

RESIDENTS OF EATON WITNESSES IN TRIAL HELD AT ZANESVILLE

EATON, O., June 17.—Several Eaton people are witnesses in a $125,000 damage suit against the Pennsylvania Railway company that is on trial in Zanesville. Ellsworth Raub, of Zanesville, brought the suit. He is suing for damages for alleged permanent injuries sustained when an automobile carrying him and three other Zanesville men was struck by a Pennsylvania train on a crossing, near Eaton, three years ago. One member of the party was killed outright, another died of his injuries and Raub and the other man were injured.

Among the local witnesses at the trial are Marshal Willard Armstrong, Dr. J. C. Ryder, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Ashworth, Samuel Reese, Reese Pittsinger and Chester Waggoner.

Open Society Circus.
Formal opening of the society circus of St. Clair post, American Legion, will take place this evening and will continue over Saturday evening. The performance and attractions will be presented in a large tent at the foot of South Barron street.

Gear Resigns Pastorate.
The Rev. S. I. Gear has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in Camden, according to advices received here. He has been pastor of the Camden church the last several years.

Preble Students Graduate.
These students of Preble county were graduated this week from Miami university, Oxford, at the annual commencement exercises, with these degrees: Bachelor of arts, Edward E. McClellan, Howard Miltenberger, J. Hubert Neth, of Eaton; Orlan L. Ross, Campbelltown; bachelor of science and education, Miss Helen Albaugh, Eaton.

From the teacher's college were graduated the following: Miss Georgia Charles, Fairhaven; Miss Jessie Ewing, Camden; Miss Jessie Jeffrey, College Corner; Lyndon Street, Gratis.

Schlenker Known Here.
Fred A. Schlenker, who dropped dead Wednesday in Germantown, where he lived, was born and reared in Eaton and was well known here. He was a son of the late C. G. Schlenker, pioneer jeweler of Eaton, and a half brother of Leo W. Schlenker and Mrs. Stanley Baker, of Eaton.

Eaton Meets Eldorado.
Eaton's baseball team will play its first game away from home this season at Eldorado next Sunday, when it goes against the team of that village.

Cigarette Dealers Taxed.
Preble county's 24 cigarette dealers will pay into the county treasury in license tax an aggregate of $1,300, or $50 each. Eaton leads with 9 dealers; Camden, 5; West Alexander, 4; New Paris, 3; Gratis, 2; Eldorado, Verona and West Manchester, 1 each.

Licenses Issued.
Miss Katherine Rhodes, 21, Jackson township, daughter of William Rhodes, and Stanley Call, 30 farmer, Campbelltown, procured a marriage license here Thursday afternoon. It was expected the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Richmond, Ind., would perform the marriage ceremony.

Other Licenses Issued Here Recently. are: Walter D. Hart, 37, farmer, Dixon township, and Flora Marshall, 28, nurse, Israel township; Glen A. Moyner, 25, student, Williams county, O., and Mabel Rasor, 19, school teacher, Lewisburg; Claude E. Erbaugh, 30, truckman, Johnsville, O., and Clara M. Bible, 25, Lanier township; Bert

J. Bratt, 20, golf inspector, and Frances Eleanor Trovillo, 17, both of New Paris.

John Code, Retired Farmer, Dies; Funeral at Webster

John F. Code, aged 75 years a retired farmer residing in Webster township, died at his home, 107 1/2 North Twentieth street, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Code was a prominent farmer in Webster township where he resided until about three years ago when he was compelled to retire on account of his health.

He was one of the most active workers in the Webster church. He had been in poor health for the last 29 years as the result of a breakdown resulting from overwork. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Rebecca Code, one daughter, Mrs. Carrie Petry, of Webster township, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Webster church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be in Webster cemetery. The cortege will leave the residence here for Webster at 2 o'clock.

Romey's June Reduction Sale

is proving a sale of real discounts, offering one-fourth to one-half off on the many needs in every household. Many have taken advantage of the big slashes in prices—in many cases selling the new merchandise at the present market prices. This is not an unloading sale, but one of the many features of serving the public under our new home plan. Today is the time to buy, as prices cannot be lower, for, in many cases, we have more than sacrificed our profits. A positive saving event! June brides should take advantage of it to furnish their homes.
