

DESIRE FOR PETTING
CAUSED 13 WEDDINGS,
BIGAMIST DECLARES

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 15.—Isaiah Moore, 32 years old, who is being held at the Indianapolis city prison, charged with bigamy, embezzlement and grand larceny, and who admitted having 13 wives, declares his repeated matrimonial ventures were caused by a desire to be "petted and babied."

"I have always been subject to nervous disorders," he said. "Petting and affection eased my nervousness. I would get tired of one woman, however, and desert her. Then I would feel the need of affection and get married again."

Moore, who Monday admitted having been married 11 times, yesterday gave police the records of two other marriages. In neither case was he able to give the police the name of the woman he married, nor the date of the marriage. He declared certainly that he had married no other women, and that he had been married only 13 times.

Only Thirteen Wives.
"I have kept pretty good record of them," he said. "There are only 13." In a signed statement made yesterday to Detective Houlihan and Englebright, Moore said he was married to a woman in Denver, Colo., under the name of James Vaughn. Using the name of Henry Forbes, he said, he married another woman in Ridgeway, Md.

Women whom he had previously confessed marrying were Miss Harriet Evans, a high school teacher at Mexico, Ind.; Laura Hertzberg, Peoria, Ill.; Irene Hale, Chicago; Helen Hardgrass, Augusta, Kas.; Florence Johnson, Davenport, Iowa; Laura Shields, Spokane, Wash.; Gertrude —, Findlay, Ohio; Bessie Whitson, Wilson, N. C.; Sue Harris, Houma, La., and Amelia Werner, Detroit, Mich.

All these, Moore said, he had married in the last 10 years, after deserting his first wife, who was Miss Flora Dole, Wyoming, Pa., which was Moore's home. His first wife has a daughter about 11 years old.

Embezzled, Charges.
Operatives of the National detective bureau were put on Moore's trail after he had deserted Miss Evans, his last wife, in an Indianapolis hotel, taking with him a check for $512 belonging to her. Moore also took $1,500 from Miss Hale, and is said to have embezzled $700 from Miss Johnson.

When arrested in Minneapolis, Moore, who was going under the name of Howard Johnson, had engaged himself to Miss Alma Kofahl, of Becker, Minn., and was to have married her today.

Most of his wives, Moore said, he met while singing with him in church choirs.

Believed Condition Is Feigned.
Detectives, while admitting Moore has been through enough to be nervous, believe his continual twitching and jerking, is somewhat feigned.

Moore also admitted in his signed statement, made after he had waived hearing in city court and been bound to the grand jury under bond set at $5,000, that he had spent two years in the house of refuge near Philadelphia, when he was 13 years old. He was unable to remember why he was sent to the correctional institution.

Miss Evans, who was in Indianapolis yesterday morning, appeared before the grand jury and is said to have told her story of married life with Moore, which lasted less than a week. She refused to comment on the case other than to admit that Moore, whom she had married as Melrose, had not been nervous as long as she knew him.

Before leaving Indianapolis, she signed affidavits against him, charging bigamy. She also filed suit asking an annulment of her marriage and a decree of absolute divorce. The plaintiff says she lives in Vincennes, and was married to Moore Nov. 30, 1921, and was unaware at that time he was married to Flora Dale, of Wyoming, Pa.

Photographs and Bertillon measurements of Moore will be sent to police departments in all the cities he is said to have been married, in an effort to obtain evidence against him.

Turns Out Lights On

THINK CIRCUS OWNER
FEARED ATTEMPT ON LIFE BY HIS WIFE

RIVERSIDE, N. J., March 15.—County authorities today were in possession of a letter said to have been written by John T. Bruen, circus proprietor, slain at his home last Friday, in which he told of an attempt on his life by his wife, Mrs. Doris Bruen, and of his intention of making a will cutting her off with one dollar.

The letter, dated Feb. 20, was addressed to Bruen's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Jaeschke, of Gary, Ill., and was turned over to the authorities by her yesterday after she had attended her brother's funeral. Prosecutor Jonathan Kelsey said that as a result of the letter an arrest and possibly more would be made today.

"I think Doty (Mrs. Bruen) is figuring to do away with me," said the letter. "She wants to get money. For all she cares is a good time."

Mrs. Jaeschke expressed the belief that her brother had been killed by hired assassins. "And," she declared, "I think I know who hired them and why."

Harry Mohr, of Pittsburgh, brother of Mrs. Bruen, declared that aside from occasional "little family squabbles," the circus man's home appeared to be happy.

