

NEXT WEEK AT THE THEATRES

MURRAY

Although Eva Novak scored emphatic hits in her first two starring vehicles, "Wanted at Headquarters" and "The Torrent", her role of the New York society girl in "Society Secrets" coming to the Murray Theater on Monday, is sure to establish her as a prime favorite. It is not only one of the most sympathetic characters ever created for the screen, but is equally rich in opportunities for pathos and humor.

MURRAY VAUDEVILLE

Bobby Jarvis and company, consisting of three ladies and one gentleman in their comedy offering, "Man Wanted", will headline the new bill at the Murray opening Monday matinee, for the first half. This act is a review of comedy, song, dances and music; carry their own stage settings and come here direct from Keith's theater, Toledo, O.

The supporting acts are Welch and Hazelton, two comedians who make the Murray their opening point from New York City, for their invasion of all the Keith western houses in their comedy character sketch, "The Janitor"; Ruth Glandville assisted by Hal Sanders in a refined musical act billing themselves as "The World's Greatest Saxophonists"; and Joe Madden, "Comedy Juggler", with Eva Novak on the screen in her latest feature, "Society Secrets".

Sidney Taylor and company will top the bill opening Thursday in their comedy sketch "A Thousand Dollars". Other prominent features will be The Great Howard in "A Ventriloquial Oddity"; Mowatt and Mullen, a clever comedian and a beautiful girl in "Bits of Comedy and Novelty"; and Hector and His Pals, an unusual canine offering.

Hector is "Just a Dog", but with his canine assistants they certainly entertain to the delight of the most critical audiences. Carmel Myers will be seen upon the screen in "A Dangerous Moment", a five-reel feature of night life in the great metropolis.

The excellent bills seen at the Murray during the past few weeks are only forerunners of the super-excellent Keith bills to be presented during the coming regular season.

MURRAY

Constance Talmadge, pretty, young film star who will be seen in "Wedding Bells" at the Murrette theatre, commencing Sunday, doesn't agree with the person who recently scored jazz music by saying:

"Jazz expresses hysteria and incites to idleness, revelry, dissipation, destruction, discord and chaos. It accords with the devastation, volcanic spirit that has burst over the world in the last six years. Human nerves tissues respond to this perverted organization of sound just as readily as did those of the voodoo zealots."

"I think that's hardly fair to the million of people in the United States who are singing jazz songs and dancing to popular tunes," said Miss Talmadge. "It was only a short time ago when one of our prominent educators said that a singing nation was always secure."

BANDITS BIND AND GAG TWO AND ROB BANK OF $2,000
NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Three armed men entered the Imperial Bank of Canada on the main street of Queenstown, Ontario, Friday afternoon, bound and gagged the teller and accountant, and stole $2,000 in cash. The robbery was discovered fifteen minutes later when Constable Kilkenny of Queenstown, entered the bank to transact some business.

CHICAGO POOR KIDDIES ENJOY FARM OUTINGS

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 20.—Nearly two hundred children of the Chicago slums already have received two-weeks outings this summer in farm houses of Illinois Agricultural association members.

Requests have come in to the association from its members for 350 children since the farmers, in co-operation with the United Charities of Chicago, began in July their project to provide vacations for the youngsters of the tenements.

Almost all the children have gone to 12 Illinois counties, all within a radius of less than a hundred miles from Chicago. Railroads have been offering free fare to children on outings.

GRAY CLAIMS

hence no surprise has been expressed among members of Indiana's political colony in Washington over Judge Gray's announced change of residence from Connersville to Liberty, Ind.

Judge Gray has been in Washington almost continuously since last spring, but the nature of his business here has not been revealed. His activities, however, have been known to take him as far as the executive offices of the White House. He has been a power in Democratic politics in the sixth district of Indiana for a number of years and is regarded as one of the shrewdest politicians in the state.

Tague Candidate
Cecil C. Tague, of Brookville, who represented Franklin county in the state senate last winter and is said to have been the author of the law which created the Union-Franklin judicial circuit, now serves as judge of the new circuit, having received his appointment from Governor McCray.

The election of a judge will occur in November, 1922, and Tague, who was in Washington this week, has announced that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination. He is said to be the candidate of the Republican organizations in both Union and Franklin counties. Roscoe C. O'Byrne of Brookville, is expected to oppose Tague for the Republican nomination. It is understood that there will be several candidates for the Democratic nomination for judge in addition to Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gause, John Evans and Raymond Jones, all of Richmond, Ind., have been attending the annual national convention of the Society of American Florists in Washington this week.

Miss Alice Robertson, the only woman member of congress, and oddly enough, a pronounced anti-suffragist, has again aroused the ire of the woman suffrage leaders in Washington. "Miss Alice" is opposed to having a woman included among the members of the delegation which is to represent the United States at the forthcoming disarmament conference, a proposal which is being ardently championed by several suffrage organizations.

"Show me a woman in the United States who is qualified, and I might urge her appointment," says the lady from Oklahoma, adding that no woman, to her knowledge, possesses the necessary knowledge of diplomacy and the faculty of listening a great deal and saying little.

The remarks attributed to "Miss Alice" have drawn fire from Mrs. Richard Edwards, vice-president of the National Women's Party, who says: "What Miss Robertson says or thinks is negligible. She is a political accident and in no way represents women, though she sits as the only woman in congress."

Up to this time no mere male politician has had the temerity to mix into the row.

It is generally understood that a woman will not be included as a member of the disarmament delegation.
