TABERNACLE HAVING RESERVATIONS TAKEN

Reservations for next week at the tabernacle are filling up.

On Tuesday the W. C. T. U. of the county will attend, and Mrs. Rev. Brown has asked for a reservation of 400. The same night the West Side will repeat its "enmasse" attendance of this week and reservations for 1,500 have been made. Barbers and high school girls will make up the remaining delegations for that day.

On Wednesday, Eaton, Ohio, with 500 seats, College Corner with 600, the high school boys with 200, and the four auxiliaries of the Brotherhood, with 250, will occupy special places.

Thursday night, the last reservation made at present, the Odd Fellows are to be out in force.

WEST SIDE WILL TRY TO FILL TABERNACLE

The West Side is to make another attempt to swamp the tabernacle meetings.

Next Tuesday night a block of seats, 1,500 in all, have been reserved for West Siders, a number larger than that reserved last week, because of the large attendance then.

The same plan for the distribution of tickets that was used last week will be followed for next Tuesday night.

Tickets are to be secured from the Sunday schools on the West Side, from Charles Woodman of the West Richmond Friends meeting and from Rev. C. Raymond Isley, pastor of the Second English Lutheran church. Supplies of tickets are also to be left at the stores on the other side of the river, to reach those that do not come in contact with the churches. Admission to the reserved section is to be ticket only.

Do You Like Your Milk "Rare" or "Well Done?"

OUR MILK will stand the highest test as to its purity and wholesomeness. It is positively the best grade of Milk you can buy.

By "rare" we mean "raw milk," which has not been pasteurized and which still contains a large percentage of water.

Pasteurized milk has been a huge benefit to our city—cut down the infant mortality rate as well as sickness among adults.

It is the real health drink.
