

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Most impressive in its simplicity was the marriage of Miss Margaret Grubbs Starr, daughter of William F. Starr, of the Keystone apartments, and Dr. Louis Francisco Ross, son of Mrs. Alice Ross, of the Pelham apartments, which was solemnized Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with a quiet and beautiful ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George Burbanck, rector of the church, officiating. The altar in the church auditorium before which the ceremony was performed was banked with cut flowers against a background of greenery. The bride was charming in a white Roshanara crepe suit of simple fashion with corresponding accessories, and wore a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The single ring service was read in the presence of a few relatives and the immediate family. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held in the parsonage of the church. About 50 guests were present. Out-of-town guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greene, of Glendale, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jamieson, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey Poundstone and daughter, Jane, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Alan McGregor, of Springfield, Ohio; and Mrs. Wickham Corwin, of Dayton, Ohio. Dr. and Mrs. Ross left on a wedding journey to New York City, from where they will go on a motor tour through the New England states. Mrs. Ross' traveling costume was a stunning black crepe de chine frock. Dr. and Mrs. Ross will be at home in the Pelham apartments after Sept. 1.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Maxine Stripling, of Little Rock, Ark., and R. C. Settles, of this city, which took place Tuesday, July 18, the ceremony being performed by Justice of the Peace Henry Chessman. Mr. and Mrs. Settles are at home at 27½ North Tenth street.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the sports-bridge day for the women members of the Country club held Wednesday. Golf and tennis were played by a large number of persons during the morning, and bridge was played in the afternoon. At 1 o'clock a buffet luncheon was served on the club veranda, which was attractively decorated with flowers. Those for whom reservations were made were: Mrs. Robert Heun, Mrs. John Clements, Mrs. E.
