

GREENVILLE WOMAN ANSWERS CHARGES MADE BY HUSBAND

GREENVILLE, O., Aug. 17.—Martha Yost has filed an answer and cross petition to her husband's petition for divorce in common pleas court. Mrs. Yost denies all the allegations made in the petition of Peter Yost, her husband, except the date of their marriage and the fact that they have been separated since last November.

She states that Yost was guilty of gross neglect of duty, extreme cruelty, has called her vile names, assaulted her and at the time named above was compelled to leave him. She asks that their property rights be settled by the court, and that if any divorce is granted, that it be given her on the cross petition.

Greenville Golfers Lose.

Twenty-five Greenville golfers went to Union City Sunday to play a tournament with a like number of members of the High Banks country club, who defeated by the Indiana players. Andy Anderson, local professional, had no trouble in defeating Purl Turner, one of the best golfers in eastern Indiana. Union City plays a return tournament here Sunday, Aug. 28.

Wright Purchases Elevator.

Announcement has been received in this city of the purchase by Edwin C. Wright, Greenville attorney, of the property of the Hartford City Grain and Milling Company, at Hartford City, Indiana.

Wright has taken immediate possession of the properties, which include the flour mill along the Erie tracks, and the Pennsylvania and Lake Erie elevators. The present manager of the concern, Mr. M. V. Groves, who has been connected with the company since 1886, will continue to manage the properties.

Many Teachers in Town.

Teachers from all over the country are thronging local streets this week, during the Darke county teachers institute, which started Monday morning and will close Friday afternoon at the St. Clair memorial hall.

Dr. Charles T. Grawe, of Detroit, was the speaker Tuesday morning, using as his subject "What Are Some of the Things You Would Expect to Find in A Model School?" In speaking of the physical conditions that should prevail in the school room Dr. Grawe stated that "where beauty comes in, mischief goes out."

He stresses the point that every child should be kept actively engaged in interesting and worth while work. State superintendent of schools, Vernon M. Reigle, who was scheduled to speak yesterday, was unable to be present on account of pressing matters demanding his attention at Columbus. Miss Laura Mengert, of Columbus, was the speaker in the afternoon.
