BEADED FROCKS ARE AT PEAK OF THEIR POPULARITY

Dinner frocks, dance frocks and evening gowns are all featuring a profusion of beads this season. Iridescent beads on black as shown here are a very striking and popular combination. This model is particularly becoming to the larger figures.

Our international relations must be carried on by the president and his secretary of state, without interference from the senate except under extraordinary conditions, the treaty is in real danger if the president and the secretary of state, who have the responsibility for carrying on our international relations are to remain silent while the senate lays daily and repeated emphasis on the negative side of the question, without any adequate sense of responsibility for getting things done, the senate is likely to win through the sheer mass of its reiterated.

the home, Monday afternoon. He leaves a widow.

MRS. MYRTLE L. RASEY. GREENVILLE, Ohio, March 7.—Mrs. Myrtle L. Rasey, 42 years old, died at the family residence Saturday night.

The deceased is survived by her husband, two sons, three sisters and four brothers and other relatives. Funeral services will be held from the U. B. church in this city at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The body will be taken to Palestine for burial.

MRS. ALICE GREEN. EATON, Ohio, March 7.—Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Green, 70, lifelong resident of Eaton, who died Saturday night in her home here, after a long illness, were conducted this morning in her late home by the Rev. A. J. Bussard, Methodist church, followed by burial in Mount Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Green died four days after her husband, Felix M. Green, whose funeral took place last Friday. He, too, had been long ill. Mrs. Green was a daughter of Al Smith, Civil war veteran, who died several years ago.

Mrs. Green is survived by four children: Mrs. G. F. Scheid, Eaton; Robert C. Green, Richmond, Ind.; Edwin Green, Muncie, Ind.; and Clarence Green, Dayton.

CHARLES R. GREEN. EATON, Ohio, March 7.—Funeral and burial of Charles Robert Green, 66 years old, took place Monday afternoon at Camden, where he died Friday in his home. He is survived by his wife. He had lived in Camden the last three years, going there from the state of Wisconsin, where he had been in the grain business.

Pimples and boils —caused by errors of diet

A well-known skin specialist says that pimples are "signal flags of danger" often indicating errors in diet.

Indeed pimples are so frequently associated with faulty habits of eating and improper digestion that the first thing to do is to see that our food is right.

Fresh yeast is a wonderful corrective food for these skin disorders. Fleischmann's Yeast is rich in the elements which improve appetite and digestion and which keep the intestines clean of poisons.

Physicians and hospital all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast for pimples and boils. It gets right at the basic cause of these complaints.

Eat 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals to keep your skin healthy. Besureit's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.
