

CAMDEN'S PROTECTOR, FRIEND LAID TO REST; LARGE FUNERAL HELD

CAMDEN, Ohio, Feb. 1.—Camden's best protector and friend—"Bob" Marshall—was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon in the Camden cemetery.

Known as a fearless man, and a lover of children, the deputy state game warden, killed late Saturday on the farm of Ernest Line, was given one of the largest funerals ever held in this town. He had been leader of the local boy scout troop, and a teacher in the Presbyterian Sunday school.

At noon Tuesday, while the casket rested amid flowers on the front porch of his late home, school children paid last respects over his body. Only one funeral in recent years called forth the numbers and honors accorded Mr. Marshall. That was when Charles White, for years a storekeeper of Camden, was buried in Camden's cemetery.

Masons attended in large numbers, and game wardens from many towns filled an important place in the funeral cortège. Members of the scout troop he had organized and led marched in a body.

Services at Church

Services were held from the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock. The Rev. I. R. Gear, of Bradford, former pastor of the local church, assisted by the Rev. Gordon Lang, present pastor, officiated.

Survivors of the deceased are a widow and three sisters.

Mrs. Eli Benton, wife of the suspected murderer of Mr. Marshall, has been removed from the county infirmary to the jail. It is said that authorities believe she is implicated in the violation of the liquor law, as she still found at the home following the slaying of Mr. Marshall, was carefully hidden.

Sheriff George Jones, of Preble county, said Wednesday no further clues had been found.

The entire plant except one tankage shed, being destroyed. City firemen were called to the scene, but were unable to save the plant.

BONUS BILL

Its merits ought to be adopted anyhow. There is some thought that the bonus bill can be used as a means of initiating the sales tax, and that the sales tax once adopted, will prove to be so satisfactory that it will be kept indefinitely in lieu of some portion of the present income taxes. The opposition to the sales tax, however, is very formidable.

All in all, the bonus bill will probably go through, but it will not go through without some forceful and illuminating debate upon its merits.

After your wife has become alarmed at the recent number of hold-ups and burglaries in your section of the city—

And it seems to you that although the war ended three years ago there is still a good bit of shooting going on in your neighborhood—

But the bullets don't have the slightest effect toward scaring away the night prowlers who keep on coming and stealing everything except the night officer's shoes—

And just between you and yourself you're as anxious to have a "shootin' iron" as the wife but you haven't got thirty spare dollars just now and besides you believe that "Don't Be Afraid, My Dear, I'm With You" act is good for at least another month—

Until one evening while reading the "Specials at the Stores" column in The Palladium, your wife says: "Oh, Charlie, here are some $30 revolvers selling at $21.50, a real bargain—

And That Changes Everything. For a few days later, after a little secret practice, you're absolutely convinced that anybody who tries to break into your house will think he got into a marine barracks by mistake.

Mrs. Alfred Dunham, 1221 Harris street, issued a statement Wednesday denying that her husband had sold liquor at the Pennsylvania yards. The liquor, she said, was sold at the house, and the still owned by Dunham had been procured in the last week in December. It had been operated twice since then, she said.

Dunham left her in December of 1920, and returned the following March, she said.

Dunham was fined $100 and given a 20 day sentence to the penal farm, in police court Tuesday, for violation of the state liquor laws.

A Message to Wives Whose Husbands Remain Young

Has it ever occurred to you that your husband looks younger than you because he takes things easier?

Like as not he does very little that he can hire done—he doesn't scrub his own office, or sweep and scour.

It's pretty certain that he doesn't spend one day out of seven bending over a steaming washtub.

These are the aging tasks which cause so many women to grow old before their husbands do.

And the most aging of all is the family washing. Let us relieve you of this burden; let us give you more time for rest and recreation.

Send us your washing this week and see how much younger you feel when Monday night comes. Just phone 2766.

LAND OWNERS FIGHT DREDGING OF CREEKS IN DARKE COUNTY

GREENVILLE, O., Feb. 1.—Land owners and city property owners who are asked to pay the cost of dredging Greenville and Mud Creeks are strongly opposing the proposal.

On Monday evening there was a big mass meeting held at Palestine, at which time there were almost a hundred dredged land owners present. They are objecting to the proposed dredging improvement on the grounds that about 2,500 pieces of the property are to be taxed to reclaim a few hundred acres of lowlands along Greenville and Mud Creeks.

They say the expense will be far in excess to the improvement value and that some of the property will be taxed in excess of $2 per acre to pay for the cost of this improvement.

The estimated cost of this proposed job is $127,135. This cost will be assessed against 6,500 acres of land.
