The Woman's Club Notes

Two gatherings of departments of the Woman's club are to be held this week. The music department will meet in the Public Art gallery at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning and the civics department will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Public Art gallery.

Presentation of a program of autumn music will feature the opening of the music department's activities for the season in the Public Art gallery Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The program has been arranged by Mrs. Ora Stegall and Miss Ruth Scott. It includes seven numbers, the last being a cantata, "The Life of a Leaf."

The cantata, which is to be one of the features of the program is an interesting bit of modern music. It was written by Mrs. E. L. Ashford, an American, and, although it takes in the cycle of all the year, portraying the life of the leaves through spring, summer, fall, and winter, it is especially appropriate for autumn. The words and music, both by Mrs. Ashford, are of a delightfully whimsical character, which portrays the leaf as telling its own story.

Following is the program as it will be presented:

I. (a) "From Puritan Days," (b) "Joys of Autumn," (MacDowell)—Mrs. Roy Campbell.

II. Double trio, (a) "The Runaway Leaves" (Anna Priscilla Richter); (b) "Dance of the Leaves," (H. Waldo Warner). Mrs. M. D. Shugart, Mrs. Ora Stegall, Mrs. William H. Romey, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. W. J. Smith, and Mrs. Ray Longnecker. Miss Mabel Hasemeier, accompanist.

III. Violin, (a) "Dream of Youth," (Winteritz); (b) "Gavotte in D," (Popper)—Miss Ruth Scott.

IV. Vocal, (a) "When Love Comes Clamoring In," (Slater); (b) "Dawn," (Curran)—Mrs. E. E. Meyer.

V. Piano, "Autumn" (Chaminade)—Mrs. Leslie E. Hart.

VI. Toe dance, by Miss Lucille Steers, of Hagerstown, "Dancing Leaves."

VII. Cantata, "The Life of a Leaf"—Mrs. E. L. Ashford, Mrs. F. W. Krueger, Mrs. F. J. Bartel, Miss Corinne Nussbaum, Mrs. Ray Longnecker; piano Miss Alice Knollenberg. Violin obligato, Miss Ruth Scott.

The Civics department at its meeting in the Public Art gallery Tuesday afternoon will be addressed by Dr. John Oliver, of Indianapolis, on "National Defense and Armament." Dr. Oliver, who is director of the state historical commission, is especially well prepared to speak on the subject since he has made a concentrated study of that phase of history. While at the University of Wisconsin he wrote a doctor's thesis on the topic. Since he served in the World war he is prepared to give a practical as well as a historical and scientific discussion of current problems.

All women of the club who expect to be members of the civics department.

taken anywhere from one to six months, or even longer, depending on the amount of evidence taken and the condition of the board's docket.

Many Minor Cases

The board now has several hundred minor cases and the very important rules and working conditions dispute pending. In the event the wage cut case takes its regular place on the docket it might not be reached before the first of the year, and as the union probably would present masses of evidence in opposition the hearing probably would consume several months. The proposed 10 per cent cut would bring wages back to practically the same level which prevailed prior to July 20, 1920.
