

EAGLES TRIM LYNN TO TUNE OF 6 TO 4; HAWEKOTTE EXCELS

Touching McCracken for 16 safeties, the Eagles trimmed the Lynn Independent baseball team at Exhibition park, Sunday afternoon by the score of 6 to 4. Hawekotte pitched a fine brand of ball but was given some very poor support, which allowed the visitors to score four runs, all their runs being gifts.

McCracken received a slight injury to his pitching hand, enroute to Richmond for the game, when his machine in which he had several other people were riding turned over in a ditch, when he attempted to pass another machine. This accident seemed to handicap his pitching considerably.

Poor base running again cost the Eagles several runs. The Birdmen collected 16 hits off McCracken but could only get six runners over the pan, two of them being scored in errors.

Umpiring Poor. The game was marred considerably by some poor decisions by Umps McCoy throughout the game. McCoy took considerable time in calling his decisions.

Russ should have been credited with a one hit no run game, had his support in the field been up to standard. An error by Reddinghaus in the fifth frame allowed the visitors to score two runs on one hit, the error coming after two men were down.

Russ pulled out of a nice hole in the ninth after two runs had been scored on three errors and a scratch hit by Chenoweth. He fanned Spillers for the final out with the tying runs on second and third. All three outs in this frame were strike outs.

Feature Fielding. Fielding features of the game were catches made by Fitzgibbons in the third frame and J. Logan in the seventh frame. Fitzgibbons robbed Spillers of a possible triple, down the right field foul line, stabbing the sphere with his glove hand. Logan came in fast on Chenoweth's bid for a Texas leaguer in the seventh, just reaching the ball.

Every man in the Eagles lineup connected for at least one safety during the contest. Fitzgibbons got three safe blows. Byrket and Hawekotte connected for the only extra base hits of the game, each clouting a double. The Eagles hit safely in every frame but one, failing to connect safely in the second.

With weather conditions favorable the teams will play again next Sunday. The game will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

CONNERSVILLE WINS 10 INNING GAME, 3-2

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Oct. 24.—Cambridge City wound up their baseball season by dropping the last and deciding game of the series to Connerville on the local diamond. By the score of 3 to 2, in a spirited 10-inning contest, Sunday afternoon.

Franze, hurling for the visitors, was invincible after the first round at which time Cambridge City scored two runs. Ten of the Cambridge City batters went out via the strike-out route.

The feature of the game was a home run by Herman, first sacker for the Connerville team, in the tenth frame, which won the game. The score: Connerville.....001 001 000 1-3 11 4
Cambridge C.....200 000 0-2 7 1
Franze and Peters; Battson and Sticker.

A fumble by Dayton paved the way for a 7 to 0 victory for the Staleys over the Dayton Triangles at Cub park in Chicago, Sunday afternoon. The feature of the game was the Staleys' backfield, which is composed of four of the leading stars of the country, having Stinchcomb, Harley, Sternman and Huffine, in their lineup.

Chips and Slips

Earlham put up a great battle against Butler Saturday at Indianapolis, holding Page's men to a 23 to 7 score. Twenty of Butler's points came in the last quarter. Butler was doped to trim the Quakers by a large score.

The Buckeyes have only one opponent now in the way that will cause her much trouble, that being Wisconsin, who have been playing a smashup brand of ball.

Romney, of Chicago, was the outstanding hero of the Chicago-Princeton game, scoring all of the Western points, booting a drop kick from the 17 yard line in the second quarter, and added a touchdown in the final quarter, after receiving a forward pass over the goal line.

McCracken seemed to be rather upset after his accident Sunday afternoon and the Eagles cracked him for 16 safeties. He received a bruised hand which probably handicapped his hurling.

The University of California began her battle for the Pacific coast conference championship by defeating Oregon Saturday by the score of 33 to 9. Oregon was outclassed in every department of the contest.

Fitzgibbons had a big day with the willow Sunday connecting for three safeties, each for one base.

Don Byrket found his batting eye Sunday and touched McCracken for two hits. His double came in the first frame with runners of second and third.

UNSUSPECTED POWER COMPELS REVISION OF GRID PROSPECTS

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Western conference football championship prospects are undergoing revision as a result of Saturday's games, the outstanding features of which were the conclusive evidence of unsuspected power given by Ohio State and Chicago, together with the weakness displayed by Michigan.

