was being done. The committee plans to get the co-operation of all the merchants of the city so that a wide representation of interests will be had on the board.

"I have talked to several business men about the proposition and they feel such a thing as a free employment bureau which would be permanent is badly needed in Richmond. It would be of considerable value to both the employer and the employee," said Verne Pentecost.

It was decided not to send a delegate to the annual convention to be held in Denver next June. The council could not see where they would get the money it would cost to send a delegate.

The dance committee reported that about $150 had been made to date of the Easter dance given on the evening of March 29. A complete report will be given in a few days.

OHIO FARM BUREAU DRIVE ENCOURAGING

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., April 7.—Encouraging reports from membership drives in counties in various parts of the state come in daily at offices of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation here.

Highland county staged a "clean-up" campaign which brought in 206 additional new members, says an announcement, and the drive is still being pushed.

Miami county reports a probable increase in membership of 250. Belmont and Lake counties are putting membership drives, aided by the county agents. Allen county started on a "more members" campaign March 22. Vinton county, which is the youngest farm bureau in the state, started out after more members March 22. Butler and Columbiana counties also have launched drives.

County livestock marketing companies recently have been completed in Henry, Seneca, Muskingum, Green and Coshocton counties. Similar organizations are under way in Van Wert, Sandusky, Ottawa and Pike counties.

The Letart Truck Growers' association in Meigs county, recently formed, is now considering sales connections in Pittsburgh for their produce, which will average approximately two cars a day during the truck season.

C. W. Wald has taken up work with the Ohio Farm Bureau federation as director of fruit and vegetable marketing. He comes from the Michigan Agricultural college, and lives at East Lansing. He is a former Ohio man and is organization secretary for the Vegetable Growers' Association of America. E. D. Wald, a practical dairy farmer, has taken up work with the federation as head of the department of dairying.

Ohio gift corn is beginning to move. The state federation office has received requests for cars from Clark and Green counties, each six cars; Fulton county, five cars; Champaign county, three cars; Franklin county, two cars; Delaware county, one car; and Union county, one car.

University May Give Degrees in Dairying

(By Associated Press)
EDMONTON, Alta., April 7.—Such degrees as "doctor of cheese-making" and "bachelor of butter-churning" may be conferred upon graduates of the University of Alberta. A professorship in butter and cheese making has been added to the faculty. The post has been tendered to C. P. Marker, provincial dairy commissioner, whose achievements have given him an international reputation in scientific dairying.

For years Mr. Marker has been preaching the gospel of scientific dairying.

Mrs. Marie Bulla is Called Into Beyond

Mrs. Marie Bulla, 69 years old, died at her home in Spring Grove at 10 o'clock Wednesday night.

She is survived by her husband, Charles; one daughter, Mrs. Bertha Stigleman; a half-sister, Mrs. Sarah Williamson, of Milwaukee, and one grandchild.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burial will be in the Bulla-Hoover cemetery. Friends may call at any time.

COMPULSORY POOLING IS CAUSE OF BATTLE AT FARMERS MEETING

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 7.—The fight over compulsory pooling of farmers' grain which began yesterday on presentation of the committee of seventeen's report on a national co-operative grain marketing system, broke out immediately today on re-convening of the farmers' ratification conference.

While the committee which drew up the proposed system and called the conference continued to support its proposal for pooling at option of the farmers, opposing delegates told the convention that compulsory pooling was the only arrangement that would make the system a success. Delegates supporting the committee's plan insisted compulsory would lead to certain failure. The attack on optional pooling was opened by L. P. Bailey, chairman of the Kansas organization committee of the wheat growers' association of America, which stands for 100 per cent pooling, but announced its willingness to compromise on 33 1/3 per cent.

Mr. Bailey declared that effective regulation of wheat supplies could not be accomplished without a pool and characterized pooling as the missing link in farmers' marketing. R. C. Obrecht, another Kansan, at once took issue with Mr. Bailey. He said he was convinced that the Kansas Farmers' union, of which he is a county president, would not sign a contract containing a compulsory clause. "I believe the consuming public will not stand for throwing the wheat into a pool to boost the market beyond what it will stand," he said.

RECEIVER OF MILTON BANK SUES FOR $2,500

Suit for $2,250 on promissory notes and overdrafts was filed by Claude S. Kitterman, receiver for the Farmers bank, of Milton, against William H. Miller, of Milton, in Wayne circuit court Thursday morning. The complaint is prepared in five paragraphs. The first three are for promissory notes, and the others for accounts due and overdrafts.

