

HOLD CINCINNATI MAN ON FORGERY CHARGE; ARRESTED IN EATON

EATON, Ohio, Jan. 22.—In default of $500 bond, Raymond Adams, of Cincinnati, is held here in the county jail on a forgery charge, to which he entered a plea of guilty Friday before Magistrate L. T. Stephens. Adams is the third man arrested and lodged in the county jail within the last two weeks on forgery charges.

He is said to have put out three spurious checks in Eaton on Thursday, each calling for $15 and made payable to Raymond Adams, and bearing the name of H. L. Busch. All the checks were drawn on the Eaton National bank.

Sid Brubaker, auto tire man; Elmer Iserman, butcher shop owner, and the Eaton Tire Service company each received one of the checks. It is said. In each instance a small purchase was made and money received in exchange for the check, police say.

Chief of Police Willard Armstrong arrested Adams as he was waiting at the local traction station to take a car.

Held "Open House"

The Anderson Motor company had "open house" Friday, at which all visitors to the company's garage were served lunch. The feature attracted a large crowd. The Anderson company some time ago took over the business and quarters of the Southern Motor Car company.

TWO GREENVILLE MEN ROBBED BY BANDITS

GREENVILLE, Ohio, Jan. 28.—Trained for miles without knowledge of their peril, William Livingston, of Greenville, was robbed Thursday of $975 by two well dressed bandits in an automobile, who crowded his touring car against a curb in front of a dwelling at Clifton, Cincinnati, and took the money from his pocket at the point of a revolver. Fifteen dollars was taken from Livingston's companion, Charles Green, living in Greenville. To be certain that they would not be followed, the bandits carried away an indispensable part of the mechanism of Livingston's automobile, disabling the machine. The robbers drove off Jefferson Avenue toward Carthage pike, Cincinnati.

Appeal For Open Church Is Made By Backus

Rev. Backus spoke last night on "Selling the Gates to the Junk Man." It was an appeal for an open church, with fences all down, gates off the hinges, doors unlocked and all the people made welcome. He spoke of the modern meaning of the church with week-day religious instruction, recreational progress, and Christian fellowship. At the close a special fellowship service was held, which was deeply impressive. One united with the church.

To the man who never heard of you, you do not exist

It has become the habit of American people to consider advertising the proper and natural way for the maker of an article to introduce it to the acquaintance of the people and keep it there. An advertisement is primarily a letter of introduction, and secondarily a salesman. It makes new friends and it holds old ones.

To stop advertising is to stop greeting your friends and making new ones.

Advertising or not, is not merely a question of selling goods or not—it is a question of how many people in the world know that the thing you make or sell exists, and, if the path of their needs ever crosses the path of your supply, how many will know you and your goods as someone they can turn to and ask the thing they want to know, or buy the thing they want to use.

It is the measure of the impression your business activity is making on the world in which you live.

Advertising makes the public know your goods and regard them as its friend.

The proper measure of the possible friendship of the public for your goods is the proper measure of the power of advertising for your firm.

"Those Who Dance Must Pay The Fiddler"

There's a settlement in profit or loss, for nearly every indulgence.

Sometimes the pay-day is long deferred, and in that case the settlement may bear compound interest.

Often a payment in ill health is required for the dance had with tea or coffee during earlier years. Sometimes the collection comes in sleeplessness, sometimes in headaches, sometimes in high blood pressure, or in nervous indigestion—sometimes in all these penalties.

Nerves won't always stand the whipping of tea and coffee's drug, caffeine.

If you've been dancing to tea or coffee's fiddling, why keep on till payment time comes? If you're beginning to pay, now, why not cancel the contract?

There's an easy and pleasant way to avoid tea and coffee's penalties, as thousands have found who have changed to Postum. It is a delight with any meal—rich, comforting and satisfying—and it never harms. Even the little children can have a breakfast cup of Postum, with no fear for what may happen to sensitive nerves.

Instead of paying penalties for your meal-time drink, let it pay benefits to you, by giving natural health a full chance—and begin the new arrangement today. Any grocer will sell you, or any good restaurant will serve you Postum.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in time) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
