MRS. GEORGIA WEBBER ELECTED COUNCILLOR OF DISTRICT D. OF A.

Daughters of America of the sixth district, meeting semi-annual session in the I. O. O. F. hall here Saturday, selected Winchester as the place for their next meeting to be held in October.

New officers elected at the closed session in the afternoon included Mrs. Georgia Webber of this city, as district councillor; and Mrs. Ella Arnold, of the local council, who was elected vice councillor.

John Reed, of this city, gave the address of welcome at the evening session, which was responded to by Mrs. Bertha Fouts, of Union City. A program of music, recitations, and readings followed, after which six candidates were initiated at closed session, the Honeycreek team putting on the work.

Two hundred persons attended the evening session and 140 were registered in the afternoon. Delegates attended from the councils at Newcastle, Honeycreek, Winchester and Union City. Dunkirk was the only one not represented. The local council, Pride of Richmond, council 15, acted as hostess for the meetings.

Fifteen visitors from Camden, Ohio, and Mrs. Marian Hummer and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hooper, of Dillsboro, were among those present. The state councillor, Mrs. Hasemeier, and Mrs. Hopper, state deputy, also attended. Supper was served in the banquet hall to 150 persons. The tables were lavishly adorned with great bouquets of lilacs for the occasion.

Blind Officer Skeptical of Auto-Suggestion Faith (By Associated Press.) LONDON, May 1.—In the course of a lecture which M. Coue, the advocate of the theory of auto suggestion, was giving here recently, a blind officer seated in the front row of the audience rose and exclaimed: "I am blind. I am able to see. I have tried to make myself believe that I can see, but I can't. Now you try it!"

M. Coue endeavored to explain that there were limits to auto-suggestion, but the blind officer was not to be appeased. He insisted that his eyes were still there and that therefore M. Coue ought to be able to work the miracle and he sat down obviously skeptical of this new faith.

EGYPTIAN FLAG GREEN (By Associated Press.) CAIRO, May 1.—It is announced that the new Egyptian flag will be green, with three white stars and a white crescent. The royal flag will have in addition a crown.

Memorial Services Held By Omicron Pi Sigmas

Memorial services were observed by the members of the Omicron Pi Sigma fraternity Sunday morning at the First Christian church during the regular morning services. About 50 members of the organization attended the services. Tribute was paid to Herbert Bradley and Everett Shelton, members of the organization who died during the past year. A paper was read by Mark Johanning.

ANNOUNCE EARLHAM GRADUATION SPEAKERS

According to an announcement Monday the senior class has secured Dr. Henry Churchill King, of Oberlin college, and Dr. Elbert Russell as the commencement and baccalaureate speakers respectively.

Dr. King is president of Oberlin college, Oberlin, Ohio. His address will be delivered at the regular commencement exercises June 7 at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Russell is recognized as one of the foremost lecturers of the country, having served as Noble lecturer at Harvard and Taylor lecturer of Yale in addition to appearances in China, India and Japan. He received his A.B. degree at Oberlin and later gained the Master's degree at Harvard and Berlin. He has been awarded honorary degrees by the leading universities of the country including Yale, Chicago, Harvard and Columbia. Dr. King is also the author of numerous philosophical and educational works.

Dr. Russell graduated from Earlham in 1894 and was a member of the faculty for many years. He is now principal of Woolman school, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania. He will open commencement week Sunday, June 4, at 10:30 a. m., with the annual baccalaureate address.

At three o'clock in the afternoon of baccalaureate Sunday the Richmond high school orchestra will give a concert of sacred numbers on Chase stage. Mrs. Mildred Barrett Pearson will also assist on the program. The concert is under the direction of Professor Samuel B. Garton.

The establishment of an "aerial freight service" is planned by the companies now operating the airplane service for passengers between London and Paris.

Keep to the Left—Down the Auto Ads!

YOU may keep to the right when you're driving a car, but when you're looking for one to buy, you keep to the left of the Automobile columns in the Palladium Classified Section—because at the left of the columns are the alphabetically arranged names of the cars that are offered for sale. The first word of every ad is its key.

This system—and the fact that almost all the used cars now on the local market are described there—make it easy for you to find the right car at the right price.

And when you buy a good used car this Spring, you'll be getting the best car value that your money can bring.
