One of the prettiest weddings of the year occurred Sunday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Evelyn Edwards and Darrell Herbert Watts were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna J. Edwards, on South Sixteenth street. The service was read before an altar backed with palms and roses, the Rev. John R. Webb, former pastor of the East Main Street Friends church officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Marjorie S. Edwards, sister of the bride, and George F. Kessler. The bride wore a gown of yellow organdy over white satin. Her flowers were a shower of valley lilies and white rose buds. Miss Marjorie Edwards wore white net over satin and carried a shower of yellow roses and valley lilies. Preceding the ceremony a program of bridal airs was played by Mrs. Frank Solomon. Including Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," "Flowers of Melody," "Loew," and "Ceremonial," MacDowell. At the close of the service Mrs. Solomon sang, "Oh, Promise Me." A wedding supper was served, the color scheme of yellow and white being carried out in the appointments. Mr. and Mrs. Watts left for their home at 10 o'clock. The bride is traveling in a brown tailored suit with accessories to correspond. They will reside in this city. Guests at the wedding included members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

Mr. Lewis Kinley entertained informally at dinner Sunday evening for a number of friends at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clyde Alexander, east of the city. The guests were served at prettily decorated tables. Covers were laid for Miss Rhea Smith, Miss Virginia Jones, Miss Edith Long, Miss Marie Parsh, Miss Gertrude McPherson, Miss Juanita Duke, Verle Newton, Robert Dickinson, Herbert Russell, Walter Sauer, Siebert Surface of Indianapolis, James Fitzgibbons and Lewis Kinley.

Mrs. Miles Shute entertained members of the Rendezvous club at dinner Sunday evening at her home on the Garwood road. Dogwood blossoms and ferns were arranged prettily throughout the rooms and adorned the table. Covers were laid for Miss Leota Stott, Miss Ruby Shaw, Miss Mary Highley, Miss Marguerite Chrisman, Miss Harriet Dickinson, Miss Elsie Thomas, Miss Ruth Bartel, Miss Grace Bullard, Miss Mabel Guyer, Miss Elsie Thornburg, Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Miles.

April functions closed with one of the prettiest parties of the month Saturday evening when the Eastern Stars entertained with a dance at the Masonic club. Members entertained a number of guests at the affair. Music was furnished by Scully's dance orchestra. Refreshments were served during the evening. What promises to be one of the most beautiful parties of the week will occur Monday evening when the Ornias Melas entertains with a Japanese ball in the ballroom of the I. O. O. F. hall. Elaborate Japanese decorations in brilliant shades softened by shaded lights will make an artistic and picturesque background for the semi-formal affair. The Evan J. Smith orchestra will play. Miss Gertrude Williams is chairman of the committee on arrangements. Mrs. Sidney Watt,

A NEW PLAY APRON.

Pattern 3234 supplies this attractive style. It is cut in 5 sizes—1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 years.

A 4-year size will require 1½ yard of 36 inch material.

Gingham, khaki, unbleached muslin, cambric, seersucker, percale, and drill are good for this model. As illustrated, the apron is made of white cambric, with stitching in red cotton.

The pockets are "cut out" motifs, finished and applied to the apron with stitching; the upper edge is left free to form the pocket opening.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.
