To Boost Poland China Exhibit at State Fair

A state-wide campaign to make the Spotted Poland China exhibit at the state fair this fall the biggest in the history of the breed was started at the annual meeting of the Indiana Spotted Breeders held in Indianapolis. The officers of the association announced that prizes amounting to $1,200 will be paid to those entering their herds in the state contest.

The prizes include $1,000 for the big show herds and the award of state championships in all classes, $150 for pig club prizes and $25 for the county making the best showing in pig club contests. Under the program an effort will be made to organize pig clubs in every county in the state.

The prize money is the largest in the history of the breed, and breeders all over the state are planning to make the show this year the best in Indiana's history.

Lindley Baker, of Cambridge City, and John C. Moore, of Winchester, a director in the association, are the best known local Spotted Poland breeders.
