

MAY FESTIVAL PERFORMANCES WILL ADD TO MUSIC GLORY ESTABLISHED BY CITY

Musical enterprise for which Richmond has been famous in former days has been re-established here this winter and the successfulness of the revival which has been exhibited by the Richmond Symphony Orchestra this winter, will be further demonstrated by the May Festival in its five performances, May 19, 20, and 21.

Music lovers in Richmond and vicinity are looking forward to with expectation to the revival of the Richmond May Festival which will take place Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week at the Coliseum. In many ways this year's festival will exceed those of former years. A total of nearly 1,700 people will take part in the performances which portray the musical activities of the school and community life of the city.

The festival is the result of the hearty co-operation of all the musical interests of the community, centering around the Richmond Symphony Orchestra, without which the festival would have been an impossibility. Untiring efforts on the part of these interests has resulted in the training of the five large orchestras and three large choruses which will take part.

Saturday Performance.—The original program called for four performances which were included in the symphony series, for which season tickets were sold last January. It was discovered, however, that it would be impossible to seat the children's chorus from the grade schools on any platform that could be built in the Coliseum, and it was decided to give two performances with 600 children taking part in each performance. The extra program will be given on Saturday afternoon, May 21, and persons holding season tickets who wish to attend this concert instead of the regular concert Friday afternoon may exchange their seats by calling at Weisbrod's on Wednesday.

No reservations will be made on this day, except those made by persons exchanging tickets for these two concerts. Season tickets will not be honored at the Saturday performance unless exchanged on this date. Season tickets for the festival will be on sale at Weisbrod's beginning Wednesday. Prices for season tickets are $2, including reserves. Single admission tickets for the individual concerts will go on sale Tuesday, May 17, at Weisbrod's. Prices for evening performances $1, with reserves, and afternoon 50 cents, with reserves. The season ticket admit holders to four concerts, with a choice of the Friday or Saturday night concert.

USE MOTION PICTURES FOR BOOKS, IS URGE

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 7.—Substitution of motion pictures for books in the nation's schools would in 20 years bring about an advancement of ten centuries in civilization, Thomas A. Edison said today. The scientist declared present primary school systems were poor and unsatisfactory to children. "The remedy," he said, "is to eliminate books and teach with motion pictures. This is a more vivid, more compelling method of holding a child's attention."

Mr. Edison's criticism of primary schools was given to qualify a previous statement that after a series of examinations of college men, applicants for positions in his plant, he had found them amazingly ignorant. The fault, he said, was not in the colleges, nor the men; their early education had been poor.

SUFFERED ALL A WOMAN COULD.—Mrs. Meyer Finally Found Relief and Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Orange, Cal.—"I always feel very grateful to you, as some twenty years ago three doctors said I had to have a serious operation. I had a tumor, and ulcers which would gather and break. I had displacement so badly that I could hardly sit down at times, and it seemed as if I suffered everything that a woman could suffer. Then someone advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it until I was cured and saved from the operation. I have told women of your wonderful medicine times without number, and I am willing that you should use these facts and my name if you like. I also used your Compound during the Change, and I can do all my own work but the heavy part, and can walk miles every day as I help my husband in the office."

Mrs. J. H. Meyer, 412 South Orange St., Orange, California.

It is quite true that such troubles as Mrs. Meyer had may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource. On the other hand, a great many women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Where Is Your Husband's Last Year's Overcoat?

There are 1,500 "husband's" last year's overcoats hanging in closets in Richmond. There they hang, cluttering up the closets, until in a fit of housecleaning time they are practically given to the old clothes man.

Why not do the business-like thing and sell these coats now when there is a demand for them? Do you know at people eagerly want the want ad columns of The Palladium for just such bargains as these? Read the want ad columns of The Palladium and then prepare a small advertisement and phone it to The Palladium. Just ask for our special want ad taker. Phone 2834. The cost is small.

HOME RULE BOOSTERS TO DISCUSS FINANCE

ENGLAND WELCOMES JAPANESE PRINCE

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, May 7.—The Japanese warship Katori, bringing Prince Hirohito, heir apparent to the Japanese throne, on his visit to England, arrived at Spithead shortly after eleven o'clock today. The British warships in port were elaborately decorated and salutes were exchanged between them and the Japanese battleship. The crown prince will remain aboard the Katori over Sunday, proceeding to London Monday.

The London Times says it has learned the official dinner to have been given Thursday night in honor of the prince has been cancelled upon suggestion from the royal visitor, who took this action because of the coal crisis in Great Britain.

In commenting on the arrival of the Japanese prince the Telegraph alluded to the United States and the Anglo-Japanese alliance. It said the treaty could not be invoked to range the British navy alongside that of Japan "in the unhappy event of a conflict between the two maritime powers of the Pacific." The newspaper expressed its disbelief that such a calamity could occur, but added that competition for armament between America and Japan would be hardly less harmful.

"The latter danger is more imminent than the former," the newspaper declared. "It could be averted by a full and complete understanding between America and Japan and such an agreement could nowhere arouse deeper satisfaction than in Great Britain, the sincere admirer and friend of both."
