

EMPHASIZE SERVICE IN HIGH SCHOOLS, IS PLEA OF EDWARDS

Lack of religious training in the high schools was pointed out by President David M. Edwards, of Earlham college in his report of second annual meeting of the Indiana Academies in its Saturday session.

President Edwards advocated education in the academies looking to service and warned against too much emphasis being placed on commercial training.

His report recommended that the Indiana Yearly Meeting become interested in Fairmount and Spaulding Academies instead of allowing all the responsibility to rest on the quarterly meetings.

The report of the Earlham college treasurer showed that the general education board had offered a gift of $200,000 to the $600,000 fund sought by the institution. Rigid economy was practiced at Earlham last year, it was reported.

Mead Kelsey, in his report on Armenian activities stressed the great need of relief and urged that Friends interest themselves in the plight of that country.

Resolutions were approved by the Yearly Meeting asking the administration to see that subject races in Turkey were not persecuted.

KATO TO HEAD JAP NAVY'S DELEGATION TO U. S. CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)

TOKIO, Aug. 12.—Vice-Admiral Kanjiro Kato, director of the naval staff college, has been informally selected by the Japanese navy to head this country's naval delegation to the conference on disarmament and far eastern questions to be held in Washington late this autumn, says the newspaper Nichi Nichi. He is to be accompanied to the United States, it is said, by Captains K. Yamashita, Y. Yoda, Nagao and six other officers.

The league of nations association of Japan has adopted resolutions supporting the principles actuating President Harding in calling the disarmament conference.

"The practical realization of the reduction of armaments," resolutions stated, "would be extremely difficult as long as a great power like the United States remains outside of the league of nations. The American proposal looking to an international conference is therefore particularly gratifying, as it undoubtedly is a step forward in the right direction. The Japanese league of nations associations hopes similar associations established in various countries to further the objects of the league of nations will use every means at their disposal to achieve a reduction of armaments."

"The existence of a strong international organization is necessary to the success of any scheme looking to the reduction of armaments or other measures having for their object the maintenance of a durable peace among nations. It is therefore believed that America's move has given an excellent opportunity to powers already affiliated with the league of nations to exert their best endeavors in persuading the United States also to become a member."

COMMITTEE TO SEEK COMMUNITY CHEST ORGANIZATION HERE

A committee composed of representatives from all organizations likely to be interested in the establishment of a Community Chest is being formed under the direction of a committee recently appointed by the Rotary club to investigate plans for a Community Fund.

This committee will undertake to work out a Community Chest organization. The plan then adopted would be referred back to the several organizations to see if they desired to actively co-operate in the movement.

The requests sent to various public organizations states that if the board of directors is favorably inclined towards a further consideration of the plan a representative should be appointed as soon as possible to act on the organization committee.

Appointment Not Binding

Appointment of such a representative does not bind the organization to become a part of the Community Fund if it is organized, but would rather be an indication of interest in seeing if a plan can be worked out satisfactory to all concerned.

The Rotary club committee states that it will furnish some one familiar with the general plan to present the matter to any of the organizations desiring such. The Rotary committee is composed of Louis F. Ross, chairman, H. R. Robinson and Walker Land.

The notice was sent to the Social Service bureau, Y. M. C. A., Wayne County Dental society, Y. M. C. ## OBREGON IS ADAMANT IN POLICY TO SECURE RECOGNITION BY U. S.

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 12.—President Obregon still maintains his recently announced policy relative to securing recognition of the present Mexican government by the United States. The foreign office last night made public a statement that there was no intention on the part of Mexico to sign a treaty with the United States prior to recognition, and that the whole attitude of the government regarding this matter had undergone no change.

A statement was called forth by the interview attributed to Henry P. Fletcher, American under-secretary of state, who was interviewed at Washington Thursday by a director of the newspaper El Universal. Mr. Fletcher is said to have demanded that article 27 of the Mexican constitution, which nationalizes deposits of petroleum, be declared non-retroactive.

"It is idle to think of granting recognition," Mr. Fletcher is said to have asserted, "if Mexico is unwilling to sign a treaty of amity and commerce. Washington does not intend to make a peremptory demand for the payment of Mexico's foreign debt or for the payment of damages. The United States is not making an exception in Mexico's case, as the same guarantees are being demanded of Germany and Greece."
