

BEGIN ACTUAL WORK ON MILTON CHURCH; PLAN FINE EDIFICE

MILTON, Ind., July 26.—Clearing up of debris left by the fire which destroyed the Milton Christian church several weeks ago, and preparation for construction of a new church building, was started Tuesday.

After consideration of a number of sites, the building committee finally decided upon the old site, after it became possible to enlarge it by purchase of an adjoining lot. Volunteer labor was immediately recruited to start the work and on Tuesday morning Jesse Moore, Wallace Warren, Benton Wagner, George Wagner, Leonard Wallace, Ed Beeson, Benton Wissler, Carl Williams and Rev. F. C. McCormick armed with crowbars, jacks, picks and mattocks, leveled the old concrete walls of the basement. Holes drilled in the walls were charged with dynamite and blasted out by Harry Hunt, to the great entertainment of the juvenile population of the town. After tearing down the shattered concrete work, it was planned to call in a company of workmen to haul off the old material and clear the ground for the new excavation.

The adjacent lot, the Lennas property, lying just to the east and 82 by 134 feet in size, had been held by Indianapolis owners who only agreed to its sale at the price of $800 on the day of the final committee meeting. Its purchase gives the church title to a quarter of the block, about 152 by 134 feet in size, a plot large enough, the members feel, to make an appropriate setting for the new building, which will be larger than the old one. Shrubbery and other plantings will be possible in beautification of the grounds, with the additional space available.

Propose Features
The new building will be approximately 50 by 75 feet, and will face west as did the old one, but with the larger space available, will be set back from the property line about 20 feet, even with the front line of the parsonage. It is proposed that the church have a room on each side of the main entrance, class rooms back of the pulpit, and a balcony. A basement large enough to accommodate all who may wish to attend community gatherings, is another feature upon which many have insisted.

Each class of the church is holding meetings this week to talk over the new building and formulate its own suggestions for features which should be included. These suggestions will be given to the building committee, and, wherever possible, fitted into the final plan. Joint meetings of the Loyal Daughters and Straightway classes were held for this purpose Sunday evening, and the Ruth Circle met Monday afternoon. The Straightway class, in fact, completed full and definite plans, which were only presented as a suggestion, however.

Strong interest is still manifested, even in distant communities, in the reconstruction of the church. Still another anonymous $100 donation was received for the building on Tuesday morning, and altogether, $5,300 has been contributed since the memorable meeting the next Sunday after the fire, when $10,500 was pledged within 20 minutes, including the gift of "all the money she had" by three year old Eltoile Anna Clingman.

MURRETTE

In her latest Associated First National photograph, "Domestic Relations," which will be shown for the first time in this city at the Murrette theatre on Thursday, Katherine MacDonald is supported by a company that includes William P. Carleton, George Fisher, Lloyd Whitlock, Frank Leigh, Gordon Mullen, Barbara LaMar, and others. Just as widely known as capable screen players.

Chet Withey directed "Domestic Relations," which was written by Violet Clarke. As a reward for the unusual excellence of her story, Miss Clarke was given a long term contract with Preferred Pictures, Inc., the corporation which makes the Katherine MacDonald productions. B. P. Schulberg, president of the company, when he read Miss Clarke's story and scenario, expressed the opinion that she was one of the most promising, as well as most brilliant, of the modern school of young women scenarioists, and accordingly indicated the well-known dotted line, as he proffered his fountain pen.

"Rogues and Romance," has dedicated that picture to the Kingdom of Spain and the citizens of Algebras, Granada and Seville, in token of their hospitality and co-operation in making this super-spectacle.

"Rogues and Romance" is the Pathe feature coming to the Murray theatre Thursday and it depicts the dashing, daring, whimsical yet tempestuous romance of an American maid and man in sunny Spain. It is imbued with the languorous tropical atmosphere of the land of the Alhambra moon and swaying palms, of serenading troubadours and graceful, dancing, fiery-eyed señoritas.

On the other hand, it offers great contrast in its fighting mob of revolutionists, soldiers and citizens on the huge city plaza, where one of the most spectacular and gigantic scenes ever attempted were staged with many a thrill not intended in the scenario.

The cast supporting Miss Caprice and Mr. Seitz in "Rogues and Romance" presents Marguerite Courtot as the Spanish dancer, Harry Seisels as the witty but fascinating rogue, Frank Redman and William P. Burlshack. Mrs. Sophia Winters of Brownsville, sister of Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Bright Winters and family of Green's Fork spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor. Huey and family, ate a picnic dinner Sunday at Sink's grove, east of Castine and spent the afternoon visiting old People's Home of the Brethren church, south of Greenville. Mrs. Ella Leas entertained Rev. and Mrs. Couser, Rev. and Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Bright, at her home, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Minnich and Mrs. C. E. Barnes spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Brown. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Radabaugh and Mrs. Sarah Homan and daughter, Emma, were in Piqua, Sunday, the guests of relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Seigel of Dayton, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Asa Leas. Margery and Mer-

If your skin itches and burns, just use Resinol

Resinol

If you are suffering from eczema, ringworm or similar itching, burning, unsightly skin affection, bathe the sore places with Resinol Soap and hot water, then gently apply a little Resinol Ointment. You will probably be astonished how instantly the itching stops and healing begins. In most cases the sick skin quickly becomes clear and healthy again, at very little cost. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap also clear away pimples, redness, roughness and dandruff. Sold by all druggists.