Bruen's estate is estimated to be worth more than $100,000 exclusive of life insurance.

SIXTH CONFERENCE
The present is the sixth general wage conference held in the hard coal fields since the award of 1903 of the anthracite coal strike commission appointed by President Roosevelt, as a result of the long strike in 1902.

As an indication of the possible length of the present negotiations, records of former joint conferences all of which began about the same time as the present one, show that in 1908 an agreement was signed on May 7, in 1909, on April 29 in 1912, on May 20, in 1916, on May 5 and in 1920, on Sept. 2. There was a suspension in 1906, when the mines were idle about five weeks, and in 1912, when there was a cessation of production for six weeks. In all other years the miners remained at work while negotiations were in progress.

The principal demands of the miners follow:
A two-year contract.
A 20 percent increase in the contract wage scale.

A $1 a day increase to all labor paid by the day, and that differentials existing between different classes of employees prior to the 1920 award be restored.

A uniform wage scale in all collieries for occupations of like character.

An eight-hour day for all employees these working under ground to count their hours from the time they enter the mine until they leave it.

A standard check-off provision.

That where coal is paid for by the car the system be changed to a tonnage basis.

Travelers leaving Spain are required to pay an exportation duty of 100 percent ad valorem on antique and artistic articles. The duty applies to all art objects over 70 years old.

PAINT IS SPOLING
BEAUTY OF U. S.
WOMEN, HE SAYS

Shaw Desmond.

"The 'war paint' of the American woman is her biggest menace," in the opinion of Shaw Desmond, Irish author. The noted novelist says that American women are literally cutting off their noses to spite their faces. "The beauties are painting beauty out," says Desmond. Desmond declares that when the American woman eschews paint and powder, when she creates and wears American instead of Parisian clothes, that day will reveal her to the world as the world's most beautiful woman.

RECEIVE 25 SLIDES
FOR PICTURE CONTEST

Twenty-five lantern slides have been received at the Community Service office for the Famous Picture contest and are available for use by local organizations for Famous Picture entertainments. These slides were received from the John Herron art institute at Indianapolis.

Miss Caroline Heitbrink, chairman of the exhibition and entertainment committee, is arranging a schedule for various organizations to use these slides and people wishing to obtain them should get in touch with Miss Heitbrink immediately.

More slides are expected to arrive here by the end of the week from the art institute at Chicago. With the arrival of these slides from Chicago the Community Service will have a complete list of the pictures in the contest in slide form.

Local picture and art dealers have secured supplies of these pictures in print form and can be obtained for a small price. The entire set can be supplied. These pictures should be in every home entered in the contest so as to give every person in the family a chance to get acquainted with the pictures.

One enterprising group in the east part of the city have placed a complete set of pictures on exhibition and many people are taking advantage of this opportunity of seeing the pictures.

That Puts The Joy Back Into Life—

When you almost begin to believe what all the employers tell you—that this is a very hard time for them to take on any men, but that if you come back in about three months, things may be opening up better by that time—

But you also have an idea of your own that keeps sticking in your mind that the law of averages must have something to do with finding that job and that if you can only put your name before ALL the employers who might be interested, everything would be O.

And this leads you to the point of using a little ad in the Pallad-ium's Situations Wanted column
and "telling the town" what you can do and why someone would profit by giving you a chance—

And three days later you have to admit that you had the right idea,

good job with just the right one!

business depression.

"We now have assurance that we will be able to pay the face value of all allowed, undisputed claims at the First National bank of Cambridge City within 30 days. Claimants should make assignment of their claims to that bank as trustee. We do not feel that we can pay interest on these claims."

Mr. Rupe then went on to explain that only one thing might hold up prompt settlement of these claims.
One of the stockholders, James Mount,
is seriously ill, and is unable at present to sign some of the papers connected with execution of a loan for the amount. However, it was believed that within the 30 days specified, he would have recovered sufficiently to care for the matter.

To Transmit Proposal
A committee made up of Albert Anderson, Andrew Kerber and Louis Kleiber was instructed to transmit the acceptance of the proposal to the stockholders. The committee and attorneys were to meet at 1:30 o'clock
Wednesday afternoon.

The action taken Wednesday affects only allowed claims which amount to approximately $150,000. Should the settlement be carried out as proposed,
about 15 suits will be dismissed from court. Disallowed claims, including the $45,000 Weldner claim, amount to about $90,000.
