

OIL WELLS STARTED ON RHOADES LEASE IN GREENVILLE FIELD

GREENVILLE, O., May 6.—Drilling on the Jesse Rhoades lease in Mississinawa township was commenced by the Dayton and Darke County Oil and Gas company this week. Five wells are expected to be drilled on the Rhoades lease.

Oiling Contract Awarded.
Contract for oiling of Greenville streets was awarded to W. Jones, of New Paris, on his bid of three cents per square yard for 40 per cent asphalt. E. W. Light, of Middletown, put in a bid of eight and one-half cents per gallon on 40 percent asphalt, which was slightly lower than the bid put in by Mr. Jones.

Director of Public Service Demorest, however, explained that Mr. Jones had an up to date equipment for putting on the oil.

Kline Named Administrator.
Being unable to agree upon one of their number to act as administrator of the estate, the heirs of the late Robert Davidson signed a written request which was presented to Judge Younker, to name some disinterested party in that capacity. Judge Younker appointed J. E. Kline as administrator, who gave bond in the sum of $100,000, and assumed the duties of his trust, after having qualified.

Women in Campaign.
Two women will oppose each other in the municipal election for the position of city treasurer of the Indiana side, to be held in Union City this summer, as a result of the primary Tuesday. On the Republican ticket, Miss Nettie Smith was nominated, while Mrs. John Morris was the Democratic selection. O. G. Gist was nominated on the Republican ticket for mayor, with a comfortable majority over his nearest opponent, R. R. Brooks. Elmer Kerr is the Democratic nominee for mayor. The other municipal offices were not contested.

UMPLEBY IN FAVOR OF LIVING MEMORIAL ON NATIONAL ROADS

Ray Umpleby, adjutant of the local post of the American legion, expressed his approval of the planting of trees along our national highways as memorial tributes to the ex-service men, Thursday.

Mr. Umpleby said that he thought the boys would appreciate the honor. "Providing the right kind of sturdy trees are planted, and proper care be given them, I believe the movement to be a fine one."

E. E. Rice, head of the public school garden army, said he was convinced the enterprise was a worthy one. Both men mentioned the advantage to be gained from beautifying the roads, as well as preserving the memory of those who served during the world war.

Dean Indorses Idea.
From Eugene Davenport, dean of the college of agriculture, University of Illinois, comes this letter:

"I am glad the job of interesting the public in the planting of trees along the highways has been undertaken. No better memorial could be instituted for our boys who went across the seas, and no better service could be conceived for those who shall come after us. It has been held that trees are a menace to good highways by keeping the sun out. However, it is the wind rather than the sun that dries the roads and any objection that may lie at this point will disappear with our system of improved roads."

FIRE CAUSES $5,000 LOSS.
MONTICELLO, Ind., May 6.—The house in East Monticello owned by Francis Funk and occupied by Harvey Jones and family was destroyed by fire Thursday at a loss estimated at $5,000. A defective fue is believed to have been the cause.

That Heavy, Drowsy Feeling After Meals!

One of the outstanding symptoms of poor digestion and assimilation is the dull, heavy, drowsy feeling after meals. Weakness, lack of energy, tired easily, flabby appetite, headaches, constipation, nervousness and run-down, worn out, need-a-rest feelings are other signs that the body is not being properly nourished.

Thousands upon thousands of people who suffer in this way never suspect the real cause of their trouble and never realize that their loss of strength, loss of weight, low vitality and a weak, run-down, worn out feeling is due chiefly to lack of real nourishment. Moreover, clogged bowels, constipation and the absorption of stagnant waste which poisons the body and causes headaches, dizzy spells, nervousness, sleeplessness and similar troubles are often traceable to the same cause.

THE CAR AHEAD

its reliability

MAKES FRIENDS of OWNERS

Faith is the strongest word in the English language—also the greatest factor in any business dealing.

Buying a motor car today should be strictly a business proposition. While personal tastes may differ as to colors or body types, undue importance should not be attached to these features, for, in motor cars, as in other things, "all is not gold that glitters."

The PILOT builders take pride in the fineness of the PILOT design, its unusually attractive lines, and excellent coach-work.

But PILOT prestige with owners could not be so universal if these features were not but the finishing touches of honest value and expert workmanship.

The sum total of all PILOT'S goodness is its reliability. Owners have learned to put utmost confidence in the performance of their cars.

They have confidence in the word of the maker.

Whether it be a quick start or a sudden stop, a hard pull or a quick turn, a steep grade or a burst of speed—whatever the demand, the PILOT owner knows he can depend upon his car.

The PILOT owner's FAITH in his car grows from the FAITHFULNESS of its performance. To build such a car we count as a privilege and responsibility. To own such a car you will find is a continual source of satisfaction.

The longer the PILOT owner PROVES the reliability of his car, the more strongly he AP-PROVES his selection. In only one way does PILOT MAKE friends of its owners, and that is by DESERVING them.

The many PILOT advantages deserve your inspection before you buy.