The standings today, including only conference games, follow:

Team	W.	L.
Chicago	2	0
Ohio State	2	0
Wisconsin	2	0
Minnesota	2	1
Michigan	0	1
Indiana	0	1
Illinois	0	2
Northwestern	0	3

While the matter of subject to day was Chicago's clean-cut triumph over Princeton from a purely conference standpoint, Ohio State's victory over Michigan was the most important of Saturday's contests. It virtually eliminated Michigan from immediate championship consideration and firmly established Ohio State, 1920 champion, as a possible title winner.

Ohio State now is ranked with Wisconsin, Iowa and Chicago as a possible winner, Chicago joining the select circle by virtue of the strength shown in its victory over Princeton. Wisconsin did as was expected in beating Illinois, 20 to 0, and the Illinois now are considered out of the fight for the title.

Minnesota's 6-to-0 victory over Indiana brought little comment, as the game was looked on as of minor importance.

Iowa with an easy schedule apparently has a better chance to go through the season undefeated than have Chicago, Ohio State or Wisconsin, these teams facing hard games with each other.

Next Saturday there are few games of importance. Michigan meets Illinois in a game which seemingly is of little importance, so far as the championship goes. Wisconsin is expected to have an easy time with Minnesota, while Iowa is a decided favorite over Purdue.

Notre Dame, from outside the conference, meets Indiana and Chicago plays its second interconference game, the Colorado Aggies coming here to play the Maroons.

POWERFUL RICHMOND HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN DRUBS KNIGHTSTOWN

Richmond high school tripped the Knightstown football team for its third win of the 1921 season, Saturday afternoon on Reid Field, by the score of 27-3.

The game was featured by the wonderful scoring power of Richmond and the spectacular drop-kick by Kennard of Knightstown which was made from the Red and White 35 yard line.

Knightstown received the kick-off and formed a smashing attack which brought them down to Richmond's 35 yard line where Kennard booted the ball through the goal posts for a three point advantage. This play brought the Richmond rooters to their feet. Richmond took the offensive, however, during the remainder of the first half and things took on a different aspect.

Richmond soon showed her superiority over the K-town team by successive line plunges and end-runs. The Red and White advanced down the field for lengthy gains until they were in position to score and Schumaker took the ball over for the first touchdown of the game. The score stood, Richmond 6, Knightstown 3. Schumaker failed to kick goal.

Brown Gets Touchdown. At this point of the game, Brown raced round left end for a run of 50 yards and touchdown. Schumaker kicked goal. Score then, Richmond 13, Knightstown 3.

The last half was more or less a repetition of the first, Richmond scoring two touchdowns after a series of line-bucks and trick plays. The final score of the game was Richmond 27, Knightstown 3.

Richmond's team proved a smooth working machine throughout the entire contest and the work of every individual was beyond reproach. The line showed real ability in making holes and holding under serious conditions. When Knightstown advanced the ball to Richmond's one-yard line, the Red and White team held them for four downs and thus subdued the only chance for K-town to score a touchdown.

Green's Toe Factor. Green, local tackle, brought his big toe to the rescue by high lengthy punts and his bulk was a tower of defense throughout the entire contest. When a big gain was needed, he was called back for what K-town thought was a pass, but instead, he plowed through the line for 10 yards and first down.

The stellar work of the two Richmond ends was an outstanding feature of the game. Mulligan and Stanley proved invincible on end-runs and tripped many attempts of K-town to circle the ends.

Before the game was over crowds gathered to witness the contest which was estimated at 600 local and Knightstown backers.

The summary and line-up follows: Richmond.....Knightsown

EARLHAM'S WARRIORS CRUMBLE IN FINAL PERIOD WITH BUTLER

Battling the Butler eleven neck and neck for three periods Earlham weakened in the last quarter, allowing three touchdowns to be forced over in a game featured by the clean scrappy play of both teams on Irwin field last Saturday. With the score 7-7 at the half, the Earlham defense was battered down in the last period by a combination of forward passes, end runs and off tackle plays gaining for Butler a final count of 33-7.

