BLOUSES FOR MIDSUMMER AND A HAT FOR ALL SEASONS

Pictured here are two blouses or smocks, if you prefer the Greenwich village name, which will be found very cool and comfortable for midsummer days. One of the nicest things about these blouses is the fact that they are so loose that even the plump girls may leave off their corsets when wearing them. The one at the left is a hand-painted blouse of dark green crepe with an intricate border on the sleeves and bottom edge. On the right is one made of yellow chiffon stenciled with colors in a panel down the front and around the peplum.

In the center is shown a smart traveling hat of ribbon which may be worn all the year round. It is every bit as fashionable in July as it is in December. A chin chain with a perky bow at the side is all that it is. It may be worn with suit, coat or frock and may be made in any desired shade.

It is interesting also to note the gradual change in programs from early days. At first we had reminiscences from old settlers, recalling pioneer hardships and accomplishments. Then as the old settlers became fewer, such speeches were supplanted by exhibits of relics of older days, such as side saddles, sugar troughs, flax hackles, spinning wheels, home spun cloth and saddle bags. Of late years, the tendency has been to have some noted speaker address the gathering, added Mr. Ratliff.

Very few old settlers beyond 85 years of age still remain in the county according to Mr. Ratliff. There were 222 deaths of old settlers recorded between the time of the 1919 meeting and the 1920.

Henna as a tonic was known by the Ancient Egyptians, and was used extensively for its remarkable benefits to the skin and scalp. We bring the tonic values of Henna to you today in Lura Liquid Henna Shampoo.

This positive proven-by-the-test-of-Ages tonic eradicates the cause of hair and scalp troubles. Lura Liquid Henna Shampoo will get at the seat of the trouble, destroy the cause, cleanse the scalp and give new life to the hair.

LURA can be used solely with its coloring advantages, but in either case, you will have the benefits of Henna as a tonic. After the scalp is thoroughly cleansed, the length of time you allow the shampoo to remain upon hair, determines the extent of the color effect you receive.

The lovely rich tones of your hair can be intensified to just the tint you desire without the smallest danger of getting an unnatural shade. It does not stain the hands or scalp. The full directions are on every bottle.

Don't let this week slip by without taking advantage of our offer. Think what it means to every man, woman and child, the gloss and brightness of Youth in your hair, hair health and hair beauty. Lura Liquid Henna Shampoo comes in one size only. Price $1.00.

HOW TO USE IT

As a General Shampoo: Wet hair thoroughly, then pour one tablespoonful of Shampoo on head and massage vigorously, loosening all dirt and dandruff. Rinse well, then apply another tablespoonful of Shampoo, rub well and rinse thoroughly. Do not rub. Do not apply more than three to five minutes then apply water, massage and rinse thoroughly. Will not color the hair, but gives that "golden glint" so much desired.

To Bring Out the Glint Not Changing the Color: Wet the hair thoroughly. Pour about one tablespoonful of Shampoo on hair, massage vigorously, loosening all dirt and dandruff. Rinse well, then apply another tablespoonful of Shampoo and distribute evenly. Do not rub. Do not apply more than three to five minutes then apply water, massage and rinse thoroughly. Will not color the hair, but gives that "golden glint" so much desired.

To Darken Gray Hair and Bring True Henna Tone: Wet the hair thoroughly. Put one tablespoonful of Shampoo directly on the hair. Rub vigorously into a lather, then rinse the soap out of the hair and rub hair with dry towel so water does not drip from hair, then apply another tablespoonful of Shampoo directly on the hair and distribute evenly. DO NOT RUB. DO NOT APPLY MORE WATER. Allow Shampoo to remain on hair fifteen to thirty minutes, then apply more water, rub in to a lather and rinse well.
