

ORCHESTRA ACHIEVES ANOTHER SUCCESS; SOLOIST IS PLEASING

The symphony orchestra under the conductorship of J. E. Maddy and assisted by James Hamilton, tenor, of Chicago, achieved further success in a concert given Monday evening at the Coliseum before an audience of over 800 persons.

The playing of the symphony was marked by richness in tone color and a wide gradation of light and shade effected by contrasting fortissimo passages with lighter, softer passages. Under Conductor Maddy's baton the orchestra added a subtlety to its playing as at no time did it yield its all but maintained a power of reserve.

A suite of six alluring and dashing Spanish numbers from Bizet's "Carmen" formed one of the enjoyable groups on the program. Massenet's Angelus from "Scenes Pittoresques," a bit of solemn French music written in more stately measures lacking the fiery ardence of the Spanish tunes followed the "Carmen" suite, offering a contrast which at the same time displayed the orchestra's versatile playing. Probably the most popular selection on the program was "The Blue Danube" waltz by Johann Strauss with which the concert closed.

James Hamilton, the assisting soloist, scored a well deserved success in his numbers which he sang with discrimination and a direct, sincere manner. His voice is a tenor of richness and power abounding in tonal nuances, and wide in range. His first appearance was with the orchestra singing the aria "Celeste Aida" from "Aida." His second number was a group of more popular songs, "Come, Beloved," Handel; "The Blind Ploughman," Clarke; "Duna," McGill, and "The Living God," O'Hara. As an encore he sang a southern dialect melody, "My Little Banjo."

BILLY SUNDAY'S SON INVOLVED IN CASE

CINCINNATI, Jan. 31.—That his wife, Mary Alexander Marcus, and the son of Billy Sunday, noted evangelist, were ejected from a leading Cincinnati hotel last summer when they were found together in a room there was testified to by John Marcus, 334 East Fourth street, in his suit for a divorce before Judge Charles W. Hoffman yesterday.

Marcus said they were married at Butte, Mont., Nov. 15, 1915, but that she associated with other men when he was on the road. He then said she was found in the hotel here with young Sunday and they were ordered to leave. He also presented a letter, which he said she received from one W. S. McGill, New York City, asking her to go there and stated that after he and his wife separated last August she wired him from San Francisco, Cal., seeking a reconciliation, asserting that if he refused she would go to New York to the other man. He said he refused to consider a reconciliation, and last heard of his wife at the Vanderbilt hotel, New York City.

HYPO-COD BUILT HER UP QUICKLY, SHE SAYS

"I suffered from a general rundown condition, was thin, weak and had no strength to work much—didn't feel like exerting myself any more than was necessary. My complexion was sallow and I was looking so rundown my husband finally persuaded me to take Earle's Hypo-Cod.

Now Feels Fine

"My relief certainly came quickly and pleasantly and I am feeling altogether different now. My neighbors and friends are all telling me that I look better, and ask me what I have been taking. I have told them about Earle's Hypo-Cod because it has had such a wonderful effect on me. My color is clear and I am gaining in weight. I sleep well at night. My appetite is splendid and I am so much stronger that I can do my housework cheerfully again. It is certainly wonderful to enjoy good health once more," said Mrs. J. J. # OHIO WOMAN IS FIRST IN STATE TO ASPIRE TO SENATORIAL SEAT

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Virginia D. Green, for 10 years member of the Cleveland Board of Education and its present senior member, has announced her candidacy for election as United States senator from Ohio, the first woman in this state and one of the first in America to aspire to a senatorial seat. She will run as an independent with no party affiliation.

Her announcement of her candidacy was brief, being simply that the seating of Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan by the senate impelled her to run from Ohio this year as "the protest of women against the purchase of a seat in the highest tribunal in America."

"My candidacy is the protest of a woman against the prevailing system of debauching the electorate, a protest against the use of money in buying seats in the senate," she declared. "America must not allow chairs in the senate to be bought and sold to the highest bidder. As elections are now run, American government is not a representative government. The senators do not represent the people. They represent the influences behind the great wealth that put them in the senate."

To Work From Home.

Mrs. Green plans to conduct her campaign from her home. "I will oversee all the details of the campaign and will know every cent that is expended in furthering my candidacy and election," she said.

Mrs. Green declared that she would not be a candidate at the primaries, but that her name would go on the ballot by petition. She has always been a leader of Cuyahoga county Democratic women's activities.

Mrs. Green is the widow of the late Arnold Green, prominent attorney and power in the Democratic party years ago. She is an accomplished linguist and public speaker. Her age is in the 60's. She has been in public position here since 1912, when she was elected a member of the board of education. On the occasion of her third election, she led her ticket.