Earlham was the first to score. In the second quarter Earlham was threatening a march to the goal from the Earlham 20 yard line after a neat 20 yard end run by Graham, a Butler half fumbled and Winslow, Earlham's right half, scooping up the ball ran 80 yards for a touchdown. The run was made possible by Bookout, who spilled the two prospects. Butler tacklers by one drive just as Winslow was getting away.

Late in the second quarter Butler started a steady march to a touchdown from her own 35 yard line after Graham had been downed in his tracks on receiving Ivey's punt. A twenty yard forward pass coupled with short line gains took the oval to the 8 yard line and with third down and two yards to go Paul Brown crossed the line. Duttonhaver kicked goal. In the third quarter Butler was allowed to score by a 15 yard penalty for holding, by Earlham which placed the ball on the Earlham 8 yard line from where the score was made after three downs.

The first of Butler's touchdowns in the last quarter was the result of off tackle plays for short consistent gains, the Maroon line weakening a little. With 4th down and one foot to gain Paul Brown scored. The second came after a sensational 35 yard forward pass, Graham to Middleworth and the last was scored after end runs of 20 yards each by McClafflin and Graham.

LOCAL LEGION ELEVEN SHOWS POOR DEFENSE, LOSES FIRST CONTEST

Playing their first game of the season, the American Legion football team went down to defeat at the hands of the strong West Alexandria, Ohio, team at West Alexandria, Sunday afternoon by the score of 27 to 0.

The legion team was completely outclassed in every department of the game by the Ohioans and showed need of much more practice. The Ohio team outweighed the locals about 15 pounds to the man.

Despite these handicaps, the ex-service men put up a stubborn battle, holding the Buckeyes to four touchdowns. The Buckeyes have played four games this season, and have a very fast and shifty backfield that is very hard to stop.

Defense was the main weakness of the locals, especially on end runs, the Ohioans going around the ends for many long gains, whenever they were needed. The locals also were weak in breaking up forward passes, West Alexandria completing five passes that netted them long gains.

Passes Fall Short. Richmond attempted many passes, but only one was completed, that being for a short gain. Many of the ex-soldiers' passes fell short of their mark.

Capt. Tittle played the most consistent game for the locals, going through the line for several long gains. On practically every end run the Red and Black runner was thrown for a loss, the interference being poor. Richmond made five first downs while West Alexandria completed 12. The winners scored one touchdown in every period of the contest.

Next Sunday the legion team will journey to Shelbyville where they will try the independent team of that city.

Practice will be held this week on Wednesday and Friday nights. Every man is requested to meet at the Legion rooms at 7:30 o'clock.

HIT FOOTBALL STRIDE IN EAST AS BIG THREE STAGE BITTER BATTLES

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The 1921 football season hit its stride in Saturday's games and was marked in the east by record crowds for mid-October contests and thrilling struggles for the big three—Harvard, Yale and Princeton.

Bill Roper's Tigers presented a weak defense, and a poor offense against Alonzo Stagg's University of Chicago eleven and lost.

In the Yale bowl, the bulldog found a tough proposition in the Army eleven, but by a well-executed attack turned back the Cadets, 14 to 7.

Harvard, against Pennsylvania State, furnished the first of the season's real gridiron thrills and stood off defeat in the last quarter. Beedeck's plunging, tricky organization held the crimson to a 21-21 tie, and was working toward a victory when the final whistle sounded.

Pittsburg surprised Syracuse by its dashing offensive and won 35 to 0, and Cornell ran true to the hope against Colgate, winning 31 to 7. University of Pennsylvania got revenge for its 1920 defeat by Virginia Military Institute by a score of 21 to 0.

Washington and Jefferson won from Lehigh, 14 to 7, and Swarthmore was in a 7-to-7 tie with Franklin and Marshall. Georgetown trod Holy Cross under foot for an easy victory, 28 to 7. The Naval Academy eleven was idle.

Chicago used a straight plunging attack against the Tigers. The Chicagoans' first score came late in the second quarter. They worked the ball from their own forty-yard line to the Tiger twenty-five-yard marker without once losing possession and following a penalty inflicted on Princeton, Romney, the Maroon quarter, dropped back to the fifteen-yard mark and kicked a goal. The Chicago touchdown was scored in the last quarter and the way for it was paved by another Princeton penalty.
