

TURKS MAY FORM SOLID GOVERNMENT; MOSLEMS UNITING

(By Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Jan. 11.—It is believed here that if Mustapha Kemal Pasha succeeds in establishing a real Turkish Nationalist power, the Turks would form a new backbone for the Moslem world. This might seriously threaten the domination of Russia in the Caucasus, in Turkestan, Persia and Armenia for there is a very general racial and religious union among the Moslems.

"After all, we are Orientals and we hate and despise the Russians," was the way one Moslem stated the situation. While the Central Soviet here certainly has helped the Turkish Nationalist movement, it is believed that a conflict of interests and distrust will assert itself when or if Turkey succeeds in her national aims. The 16,000 Moslems of Russia certainly dislike Russian rule.

Form Clique

Members of the Moslem missions, such as the Persian, Azerbaijan and the so-called Turkistan Soviet republics and the official Turkish mission form a clique apart in Moscow and co-operate materially.

In addition, there is the group headed by Enver Pasha, the former Turkish minister of war who fled from Turkey after the war and who was sentenced to death by Turkish court-martial. A member of his mission here is Djemal Pasha, another young Turkish leader, who also received the same sentence.

PENNSY TO PURCHASE STEEL DINING CARS

The management of the Pennsylvania railroad system will in the near future place orders for the construction of 20 additional all-steel dining cars of the largest size and most modern type and equipment, says an announcement Tuesday. The new cars will not only make it possible to meet the public demand for increased dining car service, but will, immediately upon their completion, permit the retirement of all remaining wooden dining cars in use on the Pennsylvania railroad. They will, therefore, constitute another important step forward toward all-steel passenger train equipment.

Arrangements will be made to push the construction of the new cars as rapidly as possible and it is expected to have them in service by spring.

Mooreland Man Run Over; Sustains Painful Injuries

MOORELAND, Ind., Jan. 11.—Earl Armstrong sustained painful injuries Monday afternoon when a wagon loaded with wood passed over his body. Mr. Armstrong had been driving, when he accidentally fell from his seat to the ground behind the horses. The horses were frightened and leaping forward, caused the wagon to run over him.

HARVEY REPORTED BETTER

CANNES, Jan. 11.—Rapid improvement in the condition of George Harvey, the American ambassador to Great Britain, who was injured in an automobile accident Monday, was reported today. The ambassador passed the night satisfactorily and his progress is such that it is hoped he will be able to resume attendance upon the supreme council meetings by Wednesday.

Will your "Good Morning" last all day?

Easy to start from the breakfast table with zest and enthusiasm, but how easy is it to keep on?

Does ambition last, or lag, as the day develops?

The afternoon "slump" is a factor to be counted upon, in business or social life.

Usually, there's a reason.

Nerves whipped by tea or coffee won't keep on running, and they won't stand constant whipping.

Many a man or woman who has wished the afternoon would be as bright as the morning has simply been wishing that the nerves wouldn't have to pay the natural penalty for being whipped with the caffeine drug.

Postum gives a breakfast cup of comfort and cheer, without any penalties afterward. There's no "letting down" from Postum—no

EATON NATIONAL BANK OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

EATON, Ohio, Jan. 11.—Old officers were re-elected at the annual meeting of stockholders of the Eaton National bank, held in the offices of the bank Tuesday afternoon.

S. Swisher will serve again as president; J. H. Musselman, vice-president; J. M. Gale, cashier; C. J. Hunter, assistant cashier; H. N. Swain and H. L. Metter, tellers. Directors include the president, vice-president, and cashier, Elam Fisher, John H. Storer, C. E. Morlatt and C. C. Spring.

Deposits of $1,000 more on Dec. 31, 1921 than there were a year ago are announced by the cashier, J. M. Gale. Continuing Mr. Gale says, "our loanable funds are in excess of those a year ago by at least $100 and there are no bills payable as compared with $40,000 a year ago."

"The changed conditions in the financial affairs of our community are being met, with few exceptions, with a determination to 'weather the storm' however long it may last, and this being an agricultural district, hope for better prices to the farmer in the near future."

because of the investment but because they wish to lay by something for a rainy day, secure in the knowledge that at no time will their savings be wiped out by failure of some institution or a slump in the market.

One of Secretary Mellon's most ardent desires upon taking the portfolio of the treasury was to interest the men and women of small income and moderate means in gilt-edge government securities, which would assure them absolute safety as to their principal and equally absolute guarantee as to income.

Three Denominations

The savings certificates were issued in three denominations. The $25 certificates were offered at $20, the $100 ones at $80, and the $1,000 ones at $800. All these certificates are registered in the name of the person who purchases them, which guarantees that person against loss or theft.

If the certificates are held for five years from date of issue they are redeemable at their face value, which nets the purchaser $5 on his $20 investment, $20 on his $80 investment, and $200 on his $800 investment, or at the rate of 4½ per cent, compounded semi-annually.

In the event the purchaser finds it necessary to raise ready cash before the five years have expired, he can present his certificates, or any part of them, at any post office and obtain what he paid for them plus 3½ per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually from the date of his purchase.

Redeemable Value

The cash redeemable value of each certificate from month to month during the entire five years of its life is printed on the back of each certificate and forms a guarantee directly from the United States treasury to the purchaser. This prevents any speculation in the certificates. These certificates in guaranteeing purchasers against any losses in their capital in the event they find themselves pinched for want or ready money to provide a feature which thousands of American citizens found was not true of their liberty bonds.

midday drowsiness to make up for midnight wakefulness; no headaches; no nervous indigestion; no increase of blood pressure.

Think it over. There's full satisfaction in Postum—a cup of comfort for anybody (the children included), any time.

You can get Postum from your grocer or your waiter today, and probably you'll begin to have better tomorrows, as so many thousands have had, who have made the change from coffee to Postum.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
