

HAVE PLAN TO INTERN SWEDISH CRIMINALS TO CURE TENDENCIES

(By Associated Press)
STOCKHOLM, March 10.—Habitual criminals in Sweden would be "interned" until they are cured of their criminal tendencies under a plan recommended by a special government committee.

The committee has been making an extensive study of the best means of protecting society from such undesirable as well as from degenerates, mentally diseased, epileptics and moral offenders.

It recommends the establishment of special institutions in which to keep habitual criminals until they are restored to normal. Many Swedish legal experts favor the committee's plan.

The head of the Swedish prison board has further recommended that effective means be taken to prevent all such undesirable from having children. He says this is in line with efforts which have been made in certain parts of the United States.

Chief inspectors of hospitals and homes for indigents have sponsored a bill in the Riksdag which provides that habitual "alcoholics" who have returned to drink after treatment in asylums for inebriates shall be sent to special workhouses for indefinite periods.

Travelers Notes

By Post C. Scribe

Saturday evening, March 18, at Post C club rooms will be a night long to be remembered by those who hear that Richmond Caruso, John P. Highley, sing, "Promise Me." Incidentally there will be an election of officers for the ensuing year. Those who miss the song and the election will also miss the eats, drinks and smokes provided by Carlos Osomundo Tooker.

Now comes Bedford, Indiana, with a new $100,000 hotel for the convenience and comfort of the traveling public. Work on the building is progressing nicely.

Post A. A. Madison, Indiana, has been called upon to mourn the death of its president, Mr. Louis Sulzer, who passed on February 27.

One hundred and five applications for February were garnered in by membership hustlers in Indiana during February and a good start of 16 for March 1. How many did Post C contribute?

Mr. Charles Cassell is a new press chairman recently installed by Post A, Fort Wayne. Members fail to realize how much assistance could be rendered to a press chairman by a little thoughtfulness and co-operation. The mails and phones are available, but rarely used by members for transmitting items of news to the post scribe. Let us hope Fort Wayne will be a notable exception.

Press Chairman Ryan of Terre Haute would like to see a change in the constitution permitting a good man to succeed himself as national president. That of course, is all right when the incumbent is an honest-to-goodness right man, but some presidents we have had, were in office too long as it is. The possibility of a second term too often results in a frantic attempt to set the pins for succession during the whole of the first term, to the detriment of the duties of the office.

It would seem that one member of Post Q is hustling sales for a soap that cleanses everything but the morals and conscience. This soap business dates back a long time. Pitney mentions soap as a Gallic invention to brighten the hue of the hair while Jeremiah advises the use of hush soap and Malachi suggests soap as a refiner. Politicians seem to prefer "soft soap" for convention purposes. There will be plenty of it at Indianapolis. It may be noted in passing that Press Chairman Stolzenberger, New Albany, suggests "Now is the time to get out your hammers." Why? Soap

Membership quality rather than quantity is the subject of a little sermonette by Brother Ryan of Terre Haute, and he hits the nail on the head with force and precision as usual. In the zeal to write new members we are inclined to give the "prospect" the benefit of the doubt and this frequently admits men who are a distinct liability from the outset. While we are shouting "Write a member" and grumbling because more additions to the roster are not daily forthcomfostering conditions that later will spell ruin for our splendid organization. There are plenty of desirable

Post Q has decided to have a members picture gallery. It is a fine idea, and one that has been followed by Post C for many years. Non-resident members when visiting the post club rooms find much interest in the photographs of old associates.

Andrew Jackson of Post N, Marion, speaking of state conventions, remarks: "A few caucus experts, self appointed, control every delegate in their post that will let them, and they, the 'bosses,' have spoiled the enthusiastic conventions we had at one time." Wonder who is in Brother Jackson's mind!

Just J. Evansville, is again called upon to mourn the death of one of their members, Constantine F. Meyer.
This is the seventeenth death that has occurred in Post J since May 1, 1921.

Post C memorial services will occur April 9, with ex-Senator Beveridge as the principal speaker. An elaborate musical program has been planned by the committee to be rendered by Richmond's best musical talent.

There are but eight remaining members of the class of 1905, viz: Joseph W. Cowan, George W. Davis, Thomas E. Davis, Edward E. Dye, Frank H.
Highley, R. H. Newman, Charles V.
Patterson and William O. Ryan.

Mrs. Winifred Witt were quietly mar-tendered as Chairman Wisehart is popular with our boys.

I must stand up for my sex

by Mrs. Mary Preston Cooking Expert and Food Analyst

To understand how the argument started, you must know a few of the events that preceded it.
I had made an analysis of Heekin's Baking Powder and decided that no purer baking powder could be made. (No foreign ingredients are added to create an unnatural effervescence or to give a false impression of quality.) So I tried it in my baking. The excellent results made me enthusiastic.

Several of my co-workers tried it, too, and their results were as good as mine. There wasn't a single failure where Heekin's was used. No wonder it is the favorite baking powder with thousands of women. I reported in glowing terms to The Heekin Company and said that Heekin's should be the largest selling baking powder in America.

"I know it," said the sales manager, "and it would be if we could get every woman to buy one can and try it."

"That ought to be easy," I replied. And do you know what that sales manager said? He actually accused all women of being tied to their mothers' apron strings where baking powder was concerned. He said that because their mothers had used some particular brand, they all thought that they had to use the same brand, and you couldn't change them. Imagine that.

Naturally I stood up for my sex. I told him that women were more progressive than men, and that quality was what counted with them every time. I said that if he should tell the American women about Heekin's—that there is no better baking powder made, that there are 40 years' experience back of Heekin's, and that it costs much less than any of the other high-grade baking powders—every woman in America would be anxious to give it a trial.

He said, "You're a woman. Suppose you tell them." I agreed, because I know the excellent results that any woman will get with Heekin's. So confident am I, that I make this offer on behalf of The Heekin Company.
If anything you bake—using Heekin's—is not entirely satisfactory to you, The Heekin Company will return the price of Baking Powder, and the price of the ingredients in whatever you bake. There are no "ifs" or "buts" to this offer. Simply tell the ingredients and the price of them, plus the price of baking powder, and send to The Heekin Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, with your name and address.

Buy a can today at your grocer's and try it. You'll like Heekin's.
