Lemon and daughter, Alice, left Monday. The party expect to return Wednesday, but Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will go on to the lakes for several days.

A. O. Haisley of 323 Main street, left Wednesday for a trip to the lakes.

Miss Helen Rust, Miss Mary Dickson, Miss Mabel Loehr, Miss Carolyn Bradley and Miss Ruth Boyd left Sunday evening on an extended trip. They expected to stop at Cleveland, take the lake route, stop at several points in Canada, and thence go to New York City. They will return to Richmond by way of Washington.

One of the most beautiful and unique wedding ceremonies of the season was that of Miss Josephine Banskowski and Xavier Szulc, of Detroit, and Miss Mary Banskowski and John Goluda, also of Detroit, which was celebrated at the Church of St. Andrew's Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roell reading the single ring service. The Misses Banskowski are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Banskowski, of South Fourth street. Immediately following the ceremony the girls' choir of the church sang, accompanied by Prof. Richter on the organ during the high mass service. Both brides were gowned in charming creations of white satin, with delicate veils caught corner fashion with lilies of the valley. They carried a arm bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Mary Banskowski was attended by her sister, Miss Adella Banskowski, who wore a pink georgette frock, set off by a large white hat, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Bruno Gronicki, of Detroit, attended the groom. Miss Margaret Maurer was Miss Josephine Banskowski's bridesmaid. Miss Maurer was attired in a pale green taffeta frock, with corresponding accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Ignatius Banskowski, brother of the bride, attended Mr. Szulc. Little Miss Helen Mokal, cousin of the bride, as flower girl, wore a dainty frock of pink with a lace overslip. She carried a white lily, in which lay the rings. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson on South Fourth street. Covers were laid for about 50 guests. A color scheme of blue and white was carried out in all appointments. The table was decorated with cords of similes. An all-day reception at the home of the bride followed. Mr. and Mrs. Szulc and Mr. and Mrs. Goluda will live in the near future for Detroit, where they will take up permanent residence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chase celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, July 2, at their home in Pershing. Many lovely gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Chase in remembrance of the occasion. George W. Bishop of Ellis, Ohio, was the only one present, who had attended the wedding. Dinner was served to the guests, after which the afternoon was spent informally. Those for whom covers were laid were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chase, W. F. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Chase and sons, Clarence and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wehrley and son, Paul, all of Cambridge City.
