

INTENSIVE WORK TO MARK DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR FREE LIBRARY FOR FOUNTAIN CITY

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., Feb. 9.—Library week will be one of intensified publicity throughout New Garden township. Because of immediate needs, the W. C. T. U., at its last meeting, adopted plans and appointed committees to bring before the residents of the township the value and needs of the free library.

These plans are in exact accord, even in details with those since announced by the various library associations of the state for an "Indiana Library Week" in April. Public libraries everywhere will be strengthened for greater service if more favorably known and supported.

Under Mrs. Lloyd Pyle, as general chairman, the following committees are completing their plans: Mrs. Raymond McQuiston has sent announcements and letters asking the co-operation of the churches, farm federations, granges and lodges; Mrs. Harold Brinkley and Mrs. Ernest King have prepared tags and placed the original posters made by committee members, and the school students under direction of Miss Frances Nichols, an instructor; Mrs. Forrest Lacey, Mrs. Russell Hiatt and Miss Marjory DeArmond are in charge of the tags which will be sold Saturday, Feb. 11, by a volunteer group of high school girls. The following assignments are for the morning, with an exchange of places at noon an agape at 4 p.m.:

Banks—Helen Smith and Ruth Reynolds.

C. Thomas grocery—Edith Davis and Margaret Thomas.

Platt's restaurant—Kate Barrett and Myrtle Reynolds.

Cooper's Cream Station—Irma and Florence Cooper and Margaret Johnson.

Harris & Harris dry goods—Viola Murray and Willard Longfellow.

Brinkley's grocery—Pauline Reynolds and Idress Hinsaw.

Palmer's drug store—Mary Mac and Fay Kerr.

A. T. Pegg Hardware—Kate Pegg.

Post Office—Mildred Bonta and Goli Gifford.

An essay contest on the value of the public library is in progress in the school. The essays will be placed in the hands of Miss Grace Plots to be delivered to the three judges. The W. C. T. U. has offered a cash prize of $1 for the best high school essay, the same for eighth grade; 75 cents for fifth and sixth grade rooms, and 50 cents for the fourth grade.

Catching the spirit of library week, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest McGilliard and the cast who presented "An Old-Fashioned Mother" to start the kitchen equipment fund for the Friends church, have consented to repeat their play for the benefit of the library Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. hall.

The play is a bit of village life in northern New York state 20 years ago. It is a parable of a mother's love triumphant over her children's ingratitude, rewarded by the reformation of her youngest son through the efforts of a redeemed tramp whom they had befriended. The play opens with a rehearsal of the village choir, with numerous interruptions from a comical country boy trying to swap something, and the romantic old maid of the village who recites original poetry. The cast follows:

Deborah Underhill, a mother in Israel, Mrs. Forrest McGilliard; Widder Bill Pindle, leader of the choir, who of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

Fay Kerr; Miss Lowizy Loving Custard, plain sewing and gossip; Mrs. James Barrett; Isabel Simpscott, the village belle; Cora Schroeder; Gloria Perkins, as good as gold; Kate Barrett; Sukey Pindle, the widder's mate, Genevieve; John Underhill, the prodigal son; Robert Thomas; Charley Underhill, the elder brother; Delmer Thomas; Brother Josiah Quakenbush, a whitened sepulchre; Howard Lovin; Jeremiah Gosling, "Jerry," a merry heart; Russell Connor; Enoch Rone, an outcast and a wanderer; Charles Corey; Quintus Todd, the county sheriff; Forrest McGilliard.

MORE RAIDS

(Continued from Page One.)

tour of the border during the night, said today:

"The police arrangements are not as complete as they can be made to insure immunity from invasion. It is unlikely that rebel forces will ever again attempt to raid the border. If they do happen to penetrate to this side they certainly will not find it easy to get back. The police patrols are a well disciplined, trained force, who know the geography of the country thoroughly, which is a great advantage in protective operations."

Banks—Helen Smith and Ruth Reynolds.

C. Thomas grocery—Edith Davis and Margaret Thomas.

Platt's restaurant—Kate Barrett and Myrtle Reynolds.

Cooper's Cream Station—Irma and Florence Cooper and Margaret Johnson.

Harris & Harris dry goods—Viola Murray and Willard Longfellow.

Brinkley's grocery—Pauline Reynolds and Idress Hinsaw.

Palmer's drug store—Mary Mac and Fay Kerr.

A. T. Pegg Hardware—Kate Pegg.

Post Office—Mildred Bonta and Goli Gifford.

An essay contest on the value of the public library is in progress in the school. The essays will be placed in the hands of Miss Grace Plots to be delivered to the three judges. The W. C. T. U. has offered a cash prize of $1 for the best high school essay, the same for eighth grade; 75 cents for fifth and sixth grade rooms, and 50 cents for the fourth grade.

Catching the spirit of library week, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest McGilliard and the cast who presented "An Old-Fashioned Mother" to start the kitchen equipment fund for the Friends church, have consented to repeat their play for the benefit of the library Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. hall.

The play is a bit of village life in northern New York state 20 years ago. It is a parable of a mother's love triumphant over her children's ingratitude, rewarded by the reformation of her youngest son through the efforts of a redeemed tramp whom they had befriended. The play opens with a rehearsal of the village choir, with numerous interruptions from a comical country boy trying to swap something, and the romantic old maid of the village who recites original poetry. The cast follows:

Deborah Underhill, a mother in Israel, Mrs. Forrest McGilliard; Widder Bill Pindle, leader of the choir, who of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

WEDS CHILDHOOD LOVE.

many directions but has not yet been able to establish real authority; it has not had time to replace the British machinery of law and order with machinery of its own.

"These incidents prove that the provisional government's writ runs not among large sections of the Republican army and may be some of these sections are being used, perhaps unwittingly to undermine the foundation of the Free State."

Urge Release.

Owen O'Duffy, chief of staff of the Irish Republican army has issued this statement: "That there should be spontaneous and determined action in Ulster is not surprising. The patience of our people there has been sorely tried lately by continued raids, arrests and tortures inflicted upon them by agents of the Northern government.

"The majority of those in prison in Belfast and Derry are suffering because they carried out my orders while I was liaison officer to protect the lives and property of Catholic civilians from the ravages of Orange mobs when those who are entrusted with law and order refuse to give protection."

The statement concludes: "Let the northern government immediately release our prisoners. We have shown by our actions our desire to have peace; let the North show by similar actions that they desire to have peace. Granted this, none will believe there would be difficulty in finding a common ground."

TWIN CAMERA

(Continued from Page One.)

claimed in the British forces during the World war.

Among the records was a pass of leave from duty in Dunkirk, dated April 1, 1919, naming Taylor at that time as a lieutenant.

An embarkation ticket, bearing the name of William D. Taylor, the officials stated showed also that he was a lieutenant. It bore the army number F-50979 and the regiment E. F. C. R. A. S. C.

It is further stated Taylor was discharged with the rank of captain. Efforts to trace Taylor's army record are being made in London.

HEALING CREAM STOPS CATARRH

Clogged Air Passages Open at Once—Nostrils Cleared.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh or a cold, get Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membranes. Instant relief.

How good it feels. Your head is clear. Your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or snuffling. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up, choked up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Advertisement.

The provisional government must try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.

"We cannot hold Michael Collins and the provisional government blameless because their conduct recently has certainly not tended to allay passions that require little kindling. If there be statesmanship among them and a real care for the welfare of the whole of Ireland it is urgently necessary to send aid.

The provisional government must

try to appreciate Ulster's feelings of anger and resentment and Premier Craig must make every possible allowance for the provisional government.