BUTTE DAILY SUSPENDS PUBLICATION; FUNDS LOW

BUTTE, Mont., June 3.—The Butte Bulletin, established as a daily evening newspaper in 1917, suspended publication because of financial difficulties. In a statement by R. B. Smith, manager, it was announced that the publication owed $21,000; that it had assets amounting to $50,000, and that it hoped to resume publication of the daily in a month. In the meantime it will issue a small weekly. The Bulletin had the support of the Montana Federation of Labor. It championed the "one big union" idea.

PAGEANT OF SEASONS WILL BE PRESENTED ON ALL SCHOOL DAY

Between 300 and 400 high school students are to take part in "The Pageant of the Seasons," to be presented at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 15, at the foot of Roosevelt hill, Glen Miller park. It is but one of the many features of the "All School Day" program covering the entire day, and in which between 4,000 and 5,000 school children of the Richmond public schools participate.

The pageant is being presented by the faculty and students of the local high school. "Spring" is to be presented under supervision of Miss Wilma Craft and Miss Blanche Waite; "Summer," will be given under supervision of Miss Eunice Brokaw and Miss Marion Mains; "Fall," is in charge of Miss Blanche Doran and Miss Inez Trueblood; and "Winter," is being staged under the direction of Miss Flora Broadus and Mr. LeRoy Sellers.

Spring Opens Presentation.

"Spring" will be the first season of the pageant. The procession will be led by Pan, piping a spring song, followed by the Spirits of Spring. Green Elves will plant seeds of Spring Flowers which quicken and grow under the influence of Sun, Wind and Rain. Then they are driven back to the ground by the blighting hand of the North Wind. Later they are revived by Sun, Wind and Rain.

A Summer Thunderstorm opens the pageant of "Summer." First comes a group of small fleecy white clouds, then large light gray clouds. Following closely are the dark gray clouds and the black clouds, accompanied by thunder and lightning. Then comes the rain. Presently the sun appears and drives the clouds away and the storm ends with a rainbow.

"Fall," is briefly presented. First appears a garden of autumn flowers. Then Jack Frost enters and at his touch each flower nods and goes to sleep. It closes with a flurry of autumn leaves.

With the ushering in of "Winter," comes the spirits of ice and snow engaged in a dance of welcome to the New Year, who enters escorted by Father Time. Next is February, the birth-month of the Father and the preserver of the nation. Father Time and New Year review the seasons as the final.
