

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Invitations are to be issued this week for the annual dinner of the Richmond Art association, which will be held Friday evening, May 19, in the Public Art gallery. The affair is for the association's membership. A program will be given following the dinner, which will include a number of speakers. Dinner will be one dollar a plate. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Charles S. Bond by next Wednesday morning. Other members of the committee are Mrs. George Eggermeyer, Mrs. J. E. Cathell, Mrs. John H. Johnson and Mrs. Paul Comstock.

Leading events for the month will include the spring dance the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity will give Monday evening in the ballroom of the I. O. O. F. hall. Wright's famous saxophone orchestra, of Columbus, O., will play the order of dances. As an ensemble of colored musicians, the orchestra bears a national reputation, being one of three orchestras under the direction of O. S. Wright. Mr. Wright will appear in person with the orchestra here. He is noted as a singer and player. His orchestra was organized 10 years ago and was financed by Stuart Beebe, of this city. It has played at fraternity and university dances at Yale, Princeton, Wisconsin and Northwestern universities, as well as many other places. The balconies are to be open to the public. The Phi Delta committee in charge of the dance is composed of Louis Ripberger, Lawrence Jessup, Floyd Nusbaum and Harry Frankel.

A dance will be given by the Gonzaga club for members and their friends in their club rooms, South Fifth and C streets, Thursday evening. The Miller orchestra will play the order of dances, beginning at 9 o'clock. The committee in charge consists of William Schwengmann, Paul White and H. A. Maurer.

Invitations have been issued for a dance to be given by the Melody Entertainers' six-piece orchestra Monday evening, May 15, in the Eagles' hall. The orchestra will only play a few more engagements here this season. It leaves shortly for Peoria, Ill., to play at Alfrisco park during the summer season.

Miss Iris Igelman is spending the week in Detroit, Mich., the guest of her mother, Clara Campbell Igelman, who is playing with the Pantages Singers there this week.

Miss Ethel F. Sargent, of Genesee, Ill., was the guest here Wednesday of Mrs. William Asher of the Sunday party.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Randle, of Camden, Ohio, spent Wednesday in Richmond.

All parents and friends of Baxter school are invited to attend the school exhibit all Friday afternoon at the school. Tea will be served at 3:30 o'clock by the P. T. A. to their guests. A teacup shower will be held in connection with the exhibit, to add to the school's supply of cups. Everyone may give one or more teacups.

The Helping Hand society of the Spiritualist Church of Truth will meet at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at their hall, 15½ South Seventh street. Everyone is welcome.

Billy Sunday will give an address Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Richmond Country club. All club members are invited to attend.

All members of the B. R. C. of A's are asked to be present Thursday evening, May 11, when an important business session will be held. The meeting is urgent.

The Auxiliary of the Brotherhood will meet Thursday evening, May 18, in the Red Men's hall, when there will be a short form of lodge and then a dance and card party. The regular night meetings will be held the first and third night of each month. The members, their families, and friends are cordially invited to attend the dance and card party. The Melody Entertainers will play the order of dances.

Members and friends of the First Christian church are to meet at the entrance 13, of the tabernacle, Thursday evening, to march in a body. Badges will be given each person at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bates, of South Fourteenth street, are spending Wednesday and Thursday in Indiana.
