

ELKS IN INDIANAPOLIS AND CHICAGO TO HAVE NEW LODGE BUILDINGS

CHICAGO, June 10.—One of Chicago's most famous old mansions, the Lehmann homestead, at the southwest corner of Diversey parkway and Lake View avenue, overlooking Lincoln park, has been purchased for $500,000 by the B. P. O. Elks as the site for the $3,000,000 national memorial to the 70,000 Elks who fought in the war.

The new Elks' magazine, with a circulation of 900,000, also will be printed in Chicago.

"There will be no auditorium or gathering place of any sort in the memorial building," said J. T. Fanning, secretary-treasurer of the national committee. "It will be strictly a memorial to the Elks who were in service, and in addition to housing the new magazine editorial department there will be offices for the grand secretary, Fred C. Robinson, who will be there permanently, and for executive officers of the grand lodge."

The Elks organization has 1,438 lodges, of which New Orleans, with 10,495 members, is largest. The organization has a notable war record and also has a charitable record of note.

The Elks were the silent partners of the Salvation Army in its war work, doing much of the financing.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 10.—Indianapolis lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, may take over the Academy of Music, at the northwest corner of Illinois and Michigan streets, and adjoining property at 512 North Illinois street, for use as an Elks' clubhouse and for the erection of an Elks' hotel building, according to an announcement here.

DARKE COMMISSIONERS TO BUY ALL SUPPLIES

GREENVILLE, Ohio, Jan. 10.—The county commissioners, have passed a resolution that hereafter all supplies for county officials be purchased through the commissioners, and that Monday of each week be set aside for the purchase of such supplies, etc. The resolution was presented by Commissioner Witwer, and seconded by Commissioner Perche, and was adopted unanimously by Commissioners Rhoades, Witwer and Pesche.

Heretofore county officials have ordered supplies needed, and there is much dissatisfaction upon the passage of the resolution, and certain officials state there is a provision in the law which permits them to purchase their own supplies. ## Home Games For Children

How mothers and fathers of Richmond may make their homes interesting and attractive for the little tots during the indoor season.

By MISS MARGUERITE SHARRETT
Recreation Specialist of Community Service

Let Us Wash Our Dolly's Clothes

A game for the little children from three to seven years.

"Let us wash our dolly's clothes

And wring them out so dry;

And then we'll turn them inside out,

And hang them up so high."

This game is best played by two children together, rather than a grown person with a child. The children join hands and perform a scrubbing movement on the first line; wringing motion

on the second. On the third line, without loosening the hands, they twist first so that their backs are toward each other, then their faces. In other words the players move under their own arms and back to place. On the last line, they let go the hands,

and pretend to hang the clothes on the clothes line.

Games For the Family

"Stir the Broth"—The leader begins

by saying, "I will stir the broth, if (John) will (recite a poem)." If the player refuses to carry out the orders,

he must stir the broth and give instructions to some other player. Such orders as "Walk like an elephant from the front door to the back," "Turn a somersault," etc., cause much fun. The idea is to give someone a penalty so

unusual that he would prefer to "stir

the broth" and so relieve you. The person who is stirring must never stop

for a moment until he finds someone who refuses to "follow instructions."

"I have a face"—Players are seated in a circle. One player turns to his neighbor saying, "What kind of a face?"

The first person answers: "A (beautiful) face." In this instance the descriptive word begins with the letter

"b." The same letter must be used by all players. For instance, it might be a "blank" face, a "big" face, etc.

The game continues by the second player addressing the third, the third addressing the fourth, etc. Any other letter than "b" might be used and several rounds of the circle may be made still using the same letter.

"Crambo"—One player says, "I am thinking of something "in or out of this room) that rhymes with the word "care." The others ask, "Is it a chair?" "Is it hair?" etc. The one who guesses the object correctly has

the next turn.

DAY WILL SPEAK AT HY-Y CLUB MEETING

Bertram Day, chautauqua lecturer of Indianapolis, will be the speaker at the open house meeting of the Hy-Y club at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday night.

Mr. Day will deliver his address on Ned King, the noted athlete of several years ago. The meeting will be called promptly at 7 o'clock.

Mr. King is well known for the manner in which he delivers his famous Ned King story, and the committee heard him deliver it at the Y Older Boys' Conference at Kokomo, last November, thought it is a good plan to have him deliver it here, so all the boys could hear it.

Mayor Lawrence Handley will also deliver a short address to the boys. Several musical selections will be given by the Hy-Y quartette.

Perry Wilson, boys work secretary expects about 200 to 250 boys to attend. This open house is for the high school only, stated Mr. Wilson.

