

5TH WARD CITIZENS DISCUSS PROVISIONS OF PLANNING LAW

Discussion of the provisions of the city planning law was the principal business taken up at a meeting of the citizens of the Fifth ward in the Starr school building Friday evening. City Attorney Will Kelley and City Engineer Dell B. Davis explained the law, and other talks were made by I. A. Thomas, C. B. Beck and Stanley Hayes.

Attendance was not all it should have been because of the inclement weather, and Councilman Louis Salzaro announced that if sufficient desire was manifested another meeting would be held at a later date.

A vote of the citizens present, taken at the close of the meeting, showed approximately 28 per cent against and 70 per cent for the passage of the measure.

In his description of the law, City Attorney Kelley showed that the powers of the city planning commission are purely advisory and that council has the final word in all matters regarding changes in streets or alterations requiring the expenditure of public money.

Mention G. O. P. Platform.

The Republican state platform, calling for the abolishing of the public service commission, was mentioned in the debate Friday evening by one citizen, who was opposed to the starting of another commission when the state platform expressly called for abolishing and cutting down of all commissions now in existence.

Citizens of the first ward will meet at the St. Andrew's school house to discuss the matter with Councilman Joseph Walterman, next Wednesday evening.

The ordinance committee of council will meet with representatives of various organizations, including the Kiwanian, Rotary and the city police department, Tuesday evening, in City Attorney Kelley's office. The new traffic ordinance will be considered.

HISTORIC STAGE COACH CONVERTED TO MOTOR BUS.

This strange vehicle made its appearance in London a short time ago and caused considerable excitement. It was one of the famous coaches of Dick Turpin's time, but a motor and heavy wheels replace the picturesque horses and post-boys. We wonder what Dick Turpin would think were he to see the change.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE IS TO BATTLE MOVE TO DEFEAT VOLSTEAD

PALLADIUM NEWS BUREAU

WASHINGTON, May 27.—As the recently organized Association Against the Prohibition Amendment prepares to center its initial activities in an effort to defeat Representative Volstead, author of the amendment, for reelection in the Minnesota elections in November, the Anti-Saloon League of America, through its legislative committee, announces that it accepts the challenge.

The purpose of the anti-prohibition organization, which has its headquarters in New York, in attempting to defeat Volstead is obvious: His defeat would be expected to throw a scare into all members of congress. The organization will make no effort to defeat Volstead for renomination on the Republican ticket, but when the fall campaign opens it will send an army of speakers, both men and women, into the Seventh Minnesota district to wage relentless warfare against Volstead, it is announced.

The retention of the eighteenth amendment in the constitution does not in itself insure prohibition, the Anti-Saloon League warns in its "appeal to the friends of prohibition enforcement." The statement mentions the fact that while two-thirds of congress would be required to resubmit the amendment for repeal only a bare majority of congress can weaken or repeal the law to enforce the amendment. The statement continues:

Aim of Association

"The written declaration of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment leading this fight is, first: To repeal the Volstead enforcement act; second, to leave to every state the enforcement of prohibition through state law alone; and third, to legalize the sale of beer and wine."

The situation which confronts the American people in the primaries to be held from this time until next October to nominate candidates for 435 seats in the house and 35 seats in the senate, the Anti-Saloon League announces, "is a challenge to the friends of law and order."

The league, it is understood, will lend powerful support to Representative Volstead.

"Keep friends of prohibition on guard in congress. Indifference means defeat," is the slogan which the Anti-Saloon League asks be sounded "in every hamlet, village and city in the nation."

"If you want your beer and wine back, beat Volstead," is the war cry of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment.

In the meantime those statesmen who announced after the adoption of prohibition that the "liquor question" is finally out of politics, refuse to be quoted for publication.
