

Society

One of the most beautiful social functions of the season occurred Thursday evening when Country club members were entertained at a dinner and card party by the May committee. An abundance of snowballs, dogwood, and aprons were displayed about the club rooms. The dinner tables were lighted by candles in crystal holders and decorated with spring flowers. Covers were laid for 45 persons. Cards were played at 11 tables during the evening, favors going to Mrs. Thomas Tarkleson, Mrs. Howard A. Dill, Mrs. Helen Lamb, Mrs. Newton Todd, Robert E. Heun, R. G. Leeds, Fred Miller, and E. R. Beatty. Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Omar G. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Heun, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Leeds, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hibbert, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shuman Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blackmore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tarkleson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey E. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Swayne, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Comer, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Dill, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goldfinger, Mrs. S. W. Kitchin, Mrs. Juliet Shirk, and Carl Maag.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Margaret Schuman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schuman, of South Thirtieth street, to George Canan, was made at a party given by Miss Schuman Thursday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Holzappel, 110 Kinsey street. The announcement was made in a very novel way. A balloon blowing contest was held and when the balloons burst miniature cupids bearing the announcement were found inside. The wedding will take place some time this month. At a late hour a two-course luncheon was served in the dining room. A large basket of pink and white roses formed the centerpiece of the table which was lighted by many candles in crystal holders. Cards marked the places for the following guests: Miss Marjorie Edwards, Miss Helen Cook, Miss Edith Oelklaus, Miss Frieda Johnson, Miss Corinne Schneider, Miss Rhea Porter, Miss Bernadine Happe, Miss Ruth Horst, Miss Alma Wickemeyer, Miss Edith Wickemeyer, Miss Ruth Foulke, and Miss Margaret Schuman.

One of the most elaborate and largest parties of the year was given by the Zem Zem Shrine club Thursday evening when they entertained 225 couples at a dance given for the benefit of the patrol in the Coliseum. Invitations for the affair had been extended to all Masons. Besides local lodge members, scores of persons from out-of-town were present. The Evan J. Smith orchestra, of this city, which is being recognized throughout the middlewestern states as one of the best dance orchestras in this section of the country, played the order of dances, with Harry Frankel for assisting artist and soloist. Their performance was featured by a number of exhibitions of stunt dances by Evan Smith and feature playing by the orchestra. Mr. Frankel, who has been a popular singer on vaudeville circuits, introduced a number of new songs. Bouquets of roses and red shaded lamps supported on the backs of kneeling camels were given as favors during the evening. White balls filled with confetti which burst in mid air were tossed from the balcony during one of the dances. At another time a bag of balloons suspended from the center of the ceiling was unfurled sending scores of balloons floating above the dancers. Light refreshments were served between dances. The committee of Zem Zemmers who arranged the party included Roy Porter, chairman, Fred Mahret, John Thomas, Kenneth Toier, H. H. Puckett, and Roy Stevens.

The Daffodil club was entertained informally Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Shively at her home on Pearl street. Garden flowers were prettily arranged through the rooms for the occasion. The time was spent with needlework and music after which refreshments were served. One guest, Mrs. Fred Goebel, and 11 members were present. The members were Mrs. John Schattel, Mrs. Charles W. Doke, Mrs. Ralph Little, Mrs. Edward Sharp, Mrs. George Reid, Mrs. Harry Sharp, Mrs. Frank Siegel, Mrs. Claude Addleman, Mrs. Harry Darnell, and Mrs. Walter Shively. The club will be entertained in a fortnight by Mrs. Frank Siegel at her home, 1210 South A street.

Mrs. Charles Taylor entertained the Social Hour club at a lovely party at her home, 210 South Ninth street, Wednesday afternoon. Baskets of dogwood and spring flowers in profusion were used for decorations in the rooms. After a short business session Miss Florence Johnson sang two solos, "Mother of Pearl" and "Mammy's Lullaby." Mrs. Taylor gave a pianologue, and a contest of making paper hats was won by Mrs. Graeston Minnix. A two course luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. Twelve club members and three guests, Mrs. Amos Perkins, Mrs. Herschel Thomas and Miss Mollie Campbell were present. The place of the next meeting will be announced.

Mrs. Herman Bowling was hostess to the Suburban Home Economics club at her home Thursday afternoon. An interesting program was given which included responses on "Places We Like to Visit," a paper on "Recreation for the Farm Home," read by Mrs. Willis Rich, and a paper by Mrs. Jones on "Bread Making." Mrs. Crawford was in charge of the social. Later refreshments were served by the hostess. The rooms were prettily decorated with dogwood and tulips for the party. Those present included: Mrs. George Thorpe, Miss Susan Parry, Mrs. Weber, Mrs. Brumfield, Mrs. Showalter, Mrs. Beckett, Miss Lola Beckett, Mrs. Frank Rich, Mrs. Willis Rich, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Gilmer, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Cook, Miss Stella Harmon, Mrs. Henley, Miss Mary Bowling and Mrs. Herman Bowling. The club will be entertained at a birthday party by Mrs. Beckett.

To the Public

I believe it is the duty of every business man at the present time to try to get back as near to normal prices as present conditions in the business world will permit.

I believe, too, that he should bend every effort toward getting back to normal conditions and do business as nearly like pre-war times as is humanly possible to do.

Accordingly, I propose to sit still and not "rock the boat" and from now on in accordance with this policy I am reducing my

Quality and service will still remain at the same high standard. Present prices I am having to pay for "raw materials" hardly justify these prices but they will remain so as long as the results show the public appreciates this effort to get back to Normalcy.

Wanamaker Grew by Thrift & Health

"The Wanamaker store grew out of the first one hundred dollars saved," said Wanamaker. Today the Wanamaker stores are the biggest in New York and in Philadelphia. Along with Mr. Wanamaker's thrift was his health as an equal factor in his success.

The sick can succeed in spite of sickness, but not so well as with health. Today health is a matter of finding the cause of your weakness and removing it. This the chiropractor can and does do every day.

Chiropractic spinal adjustments remove the cause of diseases of the head, eyes, ears, nose, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys and lower organs of the body.
