

ALL CREEDS TO JOIN TO PRAY FOR SUCCESS OF ARMS CONFERENCE

Arrangements are being made for a celebration of Sunday, Nov. 6, as a day of prayer for the limitation of armaments conference to be held in Washington, D. C., Nov. 11, and in observance of Armistice day. Religious bodies of Richmond are working toward a big mass meeting to be held either in the Coliseum or the high school auditorium, on the night of the Sunday named.

The executive committee in charge of arrangements held its first meeting Saturday morning. It is composed of Father W. J. Cronin, representing the Catholic community of the city; Samuel Fred, representing local Jews; and Dr. W. McClean Work, pastor of Reid Memorial church, representing the Richmond Protestants.

Work Heads Committee
That such a celebration be held was the suggestion of the program committee of the Ministerial association at its last meeting. Dr. Work is chairman of that committee.

There are to be three speakers on the program of the mass celebration. Each of the three members of the executive committee will secure one speaker. All speakers will be laymen. It is hoped that every church in the city will give up its evening service on the day named, and participate in the united meeting.

Prof. J. E. Maddy, of the Richmond public schools, is chairman of the committee arranging a musical program. He is assisted by Mrs. Harley Porterfield, organist at St. Mary's church, and R. B. Jones, leader of the Reid Memorial choir.

COURT ANNOUNCES BAR RULE CHANGES

New bar rules have been promulgated by Judge William A. Bond to become effective with the opening of the October term of court next week. Very few changes were made in the old rules.

The principal change is in regard to divorces and annulments of marriage. In the future no decree for divorce or annulment of marriage will be entered on record until all the costs of such action are fully paid. No action for divorce will be placed on the docket or any summons issued until costs of filing, docketing, issuing of summons and services, and costs of publication in case of non-residents, have been paid.

INDIANAPOLIS YOUTH GOES TO STATE FARM

Isadore Kobay, 19 years old, 2417 North Alabama street, Indianapolis, was sentenced to serve a term of 30 days at the state penal farm and pay a fine of $150, after being found guilty by Judge Bond in pronouncing the sentence that Kobay's youth prevented his giving him a much heavier sentence. The liquor was ordered destroyed. The machine which Kobay was driving was released to his brother, to whom it was said to belong.

Koby was arrested a few weeks ago when an automobile in which he was carrying 10 cases of whisky became stuck at a bridge south of Richmond.

Judge Bond stated in pronouncing the sentence that Kobay's youth prevented his giving him a much heavier sentence. The liquor was ordered destroyed. The machine which Kobay was driving was released to his brother, to whom it was said to belong.

The aim of the school is to follow the most progressive thought in education, Mrs. Griffith states. More stress will be laid at first upon the immediate interests and activities of the children than upon formal subject matter.

LEDoux TO REQUEST PUBLICATION OF LIST OF WAR PROFITEERS

(By Associated Press).
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Urban Ledoux today announced that he would go to Washington and appeal to President Harding to publish a list of war profiteers with the hope that they would split half of their earnings with destitute and unemployed war veterans. The request will refer to those who made more than 100 per cent profit.

Ledoux said that he would leave New York tomorrow night after a committee meeting at the Central Park and would seek an interview with the president and secretary of commerce Hoover.

"I shall give each of them meal tickets," he added, "and I may also take some human documents along with the hope of procuring an interview in the White House, where the president can hear from the bottom of the men's hearts, their story."

From Washington he intends to go to Buffalo to help unemployed lake seamen, and then visit Chicago and probably St. Louis.

New York's unemployed women were summoned today to an afternoon mass meeting in Union Square at which plans will be discussed to relieve their hardships.

The meeting is sponsored by a committee headed by Miss Jeanette Bankin of the Consumers League, who insists that all the concern for jobless persons should not be directed toward men.

JUDGE RULES SOON ON DEMURRER FILED BY CHICAGO TRIBUNE

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The final arguments on the demurrer filed by the Chicago Tribune against the city of Chicago's $100,000,000 libel suit here to be heard before Judge Harry M. Fisher today in circuit court.

According to a comment at the close of court yesterday by Judge Fisher, the outcome will hinge largely upon whether the city, in the present suit, is to be treated as acting in its governmental or corporate capacity.

Chester E. Cleveland, special counsel for the city was asked by Judge Fisher to discuss as an abstract proposition, the course that a court should take when the subject matter of a suit affected some of the city's property only incidentally. He wished the views of counsel as to whether in such circumstances the city was to be treated simply as a private corporation.

Involves Millions
The question arose after Mr. Cleveland had quoted the supreme court in the state as holding that Chicago in its private capacity, was subject to the same rules as natural persons unless expressly exempted by statute.

The suit alleges damages of $100,000,000 because the Tribune in the campaign of 1920 stated that the city was "broke". Attorneys for the paper filed a demurrer and argued that upholding of the suit would abridge the right of free speech.

The city counsel have countered this with a declaration that right of free speech carries no right to tell malicious lies.
