

WOMAN WOULD PROVE SEX CAN FIND TIME FOR HOME, POLITICS

(By Associated Press)
ST. PETER, Minn., March 30.—Mrs. A. K. Gault, mayor of St. Peter and Minnesota's first woman aspirant for election to congress, wants to "prove that women can find time to attend to other things without neglecting their home."

These "other things" in her case include active participation in matters political, an hereditary trait, perhaps, for her sister, Mrs. Irene C. Buell, city prosecutor of Ashland, Neb., seeks to represent the Fourth Nebraska district in congress.

When Mrs. Gault announced her determination to seek the Democratic nomination for congress from the Third Minnesota district, she acted in response to insistent urgings of her friends, including many women, that she try for some important political post.

Just a year ago she was elected mayor of St. Peter on a reform ticket, defeating strong opposition. She stopped the "shimmy" and took other questionable motions out of public dances; then she licensed soft drink establishments and caused removal of screens from their windows.

Wants Equal Chance
"Equal opportunity for all and the same laws for rich and poor alike"—that is her simple platform in her contest for congress. If she survives the June primary, her opponent will be the Republican choice of that election, Charles R. Davis, Republican, has represented the district since 1903.

Mrs. Gault has found time from her household duties—for she does her own house work—to figure prominently in all forms of women's activities during the past quarter of a century.

She belongs to many patriotic organizations—her ancestors fought in the French and Indian war, in the Revolution, the Civil wars, and her own son was an officer in the American expeditionary force in France, where he was wounded.

JACKSON TOWNSHIP SCHOOL CONTESTANTS

CAMPBELLSTOWN, Ohio, March 31.—The following pupils will represent Jackson township in the first literary contest at Jefferson Central school Tuesday evening:

Mabel O'Hara, impromptu Bible reading; Mary Reid, piano solo; Ruth Frye, recitation; Edna Swisher, solo; Rosella McGill, discussion.

The senior class will give the following program at the literary meeting Friday afternoon: Selection, senior male quintet; reading, Dale Price; dialogue, A Special Sale, Howard Ammerman and Herbert Larsh; vocal solo with guitar accompaniment, Catherine Storer; dialogue, "Taking the Census," Rosella McGill and Pauline Ervin.

Monologue, "Me and My Down-trodden Sex," Mabel O'Hara; violin duet, Ester Stegal and Louise Murray; silent play, "Wanted a Wife," vocal solo, Ester Stegal; musical comedy, Fred Swisher and Ernest Stigleman.

Mrs. O. B. Cooper, underwent an operation at Reid Memorial hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. Perry Wright has been at Eaton all week on account of the serious illness and death of her sister, Mrs. Roy Mann.

The teachers from this township attended the teachers' association at Eaton Saturday.

MARY GARDEN AILING
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., March 31.—Mary Garden is suffering from "sinus infection," but may be able to sing in the "Fugler of Notre Dame," Friday, her physician announced. The director of the Chicago Grand Opera company said her ailment was a bad cold. It prevented her appearance Tuesday night.

MERCHANT PRINCE DIES
TORONTO, March 31.—Sir John Craig Eaton, K. B., one of Canada's greatest merchant princes, died last night after a lingering illness.

CURED BY A NATIVE HERB
On board a vessel bound for India recently a man was bitten by a poisonous reptile, both the ship doctor and a famous surgeon failed to control the poison fast spreading through his system.

In a day the vessel reached port. An Indian medicine man was sent for, who produced a native herb which quickly allayed the poison and the man's life was saved.

Roots and herbs are nature's assistants in combating disease. That well-known medicine for ailments peculiar to women, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is prepared from roots and herbs, possessing medicinal properties of great value in the treatment of such ailments.

This is proved by the letters of recommendation we are continually publishing in this paper for it.—Advertisement.

"IRENE"
So many concoctions of nonsense without a single redeeming feature have been fostered on the public in the guise of musical comedy, that the theatre goer of today has become more or less of a skeptic, when the mere mention is made of a musical comedy coming to the city, and one can hardly blame them or wonder why these so-called attractions or rather why so many of them do not find favor with discriminating audiences.

In this plethora of amusement, there are few, if any, which have ever received the attention accorded by James Montgomery's fascinating musical play, "Irene," the music of which was composed by Harry Tierney and the lyrics furnished by Joseph McCarthy, and which the Vanderbilt Producing company will present at the Murray theatre tonight only.

