Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hanning, of South Ninth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Norma Hanning, to Joseph A. Bamberg, of Clinton, who formerly of Lafayette. The wedding will take place June 23. The couple will reside in Clinton.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Hartman, daughter of Mrs. Anna Hartman, of North Thirteenth street, and Edwin Coffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffman, of South Fourteenth street, took place Wednesday morning at Shelbyville. The Rev. Owen Livengood officiated. There were no attendants. The bride wore a chic tailored suit of navy blue serge with hat to match. Her flowers were a corsage of Ophelia roses. After an extended motor trip through the south Mr. and Mrs. Coffman will be at home after July 1 at 205 South Fourteenth street.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Hasseltine Wilson, of this city, and Harry G. Banker, of Campbelltown, O., which took place at Covington, Ky., Wednesday, June 1. The bride, who was formerly of Portland, has resided here for some time and is a graduate nurse of Reid Memorial hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Banker will be at home after the first of July at 419 South Fourteenth street, this city.

The wedding of Miss Hilda Kehlen, brink and Paul Nolte, was to take place Wednesday afternoon in St. John's Lutheran church, the Rev. A. L. Nicklas, pastor of the church, officiating.

All the parents, teachers, and patrons of the Garfield junior high school are invited to attend an important meeting of the Parents' and Teachers' association Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock sharp, at Garfield high school. There will be short addresses with greenings from Joseph Moore school, by Miss Jean Dunlap, the principal; from Hibberd, by Mrs. Miller; from Finley, by Mrs. George Brehm, both of whom are presidents of the Parents' and Teachers' associations of their respective schools. Miss Clark, of the city social service bureau, will be present to speak of the needs of her department that might be met by the Parents' and Teachers' association. Besides this snappy, up-to-the-minute program, important business will be dispatched and plans laid for next year.

The Knights of Columbus will give their opening summer dance at Jackson park, Thursday evening, June 16. The affair is expected to be one of the most prominent social events of the month. Pryor's jazz band, of Eaton, O., one of the very popular dance orchestras, will play. Dancing commences at 8:30 o'clock.

Ben Hurs will be hosts for a dance at their club Thursday evening for their families and friends. Miller's orchestra will play.

The card party given by the commandery and auxiliary of the Knights of St. John, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, in St. Andrew's lyceum, promises to be one of the largest of the week's events. The evening will be played and refreshments will be sold during the evening.

An event of interest which occurs Wednesday, is the recital in which Miss Laura Gaston will present her advanced pupils in the Starr Piano rooms at 8 o'clock. Mrs. F. W. Krueger will be the assisting artist. Everyone is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

Social affairs planned for the week end include an all day picnic which the Omicron Pi Sigma fraternity will give at the Devil's Backbone next Sunday. It promises to be one of the largest week-end affairs of the month.

Rambler roses and June lilies were combined in forming a lovely setting for the summer party at which Mrs. S. L. Hoerner, assisted by Mrs. William Toney, entertained informally for the Philathea class of the Second Presbyterian church at her home on North Seventh street, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Hoerner is teacher of the class. An important occurrence in the evening's program was the initiation of four new members into the class. They were Mrs. Harry Sarkis, Miss Pearl Warner, Mrs. Katherine Paus and Mrs. Perry Moore. Later refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Ruth Mumbower, Miss Mary Miller, Miss Mary Letwick, Miss Eva King, Miss Nellie Hawkins, Miss Pearl Warner, Miss Florence Hasty, Mrs. Harry Sarkis, Mrs. Jack Newton, Mrs. Katherine Paus, Mrs. Lowell Johnson, Mrs. Frank Hale, Mrs. Paul Neff, Mrs. Perry Moore, Mrs. Leone Jackson, Mrs. Martha Merrill, Mrs. Ora Stampack, Mrs. George Wolfe, of Campbelltown, O., Mrs. Will Toney and Mrs. S. E. Hoerner.

Seventy-five persons were guests at a reception held Tuesday evening in the Sunday school parlors of the First Baptist church for Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rowe, who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Tuesday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and ferns for the occasion. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Melody and Mr. and Mrs. Green. A program of music and recitations was given during the evening. Later refreshments were served.

A pretty lawn party occurred Tuesday evening when Miss Mary Thomas and Miss Marie Heironimus entertained for teachers of Campbelltown, O., at the home of Miss Heironimus, 302 North Eighth street. Daisies in profusion were prettily arranged through the house for the occasion. Touring was played and later the guests were entertained on the lawn which was lighted by Japanese lanterns. A luncheon was served late in the evening on the lawn. The guests were: Miss Mabel Thompson, Miss Mary Wilson, Miss Myrtle Benhum, Miss Zoe Benhum, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Thompson, Ed. McClellan, Harry Kessler, Ernest Schmidt and Heber O'Hara.

Miss Suzanne Orsaud is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Gierke, of South Eighth street, for a few days. Later she will go to her home in France to spend the summer. She has been teaching at Hiram college, Hiram, O., this winter. Upon her return from France Miss Orsaud expects to take a position in Boston, Mass., next fall. She is a graduate of Earlham college.

Mrs. George F. Burbank will entertain the Mary F. Thomas W. C. T. U. at her home, 203 South Seventeenth street, Thursday afternoon at 1

NEW WAY TO WEAR THE BRIDAL VEIL

Many and varied are the ways in which the modern bride arranges her wedding veil. Here is a very pretty one which makes use of a beautiful crown of pearls to hold the tulle in place at the back of the head. The circle of pearls is worn about the forehead like a bandeau and the folds of tulle fall softly in the back over the shoulders and down to the skirt hem or to the length of the court train, as one prefers.

O'clock. Bouquets will be made and distributed in observance of Flower Mission day. The meeting is being held Thursday instead of next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward E. Dubbs and little daughter, Joan, have gone to Petoskey, Mich., to spend the summer.

The Parker memorial class meeting postponed from Tuesday night, will meet Wednesday night at the First Baptist church at 7:30 o'clock.

An important meeting of the Finley school Parent-Teachers' association will be held at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the school. Every mother of the association is asked to be present to assist in making plans for the school picnic.

The primary department of First English Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for Children's day rehearsal.

Mrs. Walter Benfield will be hostess to the Greenwood community club at her home in Greenwood Heights, Thursday afternoon.

The Haphazard club will be entertained by Mrs. Ed Crowe at her home on Kinsey street, Thursday, all day. The Women's Relief corps will meet at 2 o'clock in the post rooms in the court house.

TO HEAR WORKERS ON CLOTHING PROBE

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Views of the organized clothing workers of the country as to the proposed senate investigation of conditions in the clothing industry will be heard tomorrow by the senate labor committee.

Chairman Kenyon of the committee, announced today that he had granted a request of Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing workers of America to be heard. Mr. Hillman wrote that he wished to reply to statements before the committee, by William A. Bandler and A. E. Stevenson, representing clothing manufacturers, that the Union was attempting "to sovietize" the industry.