LOUISVILLE PASTORS DECIDE FOR SUNDAY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 10.—After a heated discussion, on which the Baptist Ministers' Circle of Louisville, opposed any movement to bring Billy Sunday here for a revival in the spring of 1923, the Louisville Ministerial association voted Monday to invite the famous evangelist.

First opposition to the proposal, which was introduced by Rev. M. P. Hunt, was voiced by Rev. J. F. Frazer, pastor of North Avenue Baptist church, who said that a canvass he made among Baptist ministers of Louisville showed that 10 out of 12 of them looked upon Sunday's coming with disfavor.

Dr. A. E. Kenn supported Dr. Frazer. Rev. Dr. Frazer's statement that Baptist ministers were against Sunday's coming was questioned by Dr. Hunt, who said Dr. Frazer evidently did not interview all of the ministers of the city.

Americanization Class Opens at Whitewater

First meeting of the "Foreigners' Americanization" classes will be held at the Whitewater school building on Tuesday night with Misses Peasel and Murphy the instructors. The classes were operated last term and proved very beneficial to the foreigners in that district.

The purpose of the class is to prepare the uneducated populace of the foreign element for second papers, which admit to citizenship of the United States. After the student in this work has finished the advance course, a government inspector will give a test to adjudge the candidates for the papers. With his second papers, the foreigner is qualified to vote intelligently at an election.

YOU HAVE RIGHT TO EXPECT A SQUARE DEAL WHEN BUYING MEDICINE

You are not getting a square deal when you are induced to buy something by extravagant and untrue claims.

You are not getting a square deal when you are required to pay for something that did you no good.

You are not getting a square deal when you are induced to experiment on yourself—with a substitute for Vinol whose contents is a secret known only to its makers. How are you to know that it does not contain something that will hurt you?

You are sure of a square deal when you buy Vinol.

Because no fraudulent statements or testimonials of its virtue have ever been published and no claims made on our cartons and labels that have not been approved by the U. S. Government through the Bureau of Chemistry at Washington.

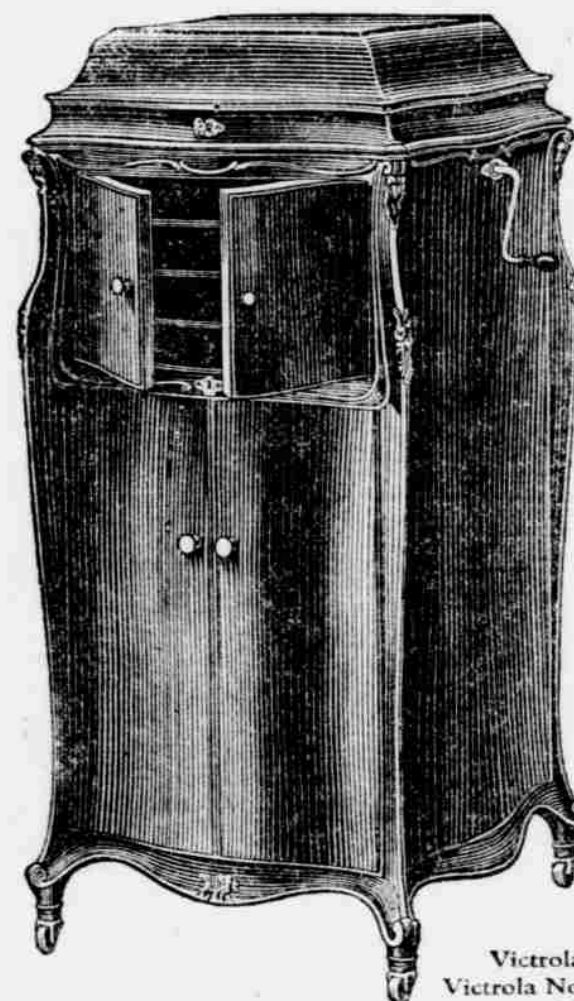

And because it always has been sold on the guarantee that if it did not benefit the patient he should have the privilege of having his money returned.

And because the complete formula of Vinol has always been plainly printed on its labels—showing every ingredient it contains—so your doctor, if he is interested, may know what you are taking—but principally so you will know yourself that only good and no harm can come to you from taking Vinol.

If you are rundown, nervous, anaemic, have a stubborn cough or cold, get a bottle of Vinol, the square deal medicine. Vinol has been sold in your city for 20 years and there are hundreds of your neighbors who have been benefited by it. It seems as though that was the kind of a medicine in which to have faith.—Advertisement.
