A spring dance for married folks will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Kolp in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening May 16. The Kolp-Smith orchestra will play for the affair.

What promises to be one of the season's most popular dances occurs Monday evening when Wilsey's orchestra of Cincinnati, O., plays for the dance. Frank Bescher, Elwin Horner and Russell Allen are giving in the I. O. O. F. hall. The orchestra is making its initial appearance here and comes with the reputation of being one of the best dance orchestras of the midwest. The five players are individual stars and each doubles on his instrument. They will give singing acts as an added feature with their playing. Chaperons for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Land, Miss Ruth James, and Ed N. Wilson. The balcony will be open to spectators.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp will give their last assembly dance of the season at the I. O. O. F. hall next Friday evening. Exhibitions of fancy dancing by pupils of Miss Betty Morgan will be a special feature of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Kolp will open their summer season at Jackson park Decoration Day.

Mrs. Lawrence Lahman has returned from Cincinnati, O., where her husband recently underwent an operation. Mr. Lahman is expected to return home in a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam H. Bartel, Miss Gertrude Bartel, and Miss Caroline Bartel have returned from a trip on the Pacific coast. They visited a month with relatives in Los Angeles. En route home they visited the Grand Canon, San Francisco, Kansas City, Mo., St. Louis and other points.

One of the most important social events of the week is the dance the Delta Theta Tau sorority is giving Thursday evening, May 12, in the I. O. O. F. hall. The Cornielle sextette, Layton's best known orchestra will furnish the music. Elaborate decorations have been planned by the committee and no trouble or expense will be spared in making it one of the prettiest dances of the season. The fraternity and sorority dancers are cordially invited to attend. The committee arranging the affair includes the following persons: Mrs. Omar Whelan, Mrs. Guy Gotschall, Mrs. Myron Crane, Miss Mary Chenoweth, Miss Agnes Cain, Miss Ruth Edgerton, Miss Maude Watts, and Miss Ruby Cavanaugh.

GLADYS LESLIE MAKES CHARMING BRIDE

Miss Gladys Leslie.

That is to say, Miss Leslie would make a charming bride if she were to be a bride at all. She is shown here in a pretty wedding veil and wreath which simply teams with traditions. Her grandmother, her mother and two of her aunts were married in and she, too, says that it will adorn her pretty head when, or if, she decides to take the fatal step. This young screen star lives with her grandparents, who were married fifty-two years ago and are now "living happily ever after."

considered one of the most interesting annual events occurring this season.

A dance for the membership of the Country club will be given May 28, by the social committee for the month, it is announced.

The Wid-a-Wee club will entertain with a dance at the Knights of Columbus hall next Wednesday evening.

Pupils of Miss Mabel Hasemeier will be presented in a piano recital at her home Monday evening. Friends and parents of the pupils are cordially invited. A second recital will be given by pupils of Miss Hasemeier on Tuesday evening.

There are six footmen in attendance at the main entrance to Buckingham palace throughout the day until 7 o'clock, when the number is reduced to four.

WOMEN DISCUSS JOINT CLUB HEADQUARTERS

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 9.—The women's national civic foundation project, to provide in Washington joint headquarters for all national women's organizations, was the subject of discussion at a meeting called today by Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, of Washington, the foundation president. Miss Alice Carpenter, the foundation's secretary, said a 10-acre estate at the head of Connecticut avenue in Washington has been acquired, where it is proposed to construct a group of artistic buildings and clubhouses, one residence for each organization. The grounds are to be beautified.

and among other features a large theatre is to be erected. Representatives of the National League of Women Voters, the National Association of Sculptors and Painters, the National Y. W. C. A., the National Health Nursery, and the Women's Department of the National Civic federation and other organizations were invited to attend.
