Mrs. Rex Buckley was hostess for one of the most beautiful parties of the summer Wednesday evening when she entertained at her home on West Main street for the pleasure of Mrs. Glen Dennis, of Chicago, nee Miss Ruth Hadley, of this city, who is making an extended visit here this summer. Quantities of roses in tall French baskets were arranged through the rooms of the residence and formed the decorations on the porch. The lawn and porch were lighted by lights shaded with Japanese lanterns. Hearts were played during the evening, the favors going to Mrs. Carl Roop, Mrs. Raymond Smith and Mrs. Glen Dennis. A luncheon attractively appointed in pink and white was served late in the evening at small tables on the porch and in the reception rooms. The guests were: Mrs. Glen Dennis, of Chicago; Mrs. Frank Hale, Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Ray Kinder, Mrs. Harry McMillin, Mrs. Raymond Smith, Mrs. Doris Harvey, Mrs. Darrell Watts, Mrs. Ralph Little, Mrs. Carl Roop, Miss Lova Mansfield, Miss Esther Hill, Miss Helen Buckley, Miss Barbara Brown, Miss Mary Woodhurst, and Miss Ruth Menke.

Miss Martha Alice Brown was entertained at a pretty party given Wednesday in honor of her seventh birthday anniversary. The time was spent informally in games and later refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Miss Mary Nicholson and Mrs. Walter Lohse. The guests were: Miss Kathryn Sherman, Miss Jane Lichtenfels, Miss Barbara Lohse, Miss Margaret Cecile Balfe, Miss Rosemary Lichtenfels, Miss Audrey Rhinehart, Miss Genevieve Eloff, Miss Janet Clark, Miss Lorraine Fessler, Miss Ruth Kemper, Harold Brown, Miss Ruth Essemaker and Miss Martha Alice Brown.

Mrs. Paul Beckett was hostess to the Delta Theta Tau sorority at her home on Kinsey street Wednesday evening when it met to discuss business matters and hear reports from Miss Mary Chenoweth and Miss Lorraine Stahr, business and social delegates of the chapter to the sorority's annual convention held in Ft. Wayne last week. Reports made showed a remarkable growth made during the past year that exceeded that made in the same length of time before. The sorority now has 25 chapters in the United States, six of which were installed during the last year, one of the most recent being a chapter in Clermont, Okla. The largest chapter in the country is the one in Indianapolis which was installed by the Richmond chapter a short time ago. Indications so far indicate a continued growth this year, it is said. The national sorority expects to place particular emphasis on the execution of charity and hospital work during the year, according to reports made. The local chapter has already been very active in Red Cross and other public welfare here. The local chapter now has 40 members, 25 of whom are active, it is said. Among those attending the meeting Wednesday evening were: Mrs. Guy Gotschall, Mrs. Ray Mowe, Mrs. Myron Crane, Miss Mary Chenoweth, Miss Lorene Stahr, Miss Mary Reinhardt, Miss Ruth Edgerton, Mrs. Valdo Dubbs, Miss Anna Dallas, Miss Clara Daub, Mrs. Paul Beckett, Mrs. Roscoe Candler and Mrs. Ray Mowe.

The Hiawatha Social and Literary club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Emma Cregar at her home, 505 South Twelfth street. Ice cream will be served instead of members having a picnic lunch, it is announced. The Missionary society of the First Christian church at its regular meeting held in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon elected the following officers: Mrs. Ella Curry, president; Mrs. Gertrude Harrison, vice president; Mrs. Dolores Little, secretary; Mrs. Anna Murray, assistant secretary; Mrs. Mary Roland, treasurer; Mrs. Louise McCormick, assistant secretary; Mrs. Rachel Reid, literary secretary; and Mrs. Flora Ellis, divisional superintendent. Following the election a program was presented and several musical numbers given by Mrs. Anna Sharp. The next meeting of the society, which occurs the first Wednesday in August, will be an all day party at the home of Mrs. George Elks club members were hosts at an informal dancing party at Jackson park, Wednesday evening for which the Evan J. Smith orchestra, with Harry Frankel, as soloist, played the order of dances.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Wilma Hall, former instructor of violin in the Earlham college department of music, and Roger C. Frisbie, of Hutchinson, Kans., which took place at Clinton, Mo., July 2. Mr. Frisbie, who is an accomplished organist, appeared in recital at the First Presbyterian church the first of June. Miss Hall assisted him in the recital. Mr. and Mrs. Frisbie will be at home after September 15 at Laramie, Wyo.

A large gathering of Country club members attended the second sports' day of the month at the club Wednesday, July 2. Entrants taking the favors in the "blind bogey" golf tourney numbered four. Mrs. Paul Price and Mrs. Joseph W. Conner tied for the first. The second favor went to Miss Elizabeth Marvel and the third to Miss Katherine Quigg. Mrs. Price and Miss Quigg were also winners in the tourney held last week. The third sports' day, which will take place next Wednesday, July 13, when a handicap tournament for golfers will be featured. The tennis courts will be open to players and accommodations will be made for persons wishing to play bridge. Luncheon will be served at noon, reservations for which must be made Tuesday at the latest. All women
