creases as the number of patients increases. In other words, one dietitian, one superintendent, one head nurse, one engineer, etc., can take care of 100 patients as well as they can of 50. We began our institution with Fort Recovery camp, which consisted of six Burr cottages grouped around a little, old, tumble-down farmhouse, but I would advise against this and would strongly urge that when you begin you begin on a large scale.

"When we began this work we had great trouble getting over $10,000 as an appropriation for the work. Now, since we have our county council and community convinced that fighting tuberculosis is economy, the county council has appropriated this year $25,000 for our use. If there are any other questions which are within my power to answer, I will be very glad to give you further information.

"Very truly yours, of Gratis township, on whose account a charge against him was lodged in juvenile court.

Judge Makes Decision.
Judge A. C. Risinger has handed down a decision in common pleas court in which the Twin Valley Light and Power company is perpetually enjoined from transmitting electrical current in the village of West Elkhon. All poles and wires of the company must be removed.

The village brought a court action to oust the company, upon the ground that the company had no franchise from the village. The company has given notice of intention to appeal the case and the appeal bond has been fixed at $100.

Make Student Auditor.
Miss Carrie Rosellus, of West Alexandria, has been made auditor of student organizations' accounts, at Oxford, succeeding Miss Edith Arch, of Chillicothe. Miss Rosellus formerly was connected with Chicago university and the University of Wisconsin. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rosellus.

Sheriff Returns Quartet.
Sheriff George Jones has returned from Collinsville, Ill., with Frank Hartman, Gladys Hall and Mary Miller, all of Lewisburg, and Willard White of Eaton, who together allegedly left this county three or four weeks ago. The quartet is in the county jail here, pending disposal of the case in juvenile court, as the girls are said to be minors. Hartman is said to have a wife and child. White is unmarried.

Teachers Organize Body to Solve School Problems

The teachers' discussion class organized the group into a body of teachers to solve everyday classroom problems, at its meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was conducted by W. G. Bate, superintendent of schools. Teachers throughout the city came to the first meeting of the class and the 115 who were present showed considerable enthusiasm in the project. Mr. Bate announced that the class would meet every Tuesday afternoon for the next 10 weeks.