Looking back on the list and character of attractions of this kind produced in the last two decades, it is little wonder that this charming idyl, with its wonderful romantic story, its entrancing music and aptly applied lyrics, has delighted over ten million people on both hemispheres since its first production in New York on November 18, 1919, nor that it has broken all records for musical comedy in New York, Boston, Chicago, London, Sydney, Melbourne and other places, and the leading character gaining the well earned sobriquet of "The World's Sweetheart," for "Irene" is a truly golden girl—a modern Cinderella—who is to be seen, is but to be loved.

MURRAY VAUDEVILLE
The new theatre is doubly appreciated in vaudeville. First because of the art, and second, because of the change from the common-place. Jack Lait's laughing playlet of business life, "Help," in which a cast of six, headed by Jack Trainor, is featured, is one of the new things on the local boards. Trainor furnishes most of the laughs, but the entire crew have an opportunity to participate to advantage. One is sure to be well pleased with the company.

It's a pretty good comedienne that appears in Boothby and Everbean's portion of the present Murray bill. Songs and travesty, mostly the latter, are featured.

The Millard Brothers are well received for their "hick" contribution. To see them is as seeing a couple of our "Rubeville" friends. Besides the "hayseed" comedy, there is music on banjos.

Ventriloquism and "The Walking Doll" composes Harry Coleman's bit. Well known ventriloquist tricks are offered, together with an amusing lot of talk between Harry and the dummy partner.

"A Wife's Awakening," is the film attraction.—MARVIN.

RICHMOND
With Rudolph Valentino and Dorothy Dalton in the featured role, George Melford's big Paramount production, "Moran of the Lady Letty," an adaptation of the novel by the late Frank Norris, will be shown at the Richmond theatre next week. Rudolph Valentino, who was featured with Agnes Ayres in "The Sheik," Mr.

Elsie Janis at Victory

The internationally famous comedienne and mimic, Elsie Janis, is to be at the Victory theatre, Dayton, Monday and Tuesday, April 3 and 4.

Melford's preceding production, has the male lead of Ramon Laredo. Charles Brindley is Capt. Sternsen; Emil Jorgensen plays the part of Nels; Maude Wayne is Josephine Herriek; Cecil Holland is cast as Bill Trim; Walter Long plays Capt. Kitchell and George Kuwa is Charlie Wong. This is believed to be one of the strongest subjects for the screen that could be found. Frank Norris was a master story-teller whose untimely death robbed the world of a literary genius. "Moran of the Lady Letty" is an adventure tale of Pacific seas, with thrills and the salt tang of the ocean in every scene.

MURRETTE
Playing the part of a young traveler who finds in mysterious Turkey just a wee bit more adventure than he actually was seeking, Eugene O'Brien scores a decided success at the Murrette theatre in his latest Selznick picture, "The Prophet's Paradise." This newest dramatic creation of the popular screen star tells an interesting story of romance and adventure which begins in Constantinople and ends on Fifth avenue. It has to do with this American lad's effort to save a harem life when she is placed on the auction block for public sale. While he thwarts the plan to place her in bondage, they, nevertheless, are separated just at a time when the light of

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimple Are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pours.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Advertisement.

love is beginning to shine, and it is not until they accidentally meet on their native soil months later that the romance is culminated.

Sigrid Holmquist is Mr. O'Brien's attractive leading lady and others who are prominent in the picture are Bigelow Cooper, Arthur Housman, Nora Booth and Joseph Burke.

VICTORY THEATRE, DAYTON
Engaged in the most ambitious enterprise of her career, a transcontinental tour, Elsie Janis, the internationally famous comedienne and mimic, will be seen at the Victory, Monday and Tuesday, April 3 and 4.

Miss Janis has taken advantage of her experience of the last two seasons as producer-manageress in both London and Paris, and brings to her admirers here a production of the different sort. Quick and novel changes, interesting and brilliant situations, clever acting, smart song and dance, take the place of extravagance in her production. The whole revue is intimate to the point that, before the evening is half over, everyone in the audience feels that he knows the cast and knows them personally.

Elsie is loyal to her soldier-actors of her last American tour, but this season they are seen as finished actors, and finished actors they really are. During their song and dance and specialty work it is hard to remember that every one of them possesses one or more medals won for conspicuous bravery, or as the boys themselves put it—"just got it for doing a little job up front."

Producer-Manager Janis in addition to a distinguished company of

NEEDS "DANDERINE" TO THICKEN IT

35 cents buys a bottle of "Danderine." Within ten minutes after the first application you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping your hair to grow long, thick and luxuriant. Girls! Girls! Don't let your hair stay lifeless, colorless, thin, scraggy. A single application of delightful Danderine will double the beauty and radiance of your hair and make it look to be as abundant.—Advertisement.
