HIGH SCHOOL OPENS; TO SPEED UP WORK

High school opened Monday morning with the attendance up to the usual standard. More extensive work was assigned by the teachers to fulfill the term requirements.
 The high school "Register" was put on sale Monday. The paper was to have been sold on the last Friday before Christmas vacation, but the school was closed on Thursday, and the special eight-page edition was held over. The copy sold for two cents and contained several special Christmas features of interest.

URGE PEACE SPIRIT KEPT AT MAXIMUM

(By Associated Press)
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—In an effort to prevent public apathy on world peace after the close national council for limitation of armaments announced today it had written the governors of the 48 states asking support in "educating public sentiment during the coming year for the next step toward permanent peace" and that 13 affirmative responses had been received.
 The governors who replied were: Governor Davis, Idaho; Baxter, Maine; McCray, Indiana; Edwards, New Jersey; Bunsell, Arkansas; Sproul (Sq) Pennsylvania; Blaine, Wisconsin; Allen, Kansas; McMaster, South Dakota.

FANCY BLOUSE WITH SUIT SKIRT MAKES SMART FASHION COSTUME

The business woman, and particularly the woman who travels, knows the value of the costume blouse. This season the suit blouse has been developed to the utmost and lovely blouses in gorgeous colors which blend or contrast with milady's suit disclose real costume creations when the suit coat is removed. Georgette fashions in this model pictured here. French blue and henna is the color combination. Net and embroidered georgette form the front panel.

PHILADELPHIA CITIZENS TAKE PART IN GREAT MUMMERS PAGEANT

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—King Momus held sway in Philadelphia today. At the head of one of the largest and most gorgeous mummer's pageants in the history of the city's unique New Year's spectacle, he marched between lines of cheering humanity banked on both sides of Broad street from Porter street to Girard avenue. For several hours during the parade Broad street was transformed into a fairland and of fantasy mimicry and music.
 More than one thousand persons, representing scores of New Year's clubs, took part in the pageant and incidentally competed for $12,000 in prizes offered by the city and other thousands offered by business houses. There were fancy dressed clubs, the costumes of some of whose captains were reported to have cost many times as much as the amount of any prize they might win; comic clubs, whose antics furnished the spectators with much amusement; string bands of great variety, and scores of floats depicting events of historic as well as present day interest.
 Thousands of persons went without sleep last night in order to obtain points of vantage along the line of march. Most of the Mummers organizations held dances beginning at midnight and the motion picture houses provided entertainment for others. Clowns, jockeys, Cleopatras, chimpanzees and assorted freaks, in their costumes ready for the parade, hovered through the cafes and streets of the downtown section throughout the night.

Exhibits Director Receives Entry Blanks From Artists
 Entry blanks are already being received by Mrs. Ella Bond Johnston, director of exhibits, for the Richmond Art association, for the annual exhibition of Indiana artists, which will open at the Public Art gallery Jan. 15. The request is made that all local painters send in their blanks as early as possible.

BROOKS TO ASK NEW TRIAL
 (By Associated Press)
 COLUMBUS, Jan. 2.—Attorneys for Ben Brooks, who was recently convicted of murder in the first degree for killing A. B. Montgomery, of Seymour, will file a motion for a new trial, they have announced. Failing to obtain a new trial, they will appeal to the supreme court.

ART PATRONS ACCORD RECEPTIONS TO LEIGH AT EXHIBIT OPENING

Howard Leigh's exhibition of lithographs, etchings and drypoints, which opened at the Public Art gallery New Year's afternoon, was accorded one of the largest and most enthusiastic receptions given any artist at the gallery this season. An assemblage of 144 persons, among whom were friends of the artist, art lovers, artists, association members, and many out-of-town guests, gathered at the opening to see the pictures and to meet Mr. Leigh, who had been invited to attend as a guest of honor.
 A string quartet and several soloists were presented in an informal musicale during the afternoon which was arranged by Josiah Marvel.

Mr. Leigh's exhibition can be numbered among the best of its kind which has been shown at the local gallery, and is unusual in the variety of subject, and treatment which comprises it. There are architectural drawings, landscapes, and figures produced through the mediums of lithography, etching and dry point. A head of an old man, which is a colored lithograph, probably is the first lithograph in color which has been done by an American artist, as the art of color in that work is still in the experimental stage and has been tried chiefly by artists abroad.

The present exhibition is the same which comprised Mr. Leigh's fall exhibit in the Anderson galleries in New York city, and marks his second annual exhibition here. The collection of prints shown here last year, which had been done in France, have just been exhibited at the Chicago Art Institute, a special request having been made by the institute to Mr. Leigh to exhibit there.

The exhibition will hang in the gallery here until Jan. 12 when it will be taken down to make way for the Indiana exhibit. The gallery will be open every day to visitors this week from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the evening and also from 7:30 until 9 o'clock Wednesday evening, as well as next Sunday afternoon.

Two Small Fires Call Ont Fire Department

Fire broke out at 317 South Thirtieth street at 8 o'clock Monday morning, starting from a spark on the roof. Little damage was done.

"Start the New Year Right" Save Time, Worry and Money

What's Your Time Worth?

WHEN you go to buy a pair of boots, a can of peas, or a kitchen cabinet, don't know exactly what you want—or do you "shop around" and take pot-luck?

You can save many an hour's time—and many a good hard dollar—by knowing beforehand what you want, where to get it, and approximately how much it will cost. You can always know this much before you enter a store.

If it's clothing, you know how well it should wear and what style should be. If it's a musical instrument, you know what to expect as to tone and workmanship. If it's a carpet sweeper, you know what kind of service it should give. Merchants with established reputations for honesty are the best with whom to deal.

Merchandise with established reputation is the best to buy.

The only way to be sure of the goods you buy is to read the advertisements in this paper regularly. As a practice it's far better than rummaging around. It saves time. It saves money.

Everybody Is Happy Over Removal of the Tax On Soda Fountain Dainties

Richmond swains, girls who crave concoctions from the soda fountain and business men who eat lunch at soda fountains were jubilant today over the fact that it is no longer necessary to fish around for war tax.
 Who is it that hasn't gone to a soda fountain sans pennies and hasn't had to "burst" a perfectly good five spot to meet Uncle Sam's requirements?
 That embarrassment to have to hunt for pennies in front of your best girl. How easily the pennies received in change disappear after you have broken a silver piece.
 We can start the day right now. We're safe until another war, at least.

ALASKA'S MINERAL PRODUCTION SLUMPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Alaska's mineral production during the year 1921, according to preliminary estimates made public today by the Geological Survey, was valued at $10,109,000, compared with $23,303,787 during the previous year. The decrease shown is accounted for by a loss of about $2,000,000 in the value of copper mined, $575,000 less in silver, $100,000 in lead, $155,000 in platinum and $110,000 in petroleum. An increase of about $135,000 was shown in the production of coal. The practical completion of the Alaska railroad, the report said, was the most important event of the year to the territory mining industry. The decrease in both copper production and development was ascribed to the low price of the metal.

 at that time. Their organizations have yet to be built up and they want to get under way.
 "The budget at which the money is set aside for partial payments on these improvements is made up at a September meeting of the council and board of works. An informal meeting usually precedes this meeting so that the tentative program can be worked out.
