

NEWS OF SOCIETY

The Fishermen's club entertained the Who Do class of Grace Methodist Sunday school with a banquet and entertainment Monday evening in the church parlors, marking one of the largest and prettiest parties of the week. Covers were laid for more than 75 guests. The tables were decorated in Easter appointments carried out in shades of yellow, lavender and white. Yellow tapers in crystal candlesticks lighted each table. Ora Segall, president of the Fishermen's club, was toastmaster. Musical numbers were given through the evening by Walter Anderson, violin, and Mrs. William Anderson, piano. Fish stories were told, Merle Stanley starting the ball on its roll with "A True Fish Story." Mr. Segall, the next on the program, discoursed on "Fishermen's Hospitality," which was responded to with "Fishermen's Friends," by Miss Elizabeth Townsend, president of the Who Do class. Lester Meadows spoke on "Fishermen's Bait," N. G. McKinley on "Fishermen's Secrets" and A. H. Backus, teacher of the Fishermen's club, on "Fishermen's Reward." Helps digestion —and cleans a coated tongue Thousands of men and women have found relief from various digestive disturbances by eating Fleischmann's Yeast. It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far science can tell us this is the reason: Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and of pancreatic juice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive process. It cleans a coated tongue. Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or in milk. Men like it in milk shakes and malted milks. Women like it spread on bread or crackers. Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh every day before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer today.

SAYS WESTINGHOUSE TURBINE SUBJECT TO TEST IF CITY DOUBTS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 4.—James Britt, the Westinghouse representative in Cincinnati, today issued the following statement relative to the turbine at the Richmond municipal light and power plant:

"The Westinghouse company is entirely responsible and has always lived up to its contracts. The company is too large and responsible a company to attempt to fleece the city of Richmond out of anything."

When asked whether he had any statement to make, he said that he had not heard of any reports, but if such were being made, it was undoubtedly a political fight, and they did not care to enter any such controversy.

"We contracted to furnish the turbine, and if it is not up to the specifications, it can be determined by a test, which we would be very glad to have the city make. The turbine stands there subject to test, and it would be an easy matter for the city to find out whether it will stand the test of the specifications."

MALPRACTICE CHARGE FILED AGAINST FOUTS

Suit for $15,000 damages, alleging malpractice, was filed in circuit court Tuesday against Dr. J. M. Fouts, by Martha Harter, a minor, through Ora V. Harter, her father, in circuit court.

The complaint alleges that the defendant failed to set a broken arm properly.

Iris Harter, the child's mother, employed Dr. Fouts when the girl broke her arm near the elbow, the complaint states. It is further alleged that the fracture was treated merely as a dislocation by the doctor, that he failed to set the arm properly, and that as a result it remained out of place for six weeks, until it was impossible to set or properly cure the arm. Damages are asked because the arm is said to be permanently impaired and worthless.
