Chose American Engineer For Niger Valley Project

(By Associated Press)
CAIRO, July 1.—French colonial authorities have selected an American engineer to report on a project of irrigation in the Niger valley in West Africa. He is Dr. Herbert H. Forbes, former dean of the College of Agriculture of Arizona, and lately agronomist of the Royal Agricultural Society of Cairo.

The work on the Niger contemplates an irrigation dam similar to the Assouan dam of the Nile, and it will be carried out under the direction of the governor general of French Occidental Africa.

Easy on Your Shirts

IF THERE is anything a man hates, it is to look over a batch of shirts just back from the laundry and find them torn around the neck, the cuffs ragged, and perhaps the collars faded and the buttons half gone. And he don't blame him for getting mad.

We would suggest, however, that he send his things to the Home Laundry in the future and avoid all this trouble!
