HOLD ELMER FULTON PENDING AUTO PROBE

Elmer Fulton, 25 years old, of near New Paris, O., was arrested by police officers Tuesday afternoon and is being held pending an investigation of a stolen car which he is said to have had in his possession. Police state that the many contradictory stories told by Fulton appear to involve him in the theft of a machine belonging to Clarence Jeffries, of Hollansburg.

Jeffries' car was stolen on March 16 and no trace of it was found until a few days ago. It was finally located in the possession of Fulton, police say. The wheels, and body had been changed and the numbers on the car battered in an effort to disguise the car. It is stated, Fulton admitted the car he had belonged to Jeffries and turned it over to him, although he maintains he did not steal it. Charges of grand larceny were filed against him by Prosecutor Beckett, Wednesday morning in Wayne circuit court.
