A leading event of the next week will be the dance which the lodge of Elks are giving at their club Friday evening, Feb. 1, for which Joe Kayser's novelty orchestra, of Rochester, N. Y., will play. The orchestra, composed of nationally famous artists, has made two appearances here, on both occasions drawing the largest crowds of dancers which ever attended a single affair here. Dancing will commence at 8 o'clock. The party is exclusively for members of the Elks lodge, their families, and out-of-town guests.

Announcement is made by Gonzaga council that their dances at the Y. M. I. club will be given on Tuesday instead of Thursday evenings. The next dance at the Y. M. I. club will be held next Tuesday evening. Special music will play for the affair.

An informal dance will be given at the Zen Zen Shrine club for nobles and their families Friday evening. There will be special music for the dancing. The committee in charge includes: Harry Cowles, Theodore Chester, Stanley Smith, Will Edmundson, Richard Holzapfel, Fred Meek, Fred Mahret, Dr. Squire and Frank Benn.

A Mother Goose tea party will be given by children in costume at the First M. E. church Saturday afternoon, Jan. 28, at 3 o'clock. Admission will be charged. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Edgar Nicholson will be guests at a reception which members of the West Richmond Friends church are holding at the community house Friday evening in their honor. Members of the congregation and friends are invited.

The confraternity of St. Mary's church is entertaining with cards and a dance Friday evening at St. Mary's community hall. Five hundred, bridge, euchre and sheephead will be played. Card tables will be formed at 8 o'clock. Dancing will commence at 10:30 o'clock with music by the Paul Harris orchestra.

American Legion members and the membership of the Woman's auxiliary are to be guests at a basket supper at the Pythian temple Friday evening to be followed by a special entertainment, recreation supervised by P. H. Slocum, and an address by the state commander of the legion.

Mrs. Rhea Parker entertained Thursday evening at her home on Ridge street for Miss Florence Harris in honor of her birthday anniversary. The rooms were artistically decorated with ferns, palms, and roses and illuminated by rose-colored lights. Features of the evening were games, music, and moonlight dancing. entertained at the New Westville church Friday evening. Mrs. Agnes Watts and Mrs. Elsie Hicks will be the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vanderviel will entertain for the Merry-Go-Round club Friday evening at their home, 421 South Fourteenth street.

The W. B. A. of the Maccabees will meet in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening. The Recreation club will have charge of the evening's entertainment with Mrs. Roll Hamilton as leader. Children and their parents are invited to come and spend the evening. There will be no charges.

Eden Rebekah lodge, 30, will meet Saturday evening. All members of the staff are urged to be present.

The Aid society of the Third M. E. church will hold a market Saturday at 9:30 o'clock at Piehl's Electric store.

The Suburban Home Economics club will meet with Miss Stella Harman, Thursday, Feb. 9, instead of Feb. 2, at her home in the Wilmore club. All members are asked to note the change.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp will not hold their Friday evening dancing class this evening, on account of the basketball game. The assembly will be held as usual.

Dolls for Grown-Ups

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 27.—Dolls for grown-ups, dolls that are from three to five feet in length, that hang limp, with trailing limbs, are the latest craze in fashionable Paris.

A favorite is a pale-faced Pierrot, with wide-staring eyes, and bright red, bow-shaped lips. He is placed in the corner of a settee and his white face and black silk costume produce quite an effect.

Another type is a shock-headed peasant, a grotesque leon on his rubicund face and dressed in a blue blouse, red and white striped trousers and wooden sabots.

Y. M. C. A.

In connection with the Hi-Y entertainment on Tuesday, Jan. 31, boys of the high school and Y. M. C. A. members will meet in the lobby of the Y to listen to an Indian talk. The Indian is full blooded and will have several interesting things to say and show. The talk will start at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Police Matrons Set Record by Trip Here

The first case in the history of the Indianapolis police department in which two women detectives were sent to another city to bring back a male prisoner was recorded Wednesday when Sadie Osborn and Sarah Murray, detectives, came to Richmond to get Roy Beard, a magazine solicitor, who is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old girl, who had run away from her home at Bedford.

Beard was arrested at a hotel here at the request of the two women detectives after their investigation had disclosed the whereabouts of the 17-year-old girl, who had been reported to the local detective bureau as missing.

The trip from Richmond was made by automobile, Beard having been handcuffed and shackled to the robe of the machine. Miss Osborn did the driving while Miss Murray guarded the prisoner.

For Colds, Grip or Influenza and as a preventive, take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. The genuine bears the signature of E. W. Grove. (Be sure you get BROMO.) 30c.—Advertisement.