According to the complaint notes for $115.92, $418.95, and $183.82 are now due with interest and an overdraft of $958.55 with interest is to be collected. The attorney's fees and interest bring the total amount to $2,250.

Five suits that had been filed against Mr. Kitterman, as receiver for the defunct bank, on claims that had been disallowed by him, were dismissed at the costs of the defendant in Wayne circuit court Thursday morning. These were the suits of the Doldridge-Bock company; Charles H. Shank, on demand of $113.86; Mary J. Borders, demand of $37.02; James Ferguson, claim $125; and Banker's Law publishing company, claim $50.

PLAYING ON SANDLOT,
Cubs Gain Victory
(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 7.—Playing on a sand lot with an umpire who apparently knew very little about baseball, the Chicago Cubs yesterday trounced the Wichita, Kansas team in Hutchinson, 3 to 1, according to dispatches to Chicago.

The Cubs playing carefully because of the condition of the field, and as it was the third day since they had played after leaving California. The team left last night for Wichita where they play today.

WABASH REACHES CREST
EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 7.—The Wabash river, after rising steadily for 10 days at Mt. Carmel, Ill., and overflowing many thousands acres of growing wheat, came to a stand Wednesday at 22 feet, or seven inches above the danger line.

COUNTY SCHOOL WORK WILL BE JUDGED BY GRACE KING, PURDUE

Judging of the domestic science exhibit of the Wayne county schools now being held at the court house, was started Thursday morning by Miss Grace King, of Purdue University. All the exhibits have been arranged in various classifications for the judging. Definite announcements as to the prizes have not been made by the trustees of the county, but these probably will be given Saturday, the last day of the exhibit.

The domestic science work has been divided under the two main divisions of high school and grade work. Under the high school division the judging will be made according to the project, cooking, plain sewing and dresses. The grades will be grouped as fundamental stitches, decorative stitches and machine work. Formerly Supervisor Here.

Miss Grace King who is judging the local exhibit, was formerly supervisor of domestic science in Wayne county. She was the first supervisor to work here. The judging will be completed by Thursday night.

County trustees met at the exhibit Wednesday. A discussion of the methods of enlarging the domestic science work and equipment was held. Mary Ellen Bullerick, a six year old student of No. 6 district in Wayne township, gave a reading and refreshments were served.

Seven schools visited the exhibit Wednesday. Whitewater, Williamsburg, Webster, Dublin, Chester, College Hill and No. 6 Wayne township looked over the show. Several others were expected Thursday.

Special Bed Built for President Harding

(By Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 7.—President Harding will sleep in a bed five feet wide and eight feet long, six inches wider and one foot eight inches longer than a standard size bed. The bed, rushed through by a furniture company here on a special order, has been sent to Washington, where it will be set up in the president's bedroom in the White House. Special designers were employed in making the bed.

USE TOBACCO WREATH TO CROWN BABE RUTH

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 7.—Babe Ruth, when he arrived at Winston-Salem, N. C., yesterday with the New York American League team was crowned with a wreath of Virginia tobacco and learned that the city fathers had declared a half holiday in his honor. To show his appreciation Ruth tried during the Yankees' game with the Dodgers to corral a few of his famous drives. All he could gather, however, was a triple and a single, the latter coming in the eighth and accounting for the two runs that tied the score and won the game.

The Yankees and Dodgers moved on to Richmond, where today they will play an exhibition game. Billy Patterson, a young infielder, obtained by the Giants from the San Antonio, Tex., league club and who is now playing short stop in Dave Bancroft's absence was the hero of yesterday's game between the Giants and the Washington Americans at Petersburg, Va. A home run from Patterson's bat in the fifth inning after George Burns had reached first on a single enabled the Giants to beat the Senators, 4 to 2. It was reported from Petersburg that Ross Young, one of the Giants' stars, is suffering from water on the knee and will not be able to get in the game for two weeks. Dave Bancroft is reported improving but probably will not be in condition to take his place afield after the opening of the season.

Depicts Soviet Russia as Greatest Tyranny

(By Associated Press)
REVAL, Estonia, April 7.—The "decaying civilization of Soviet Russia" was depicted as the worst tyranny in the world by Dr. Morris Zucker, known here as a leader and organizer of the communist party in the United States, and whose home is in Brooklyn, N. Y., on his arrival here today from Moscow, after nearly five months in Russia.

The bid for the public dance pavilion to be placed in Glen Miller park, was rejected by the board. This ends likelihood of any such park amusement.
