

"MAKE RUSSIA CLEAN," IS TROTSKY'S SLOGAN IN NEW CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press)
MOSCOW, March 7.—Leon Trotsky, the Soviet war minister, has launched a campaign to make Russia clean. He intends to do this through the Red army.

It is his chief and most cherished desire to convert 100,000,000 people to his slogan: "Cleanliness is health, and with health the world may be moved."

Trotsky has banished grease and dirt, beards and long hair, shabby and ill-fitting clothes from the Red army, and now he wants to pass on the benefits of cleanliness to the entire population. Personally, he gives the Russians a splendid example.

Trotsky's own clothes are a model of simplicity and neatness. He wears no insignia to show he is commander-in-chief of the army. His jacket is of gray green army cloth, with a military air given by a closely buttoned, roll-down collar and military pockets. His trousers are tucked into a pair of lace half-boots. A square, medium-sized man, his large head and broad forehead would attract attention of the observing in many places, but his clean appearance is notable in Russia where living conditions have long conducted to neglect of one's appearance.

Claims improvement.
Trotsky claims that despite great strain of work he has been under for four years, his health has improved. He certainly has improved in control of his nerves. He no longer gets excited. Also he has become a first-rate public speaker.

Bolshevik leaders have to do their work at night, sleep when they can and make stump speeches to a vast number of people who cannot read, and who can be taught only by speeches. Instead of breaking down, Trotsky often speaks twice a day. He goes through setting up exercises twice a day, walks or rides in an open automobile when he has the opportunity, gets regular sleep and never worries.

Trotsky is very keen at picking up points in conversation, to convert arguments advanced, but so quick as to be almost quackish. "He argues like a country lawyer," was the opinion expressed by some European journalists recently, after interviewing him.

BUILDING REVIVAL
(By Associated Press)
FORT WAYNE, March 7.—A revival of building operations in Fort Wayne was shown by the monthly report in February. New work undertaken during the month totalled $179,635, as compared with $136,660 for January.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CHICAGO SOCIETY LEADER ELOPES WITH WAR VET

Mrs. Frank B. Watling.

Chicago society was surprised to learn recently of the secret marriage of Mrs. Mayne Wood Thorne, widow of Raymond C. Thorne, to Frank B. Watling, Marine war hero. Her second marriage following an elopement recalled the fact that her first marriage followed an elopement also. Thorne was a student at Dartmouth and she was the daughter of a foreman on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.
